

The Newsroom Archives
UMP Teams up with Petoskey Publishing Company
May 2004

UMP Teams Up with Petoskey Publishing Company

The University of Michigan Press is pleased to announce its partnership with Petoskey Publishing. Headed by Anne Lewis and located in Traverse City, Petoskey Publishing has a staff of experienced regional publishers and is dedicated to publishing unique, high-quality books on a variety of regional topics. Selected guidebooks, biographies, autobiographies, gift books, and novels will be published jointly under both the Petoskey Publishing Company and the University of Michigan imprints. This year's Petoskey offerings include several lavishly illustrated books that spotlight the state of Michigan's unique features.