Public Opinion and American Foreign Policy

Analytical Perspectives on Politics

ADVISORY EDITORS:

John Aldrich, Duke University

Bruce Bueno de Mesquita, Hoover Institution and New York University

Robert Jackman, University of California, Davis

David Rohde, Michigan State University

Political Science is developing rapidly and changing markedly. Keeping in touch with new ideas across the discipline is a challenge for political scientists and for their students.

To help meet this challenge, the series Analytical Perspectives on Politics presents creative and sophisticated syntheses of major areas of research in the fields of political science. In each book, a high-caliber author provides a clear and discriminating description of the current state of the art and a strong-minded prescription and structure for future work in the field.

These distinctive books provide a compact review for political scientists, a helpful introduction for graduate students, and central reading for advanced undergraduate courses.
