

Contents

Introduction	1
Public Buildings and Institutions	4
The 1838 Jail	4
The County Poorhouse	8
The Private Hospital Era	11
Ann Arbor's Carnegie Library	24
Red Howard, Small-Town Cop	27
The Farmers' Market	31
The University of Michigan	39
The Detroit Observatory	39
The Remarkable Legacy of Francis Kelsey	44
The Botanical Gardens	53
When Football Players Danced the Cancan	57
Lane Hall	66
Inglis House	70
Transportation	74
Orange Risdon's 1825 Map	74
The Michigan Central Depot	81
Ann Arbor's "Other" Railroad	84
Ann Arbor's Streetcars	91
109 Catherine—Car Age Services	95
The Ann Arbor Cooperative Society	99
Industry	102
The Rise and Fall of Allen's Creek	102
Henry Krause's Tannery	110
The Athens Press on Main Street	113
439 Fifth Street: From Drinking Spot to Play Yard	118

The Artificial Ice Company 121

The West Side Dairy 124

Downtown Ann Arbor 128

L. W. Cole and the Michigan Argus 128

John Haarer Photography Studio 134

Hoelzle's Butcher Shop and

Metzger's Restaurant 140

Prochnow's Dairy Lunch 145

Justin Trubey and the Ice Cream Trade 148

Recreation and Culture 152

Otto's Band 152

Ann Arbor's Municipal Beach 157

The Roy Hoyer Dance Studio 161

The Broadway Bridge Parks 166

Cinema's First Century 173

Social Fabric and Communities 186

The Underground Railroad in Ann Arbor 186

Dixboro 202

Delhi Village 207

The Story of the Schwaben Halle 211

A Tale of Two Lakes 219

Architecture 227

Cobblestone Houses in Washtenaw County 227

The Remarkable History of the

Kempf House 232

Ann Arbor's Oldest Apartments 236

Alden Dow's Ann Arbor 245

Frank Lloyd Wright in Ann Arbor 260