Baseball Fever Wins the SABR Seymour Medal

Peter Morris's Baseball Fever: Early Baseball in Michigan has won the 2004 Seymour Medal Best Book Prize from the Society for American Baseball Research.

The Seymour Medal recognizes the author(s) of the best book of baseball history or biography first published during the preceding calendar year.

To be considered for the medal, a work must be the product of original research or analysis. The winning book shall significantly advance our knowledge of baseball and shall be characterized by understanding, factual accuracy, profound insight and distinguished writing.
