

Contents

Introduction: Women, Cancer, Writing	1
1. "The Night-Side of Life": Analyzing Cancer Literature from Feminist Perspectives	11
2. "Skinnied on the Left Side Like a Girl": Embodying Cancer on the Feminist Stage	52
3. Entering "the House / of Lightning": Resistance & Transformation in U.S. Women's Breast Cancer Poetry	82
4. Dying into the Lite: Popular Fiction, Cancer, & the Romance of Women's Relationships	135
5. "Floating Out on a Yacht Called Eros": Memory, Desire, & Death in Women's Experimental Cancer Fiction	173
6. "Entering Cancerland": Self-Representation, Commonality, & Culpability in Women's Autobiographical Narratives	217
Conclusion: The Cultural Work of Women's Cancer Literature	261
Notes	267
Works Cited	277
Index	291