
Glossary

allegations	accusations, charges
allegedly	supposedly, purportedly
anonymity	not identified by name, hidden identity frustration	feeling of disappointment or weariness caused by unsatisfied desires launch	to introduce, inaugurate
plagiarizing	using someone's words and ideas without citation
sanctions	penalties, punishments
TF	Teaching Fellow, a postgraduate student who is given tuition and expenses for teaching duties

Discussion of Reading 1

These questions, which test your reading comprehension, involve a detailed examination of Reading 1. While many of the answers are found in the text, some questions require critical thinking and analysis. Discuss the answers to these questions with your classmates.

1. Describe the purpose of the investigation by Harvard College's disciplinary board into the final take-home exam in Government 1310 (Spring 2012).
2. Why did the professor of the course bring the case to the Administrative Board?
3. What is a possible sanction for students guilty of academic dishonesty?
4. What instructions were given to the students for the final exam in Government 1310?
5. Why did Dean of Undergraduate Education Jay M. Harris announce the investigation?
6. What score did students give Government 1310 in their Q Guide evaluations?
7. What criticisms did students have about the exam?
8. Write a one-sentence statement of the main idea of the article in your own words.
