

Index

Note: Page numbers in italics refer to tables and figures.

- AAAS (American Association for the Advancement of Science), 23 acculturation, 49, 122, 167, 168 political acculturation, 13–14
activists, 208, 216
Addams, Jane, 105
advocacy organizations, 105–12
AFL-CIO, 99, 100, 102, 210
African Americans voter turnout rates of, 156, 157
    voting participation of, 61–62, 160, 161
Afro-Caribbean Americans
    assumptions about, 60–61
    in New York, 79, 80, 231n15 selective mobilization and, 59 age, and political participation, 154, 156, 221–25
Agencia, La, 73
agricultural workers, temporary, 39–40
Alianza Dominicana, 128
Alianza Hispano-Americana, 44
America Coming Together, 210
American Association for the Advancement of Science (AAAS), 23
American Association of Jews from the Former USSR (New York chapter), 128
American Federation of Labor, 99
American Federation of Labor-Congress of Industrial Organizations.
    See AFL-CIO America Votes, 210
amnesty for undocumented immigrants, 40, 63, 100, 138 apathy, 1, 2
    assumptions about, 60–61, 77, 198
    fears about, 10
APIA Voice, 76, 77
Arab immigrants, 111
Asian American Federation, 76
Asian American Legal Defense and Education Fund, 106 Asian Americans. See also Chinese Americans; Japanese Americans; Pilot National Asian American Political Survey (PNAAPS)
    in battleground states, 70, 156–57
    citizenship and, 22, 25, 70, 154, 155 compared to European immigrants, 167–69 compared to Latinos, 24–26, 203–5 defined, 227–28n4
    demographics of, 4–6, 153–58, 154, 228n6
    diversity among, 25–26

- Asian Americans (continued)
- education and political participation of, 165, 223–24
  - ethnic voluntary organizations and, 109–10
  - geographic concentrations of, 25, 70, 156–57
  - hierarchies among, 26
  - hostility toward, 62
  - labor organizations and, 99–100
  - length of residence and political participation in, 160–67, 161, 165, 207, 218, 223–24
  - mobilization, lack of, 60, 70–72, 76–77, 157–58
  - mobilization, survey data on, 117, 141–52, 213–17, 223–24
  - and National Asian Pacific American Legal Consortium, 76
  - nonvoting political participation in, 148, 149–50, 165, 184, 224
  - as percentage of U.S. population, 4, 25, 153, 154
  - as “perpetually foreign,” 21
  - political participation determinants for, 146–50, 153–58, 160–67
  - political party outreach and, 70–72, 76–77, 148, 196, 204, 209
  - political power of, 169–70, 200, 204
  - racialization and, 18, 21–23
  - as racial minority, 18, 48–49, 62
  - religious institutions and, 114–15, 150
  - socioeconomic status and political participation of, 166–67
  - transnational politics and, 181–85, 182, 184, 195–96, 224
  - voter registration and, 154, 155–56, 162, 163, 165, 184
  - voting participation of, 70, 77, 148, 149–50, 154, 155–58, 161–66, 184, 223
- Asian Americans for Equality, 128
- Asian Immigrant Women’s Advocates, 129, 191
- Asian Pacific American Labor Alliance, 98, 216
- Asian Pacific Legal Center, 71, 89, 96, 98, 206, 216
- Asiatic barred zone, 22, 24
- Asociación de Tepeyac, 113–14, 124, 133, 136–37, 138, 202
- assimilation, 18, 105, 107, 138
- assimilationist organizations, 96, 105
  - assimilationist pressures, 112, 117
  - and political participation, 179
  - resistance to, 10
  - straight-line trajectory for, 179
- asylum-seekers, 130
- Australian ballot, 56
- Baca, Lee, 46
- balkanization, racial/ethnic, 120, 127, 138, 206
- Bat Dai Do, 31
- battleground states, 70, 72–74, 156–57
- Asian Americans in, 70, 156–57
  - Latinos in, 156–57, 200, 204
  - party focus on, 156–57, 200, 209
  - in 2000, 73, 154
  - in 2004, 72–74, 209, 231n10
- Becerra, Xavier, 86
- Bermúdez, Andrés, 193
- Bernal, Erica, 75, 173
- bilingual education, 20
- Blacks. See African Americans
- Bloomberg, Michael, 78
- border control, 65
- Bracero Program, 39–40
- Brady, Henry, 6, 7, 8, 13, 87, 88, 94, 95, 111, 149, 167, 197, 201, 228n9, 232n14, 261, 265
- Brooklyn Chinese American Association, 202
- Brown v. Board of Education*, 19

- Bush, Columba, 65
- Bush, George H. W., 65
- Bush, George W., 68, 74, 114, 210 voters supporting in 2000/2004, 154, 157
- Bush, Jeb, 65
- Bustamante, Cruz, 68
- Cain, Bruce, 87, 160, 228n9, 229n9, 232n14, 241–42, 245, 256, 258, 264
- California. See also Los Angeles ballot propositions in, 124 demographics of, 169, 228nn5–7 immigration compared to birthrate in, 228n5 length of immigrant residence in, 169–70
     Proposition 187, 20–21, 93, 122, 124–25, 168–69
     Proposition 209, 101, 124, 231n4
     recall election (2003, gubernatorial) in, 170–71 and voting power of Mexicans with dual citizenship, 193–94
- California Federation of Labor, 99
- California Immigrant Workers Association, 100
- campaign finance reforms, 211–12
- Cantonese-speaking immigrants, 29, 31, 32
- Caribbean Women's Health Association, 128
- case studies, 15
- Casey, Ron, 81
- Catholic archdiocese, 98, 216
- Catholic Church, 112, 113–14, 136–37, 138
- CAUSE. See Chinese Americans United for Self Empowerment
- CECOMEX (Centro de la Comunidad Mexicana de Nueva York), 129, 233n3
- census
     Current Population Survey (CPS), 70, 160, 227n3, 235n3
     1980, 215
     1990, 32, 41, 214
     2000, 17, 25, 31, 41, 70, 153–55, 227–28
- Center for Asian Americans United for Self-Empowerment, 127, 202
- Centro de la Comunidad Mexicana de Nueva York (CECOMEX), 129, 233n3
- Chen, Lily Lee, 37
- Chen, Sandra, 132
- Cheney, Richard (Dick), 74
- Chinantla, Mexico, 43
- Chinatown, Los Angeles, 32, 106, 135
     New Chinatown, 32
- Chinatown, New York City, 26–27, 28–30
     Chinese Consolidated Benevolent Association (CCBA) in, 109–10
     Chinese Staff and Worker's Association (CSWA) in, 98, 102–3, 127–28, 216 garment and restaurant workers in, 100–101 and new Chinatown (Sunset Park), 31–32 proposed jail in, 100–101 and second Chinatown (Flushing), 30–31 turnover in, 36
- Chinatown Service Center, 11, 98
- Chinese Americans. See also Asian Americans; Chinese immigrants defined, 228n4 elected representation by, 37
     ethnic voluntary organizations and, 109–10
     homeland politics and, 37, 110, 182, 184, 190–91 political participation overview of, 1–2
     racialization and, 21–23

- Chinese Americans United for Self Empowerment (CAUSE), 126–27, 132, 135
- Chinese American Voters Education Committee, 76
- Chinese Consolidated Benevolent Association (CCBA), 109–10
- Chinese Exclusion Acts, 2, 21, 27 repeal of, 27
- Chinese immigrants, 17–49. See also Chinese immigrants in Los Angeles; Chinese immigrants in New York; multiple immigrant identities; Pilot National Asian American Political Survey (PNAAPS) attitudes toward U.S. political system, 47 Cantonese-speaking, 29, 31, 32 and Chinese Exclusion Acts, 21, 24, 27 compared to Mexican immigrants, 46–48
diversity among, 29–30, 34, 36, 134–36, 139
from Fujian, 27, 29, 31, 110, 196 from Guangzhou (Canton), 29 historical immigration trends of, 27–28 homeland politics and, 37, 110, 182, 184, 190–91
from Hong Kong, 29, 31, 33, 34 immigration preference categories and, 34, 35 from Kwangtung, 29 from mainland China, 27, 29, 31, 33–34, 35 Mandarin-speaking, 30, 31 multiple identities and, 119, 124–28, 134–36 new immigrants, 27, 29, 32–33, 35–36
nonvoting political participation of, 184, 224
and smuggling rings, 29 social service organizations and, 106–8 from Taishan/Toishanese-speaking, 30, 32, 177 from Taiwan, 27, 33, 34, 35
transnationalism and, 177, 182, 184, 190–91
voting participation of, 184, 223
- Chinese immigrants in Los Angeles, 26, 32–35 and Chinatown, 32, 106, 135
community organizations and, 98
compared to immigrants in New York, 35–38
diversity among, 34, 36, 134–36
elected representation by, 37
geographic locations of, 33–35, 134–35 languages used by, 32 in Monterey Park, 33, 34, 35, 37, 135 and New Chinatown, 32 and new immigrants, 27, 32–33
preference categories for immigration and, 34, 35 in San Gabriel Valley, 33–35, 37, 135 socioeconomic status of, 34, 35
suburbanization of, 33–34, 36, 134–35
- Chinese immigrants in New York, 26–32 and Bat Dai Do, 31
and Chinatown, 26–27, 28–30, 36, 100–101
Chinese Staff and Worker's Association (CSWA), 26–32, 98, 102–3, 127–28, 131–32, 216
community organizations and, 97 community profile of, 26–27
compared to immigrants in Los Angeles, 35–38
diversity among, 29–30, 36
and Eighth Avenue, 31

- in Elmhurst-Corona, Queens, 30–31
- in Flushing, Queens, 30–31
- and Fujianese community, 196
- and garment workers, 97, 100–101, 128
- labor organizations and, 100–101
- languages spoken by, 29, 30, 31
- and new Chinatown (Sunset Park), 31–32
- and new immigrants, 27, 29
- from People's Republic of China, 35
- population growth of, 31
- preference categories for immigration and, 35
- and second Chinatown (Flushing), 30–31
- socioeconomic status of, 28–29, 35
- suburbanization of, 30–32, 36
- in Sunset Park, Brooklyn, 30, 31–32, 159–60
- Chinese Progressive Association, 128
- Chinese Staff and Worker's Association (CSWA), 26–32, 98, 102–3, 127–28, 216
- Women's Empowerment Project and Occupational Health Committee, 131–32
- Chinese Voter Education Alliance, 98
- Chu, Judy, 37
- circular migration, 45, 179, 204
- citizenship, 25
  - Asian Americans and, 22, 25, 70, 154, 155
  - dual citizenship, 192–94
  - facilitation by political parties of, 53, 54
  - Latinos and, 51–52, 154, 155
  - levels of noncitizenship, 25
  - Naturalization Law of 1790, 48
  - noncitizenship levels, 25
  - noncitizen voting rights and, 230n5
  - training and, 91, 135, 137–38, 172–73, 200
- civic institutions, 153–76, 197–212
  - and interaction with homeland associations, 108–9
  - outside the party system, 173–75
  - overview of, 2–16
  - and political mobilization, 2–4, 10–15, 88
  - revitalization of, long-term strategies for, 153–76
  - role of, in democracy, 6–7, 197–99
  - role of political participation and, 6–7, 197–99
  - transnationalism and, 194–96
- civic skills
  - and citizenship training by community organizations, 91, 135, 137–38
  - civic education, 91, 135, 137–38, 172–73, 198–99, 200
  - ethnic voluntary organizations and, 111
- Clergy and Laity for Economic Justice (CLUE), 114, 115
- Clinton, Bill, 65–66, 67
  - foreign campaign contributions and, 72
- Clinton, Hillary Rodham, 72
- Club Anajuac, 44
- CLUE. See Clergy and Laity for Economic Justice
- Coalition for Humane Immigrant Rights, 11, 98, 106, 112, 216
- Communist Party, 37
- community organizations, 3–4, 89–118, 173–75, 200–203. See also multiple immigrant identities
  - activities and services of, 91–96, 134, 198, 201–2
  - advocacy organizations, 105–12
  - coalition building/community alliances, 103, 127–28, 176, 205
  - defined, 227n1
  - and democracy, 7

- community organizations (continued)
- ethnic identity retention and, 96, 208
  - ethnic voluntary organizations, 12, 105–12
  - financial resources of, 96–97, 159, 203
  - forms and missions of, 98–99, 134, 159
  - hometown associations, 43, 93, 191, 195
  - and immigrant communities, 200–203
  - implications of mobilization by, 94–96
  - incentives and strengths for mobilizing, 90–94
  - and issue-specific mobilization, 95, 120
  - labor organizations and workers' centers, 99–105
  - leaders' expertise in, 92–93, 174, 201
  - and leaders' ties to immigrant communities, 91–92, 174, 201
  - limited mobilization by, 9, 159, 175–76, 198, 202–3
  - as mobilizing agents, 10–11, 78, 88, 139, 204–5
  - multiple immigrant identities and, 119–39, 205, 207
  - nonprofit organizations, 89–90
  - and nonvoting political participation, 94–95, 112, 117, 142–52
  - number of members/people represented in, 90–91, 95, 110
  - and relationship with political party organizations, 89–90
  - and religious institutions, 112–16
  - segregation of, 103
  - social service organizations, 105–12
  - survey data on, 142–45
  - transnational organizations/practices and, 93–94, 191, 195, 201–3
  - trusted presence of, 207
- Constitution (U.S.), Seventeenth Amendment, 56–57
- Contract with America, 62, 66, 67
- Convocation for Working Families, 102
- CPS. See Current Population Survey
- CSWA. See Chinese Staff and Worker's Association
- Cuban immigrants, 25, 75
- nonvoting political participation and, 189, 222
  - representation perceived for various organizations and, 143–44
  - survey data on, 142–46, 143–45, 219–22
  - transnationalism and, 181, 182, 183, 184, 186–90, 189, 195, 236n2
  - voter registration of, 145, 145, 184
  - voting participation of, 184, 221
- Current Population Survey (CPS), 70, 227n3
- Volunteer Supplement (2002), 160, 235n3
- Davis, Gray, 170–71
- day laborers, 97, 106, 107
- deconstructionists, 122–23
- DeLay, Tom, 232n8
- democracy
- ethnic organizing and, 120–23
  - future health of in U.S., 49, 197–212
  - immigrant participation and, 123–28
  - nature of, 6–7
  - participatory, 197
  - role of institutions in, 6–7, 197–99
  - role of political parties in, 199–200
- Democratic National Committee, 57
- and APIA Voice, 76, 77

- and illegal campaign donations from foreigners, 22–23, 65–66
- Democratic Party. See also political parties; presidential elections
  - Asian Americans and, 209
  - black voters and, 61–62
  - labor organizations and, 210, 231n7, 232n9
  - Latino participation in national conventions of, 66
  - in New York City, 78–79
  - 1996 platform of, 66–67
  - nomination rules of, 57
  - nonmobilization of Latinos in, 60–61
  - Office of Latino Outreach and, 67
  - and outreach to Asian Americans in 2004 campaign, 76, 77
  - and outreach to Latinos in 1992/1996 campaigns, 52, 66–67
  - and outreach to Latinos in 2000/2004 campaigns, 52, 72–73, 199–200, 208–9
  - selective mobilization strategy of, 59, 60
  - short-term strategy of, 158–59
  - tax exempt political advocacy organizations and, 210
- demographics, 4–6, 153–58. See also census
  - aggregate data, 12–13, 169–70
  - of Chinese immigrants in Los Angeles, 32–35
  - of Chinese immigrants in New York City, 31
  - Current Population Survey, 70, 160, 227n3, 235n3
  - Demographic Futures Database, 169
  - of immigration vs. birthrate in California, 228n5
  - of Mexican immigrants in New York City, 41
  - shifting, 4–6, 227n2
- deportation, of Mexican immigrants in the 1930s, 20, 39
- detention centers, 130
- direct election of senators, 56–57
- direct mail, 57, 58, 73, 77
  - development of, 82
- direct primaries, 56
- discrimination
  - gender discrimination, 131–32
  - survey data on, 221–24, 234–35n5
- Dominican immigrants, 25, 136, 178–79
  - and Alianza Dominicana, 128
  - in elected office, 45
  - in New York City, 41
- dual citizenship, 192–94
- Dukakis, Michael, 65
- education
  - citizenship training programs, 91, 135, 137–38, 200
  - and political participation, 164–65, 167, 221–25
  - voter education programs, 172–73
- elections. See also presidential elections; voting
  - electoral reforms, 56, 211–12
  - electoral system, 62
  - noncompetitive, 57, 59, 209
- Elmhurst-Corona, Queens
  - Chinese immigrants in, 30–31
  - Latino immigrants in, 79
  - local politics in, 80–81
- Emergency Farm Labor Program, 39–40
- English
  - as second language, 91, 102
  - English-only laws, 20
  - learning, 25
  - literacy requirements, 64
  - use, and nonvoting political participation, 222, 224

- English (continued) use, and voting participation, 221, 223
- Espiritu, Yen Le, 24, 26, 179, 217, 229n1, 245, 254
- ethnic balkanization, 120, 127, 138, 206
- ethnic organizing, and democracy issues, 120–23. See also multiple immigrant identities
- ethnic voluntary organizations, 12, 105–12, 206
- challenges to mobilizing efforts, 111–12
- homeland associations, 108–9
- hometown associations, 43, 93, 132, 191, 195
- and nonvoting participation of Asian Americans, 148, 149–50, 224
- and nonvoting participation of Latinos, 146–49, 147, 222
- number and membership of, 110
- and representation perceived by Latinos, 143–44
- and voting participation of Asian Americans, 148, 149–50, 223
- and voting participation of Latinos, 146–49, 147, 221
- European immigrants
- circular migration patterns of, 179
- education and political activity of, 167, 225
- ethnic voluntary associations and, 122
- numerical power of, 54
- political incorporation of, 54, 55–56, 137, 167–68
- racialization and, 23–24
- similarity of contemporary immigrants to, 167–69
- exit polls, 155, 157, 235n1
- family reunification immigration category, 34, 35
- Federation of Spanish-Speaking Voters, 44
- Federation of Zacatecan Clubs of Southern California, 93, 132
- Feng, Kathay, 71
- Fernandez, Vicente, 68
- first-generation immigrants, 13–14, 160–61, 194, 229n12
- Flushing, Queens
- Chinese immigrants in, 30, 31
- gender discrimination protest in, 131–32
- second Chinatown in, 30–31
- foreign-born population in U.S., 17, 55
- Asian American proportion of, 25
- Mexican American proportion of, 24–25
- and 2000 Census data, 17
- Fox, Vicente, 193
- Fujian, China, immigrants from, 27, 29, 31, 110, 196
- garment workers, 97, 100–101, 128, 129, 202
- gateway cities, 25, 26
- gays and lesbians, 102, 115, 121
- gender. See also women
- as mobilizing identity, 129–33, 233n4
- discrimination, 131–32
- gerrymandering, 211
- Giuliani, Rudolph, 78
- global cities, 83
- globalization, 14
- Golden Venture*, 29
- gold mining, 21, 27
- Gold, Rosalind, 74
- Gonzalez-Roemer, Gloria, 65
- Gore, Al, 68, 72, 73
- voter support for in 2000, 154, 157
- Great Depression, forced deportation of Mexicans during, 20, 39

- Green Party, 171
- Guadalupe, Our Lady of, 43, 137
- Hahn, James, 45
- Haiti, National Coalition for Haitian Rights, 128
- hate crimes, forum on, 102
- Hero, Rodney, 21, 228n9, 250, 264
- Hispanics. See Latinos; Mexican Americans
- Hispanic Voter Project, 73
- homeland associations, 108–9
- homeland politics, 14–15, 37, 110, 232n11. See also transnationalism
- homeland defined, 236n1
and political participation, 180–90, 208
- hometown associations, 43, 93, 132, 191, 195
- Hong Kong, immigrants from, 29, 31, 33, 34
- Huizar, José, 46
- Hull House, 105
- Huntington, Samuel P., 8, 12, 55, 120, 122, 206, 250–51
- identity groups. See multiple immigrant identities
- illegal immigrants. See undocumented immigrants
- Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigration Responsibility Act, 66
- Immigrant Religion in the City of the Angels* (Miller, Miller, and Dyrness), 115
- immigrants. See also multiple immigrant identities; undocumented immigrants; specific immigrant groups assumptions about political attitudes of, 60–63, 77, 123, 138, 156, 199 contemporary, compared to early European, 167–69 defined, for surveys, 141 first-generation, 13–14, 160–61, 194, 229n12 group differences among, 203–5 and immigration preference categories, 34, 35 and internal diversity among ethnic groups, 133–39 and involvement with homeland politics, 14–15 overview of, 1–16
percentage of voting-age population among, 5 political participation determinants of, 146–50, 153–58, 160–67 and terminology/names used, 227–28n4
- Immigrant Workers Freedom Ride (IWFR), 1, 100, 103–4, 128, 202
- Immigration and Nationality Act (1965), 20, 135
- immigration laws, 20, 227n2. See also immigration quotas
Chinese Exclusion Acts, 2, 21, 27
European immigrants and, 24
Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigration Responsibility Act, 66
Immigration and Nationality Act (1965), 20, 135
Immigration Reform and Control Act (IRCA), 40 and preference categories, 34, 35 immigration quotas, 20, 27–28
Immigration Reform and Control Act (IRCA), 40
- Industrial Areas Foundation, 6–7
- institutional mobilization, 51–88. See also presidential elections
Asian Americans and, 70–72
contemporary political parties and, 55–63, 86–87 historical role of political parties and, 53–55

- institutional mobilization (continued)
- Latinos and, 64–70
  - and local politics in Los Angeles, 77–78, 81–86
  - and local politics in New York, 77–81, 83–86
  - and political party outreach to Asian Americans, 70–72, 76–77
  - and political party outreach to Latinos, 51–52, 64–70, 72–76
  - symbolic politics and mass mobilization, 63–64
- internment camps, 22
- interviews, 98–99, 216–17. See also surveys
- IRCA. See Immigration Reform and Control Act
- Irish immigrants, 167–68
- IWFR. See Immigrant Workers Freedom Ride
- Jacobson, Matthew Frye, 18, 21, 23, 108, 121, 177, 180, 229n1, 251
- janitors, organizing campaigns of, 102
- Japanese Americans, 17
- and internment camps, 22
  - socioeconomic status of, 235n2
  - transnational activities and, 182, 182
- Jiménez, Martha, 132
- Jones Act, 19
- Jones-Correa, Michael, 15, 25, 58, 59, 60, 61, 79, 111, 149, 161, 178, 228–29nn9–10, 230n3, 232n12, 233n4, 237n1, 251, 255
- Justice for Janitors, 102
- Katznelson, Ira, 101, 248, 252
- Kerry, John, 74, 157, 210
- Agencia, La, 73
- labor, as a mobilizing identity, 128–29
  - labor movement, 61
  - labor organizations, 99–105
  - AFL-CIO, 99, 100, 102, 210
  - American Federation of Labor, 99
  - broad role of, 101–2, 105
  - and California Federation of Labor, 99
  - coalition building and, 103
  - Democratic Party and, 104, 210, 231n7, 232n9
  - and national labor unions, 99–100, 231n3
  - racial minorities and women in, 100, 132
  - and relationship with political parties, 104–5, 232n8
  - and representation perceived by Latino immigrants, 143–44
  - and Teamsters Union, 232n8
  - Labor Party, 171
  - languages used in conducting surveys, 214–17
  - LAT. See Washington Post/Henry J. Kaiser Family Foundation/Harvard University National Survey on Latinos in America
  - Latin American Integration Center, 128
  - Latino Commission on AIDS, 98
  - Latino Democratic National Committee, 67
  - Latino Immigrant Fairness Act, 69
  - Latino National Political Survey (LNPS), 15, 141–49
  - caveats on data from, 144
  - languages used, 215
  - methodology of, 215
  - and nonvoting political participation, 146–49, 147, 188–89, 222
  - and political party activism data, 142–46, 151–52
  - questions asked in, 142–43, 146, 147, 183, 186, 234nn4–5
  - and representation perceived for various organizations, 143–44
  - sample descriptive statistics in, 220

- sample selection in, 215
 sample size in, 215, 220
 targeted groups in, 142 transnational participation and,
 186–90, 188–89
 voter registration data for, 145–46, 145, 151
 voting participation and, 146–49, 147, 221
- Latinos. See also Latino National Political Survey (LNPS); Mexican Americans; Washington Post/Henry J. Kaiser Family Foundation/Harvard University National Survey on Latinos in America (LAT)
- age and political participation of, 163–65, 164
- in battleground states, 200, 204
 and California's Proposition 187, 20–21, 230n8
- Catholic Church and, 113–14
- circular migration patterns of, 45,
 204
- citizenship of, 154, 155
- community organizations, perceived representation by, 142–45, 143–44
- compared to Asian Americans, 24–26, 203–5
- defined, 227n4
- demographics of, 4–5, 153–58, 154, 228n7
- diversity among, 25–26
- education and political participation of, 164, 221–22
- geographic concentrations of, 79, 157
- hierarchies among, 26
- Hispanic Voter Project, 73
- hostility toward, 19–21, 62
- labor organizations and, 99, 100, 143–44
- length of residence and political participation among, 160–67, 161, 164, 207, 219–20
- mobilization, survey data on,
 141–52, 213–17, 221–22
- National Association of Latino Elected Officials (NALEO), 74, 75, 118, 173–74
- nonvoting political participation and, 146–49, 147, 162–65, 164, 184, 188–89, 222
- as percentage of U.S. population, 4, 153, 154
- political participation determinants of, 146–50, 153–58, 160–67
- political party outreach to, 51–52, 64–70, 72–76, 199–200, 204
- political party representation perceived by,
 143–44
- racialization and, 18–21
- as racial minority, 18, 48–49, 62
- religious institutions and, 113–14, 232n13
- socioeconomic status and political participation of, 166–67
- transnational politics and, 181, 182,
 183, 184, 185–90, 188–89,
 195–96
- voter registration of, 145–46,
 145, 151, 154, 155–56, 164, 184
- voting participation of, 146–49,
 147, 154, 155–58, 161, 162–66,
 184, 221
- voting power of, 45–46, 158, 169–70
- Latino Workers' Center, 127, 206
- Leach, Irving, 23
- League for the Protection of Immigrants, 105
- League of United Latin American Citizens, 195
- Lee, Cynthia, 32
- Lee, David, 76
- Lee, Wen Ho, 23, 106

- Leighley, Jan, 5, 8, 87, 88, 149, 171, 172, 253
- length of residence. See under political participation
- limited mobilization, 9, 159, 175, 198, 202–3
- Liu, Carol, 37
- Liu, John, 37, 85
- LNPS. See Latino National Political Survey
- Los Angeles. See also Chinese immigrants in Los Angeles; Mexican immigrants in Los Angeles
- antimachine attitudes in, 81
  - Catholic Church in, 114, 137
  - community organizations in, 11, 135–36, 137–38
  - compared to New York, 83–86
  - demographics in, 228n7
  - direct mail and media campaigns in, 84
  - ethnic voluntary organizations in, 108, 109, 110
  - as global city, 83
  - as hostile to immigration, 83
- Immigrant Religion in the City of the Angels* (Miller, Miller, and Dyrness), 115
- janitors' organization in, 102
  - language policies of police department in, 96
  - Latino electoral power in, 45–46
  - Latino/Mexican American elected officials in, 45–46, 86
  - local politics in, 77–78, 81–86, 211
  - and Mothers of East Los Angeles, 130–31
  - neighborhood councils in, 85
  - opportunities for political participation, 85
  - “permanent government” in, 81–82
  - political context in, 81–83
  - as prototypical western metropolis, 81
  - reform culture in, 81, 84
  - social service organizations in, 106–7, 112
  - Waxman-Berman political organization and, 82–83
- Los Angeles Immigrant Funders' Collaborative, 132
- Los Lobos, 68
- Lowe, Lisa, 94, 229n1, 254
- MALDEF (Mexican American Legal Defense and Education Fund), 46
- Maldonado, Abel, 68
- Mandarin-speaking immigrants, 30, 31
- Marable, Manning, 13, 254
- Martinez, Sonia, 68
- mass media marketing, 57–58, 73–74, 77
- mass mobilization, 9, 52, 77, 152, 172–73. See also mobilization
- mass registration drives, 172
  - political party outreach versus, 63–64
- Meng, Jimmy, 37, 85
- merit system, 56, 58
- methods of study, 15, 141–50, 213–17
- Mexican American Legal Defense and Education Fund (MALDEF), 46
- Mexican American Political Association, 106
- Mexican Americans. See also Latinos; Mexican immigrants
- defined, 228n4
  - deportation in 1930s, 20, 39
  - dual citizenship and, 192–94
  - elected representation by, 45–46, 86
  - and Mexican American Legal Defense and Education Fund (MALDEF), 46
  - as percentage of U.S. population, 24–25
- Mexican immigrants. See also Mexican immigrants in Los Angeles; Mexi-

- can immigrants in New York;
  - multiple immigrant identities
- attitudes toward U.S. political system among, 47
- Catholic Church and, 113–14
- circular migration pattern of, 45
- community organizations and, 43, 44–45, 47–48, 137–38
- compared to Chinese immigrants, 46–48
- diversity among, 134–38
- hometown associations and, 43, 93, 132, 195
- Immigration Reform and Control Act and, 40
- multiple identities of, 119–39
- nonvoting political participation of, 188, 222
- and representation perceived for various organizations, 143–44
- survey data on, 142–46, 143–45, 219–22
- in swing states, 139
- temporary agricultural worker status and, 39–40
- transnationalism and, 181, 182, 186–87, 188, 190–91, 195
- voter registration of, 145, 145, 184
- voting participation of, 184, 221
- Mexican immigrants in Los Angeles, 38–41, 43–46, 83
- in Boyle Heights, 39
- community organizations and, 44, 137–38
- community profile of, 38
- compared to immigrants in New York, 43–46, 136–38
- dual citizenship and, 192–93
- in East Los Angeles, 39
- elected representation by, 45–46, 86
- electoral power of, 45–46
- geographic locations of, 38–40
- historical settlement of, 38–40, 43–44
- Immigration Reform and Control Act and, 40
- Mexican states of origin of, 40–41, 136
- political involvement of, 44–46
- socioeconomic status of, 41
- suburbanization of, 40–41
- temporary agricultural workers and, 39–40
- Mexican immigrants in New York, 38, 41–46
- Asociación de Tepeyac and, 98, 113–14, 123–24, 133, 136–37
- Centro de la Comunidad Mexicana de Nueva York (CECOMEX) and, 129, 233n3
- community organizations and, 44–45, 97
- community profile of, 38
- compared to immigrants in Los Angeles, 43–46, 136–38
- dual citizenship and, 192–93
- geographic locations of, 42
- hometown associations of, 43
- Mexican states of origin of, 42, 136
- numbers of, 41
- religion and, 43, 137
- socioeconomic status of, 42–43
- Mexico
  - constitution and government of, 47
  - as democracy, 230n1
  - dual citizenship and, 192–94
  - and Mexican states of origin of immigrants, 40–41, 42, 136
  - voting regulations, and U.S. immigrants in, 181, 193–94, 236n3
- miscegenation laws, 27
- mobilization, 51–88, 114–52, 197–212. See also community organizations; institutional mobilization; multiple immigrant identities; selective mobilization
- challenges of, 10–15
- conclusions on, 150–52, 197–212

- mobilization (continued) defined, 9
   group differences and, 203–5 homeland politics and, 14–15
   impediments to, 198 issue-specific mobilization, 95, 120
   limited mobilization, 9, 159, 175, 198, 202–3
   long-term strategies for, 13–14, 153–76 mass mobilization, 9, 52, 77, 152, 172–73 minority political elites and, 85–86 new possibilities for, 133–39, 205
   overview of, 1–16
   particularized mobilization, 8–9 political machines and, 53–54, 55–56 political parties and, 51–88 selective mobilization, 9, 59–60, 159, 199–200 study methods for, 15, 141–50, 213–17 transnational organizations and, 14–15 types of, 9
   unanticipated processes of, 12–13
 Molina, Gloria, 46, 66, 137
 Mollenkopf, John, 5, 12, 41, 58, 59, 78, 79, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 231n14, 240, 244, 247, 249, 255, 263
 Monterey Park, California
   Chinese immigrants in, 33, 34, 35, 37, 135
   Mexican immigrants in, 39
 Mothers of East Los Angeles, 130–31
 MoveOn.org, 210
Ms. Magazine, 130 multiculturalism, 120
 multiple immigrant identities, 119–39 and coalition building by community organizations, 127–28 and gender as a mobilizing identity, 129–33 and internal diversity within ethnic groups, 133–39 and labor as a mobilizing identity, 128–29 new possibilities for mobilization among, 133–39, 205 organizing around, 123–28
 Muñoz, Cecelia, 69–70
 Museum of Chinese in the Americas, 32
 NAACP, 128, 210
 Nader, Ralph, 157
 NALEO. See National Association of Latino Elected Officials
 Narasaki, Karen, 76
 National Asian Pacific American Legal Consortium, 76
 National Association of Latino Elected Officials (NALEO), 74, 75, 118, 173–74
 National Coalition for Haitian Rights, 128 National Council for La Raza, 69 naturalization. See citizenship Naturalization Law of 1790, 48
 New Deal, 54
 New York City. See also Chinatown, New York City; Chinese immigrants in New York; Mexican immigrants in New York
   Asociación de Tepeyac in, 113–14, 124, 133, 136–37, 138, 202
   Catholic Church in, 113–14
   Chinese Consolidated Benevolent Association (CCBA) in, 109–10
   Chinese Staff and Worker's Association in, 98, 102–3, 127–28, 131–32, 202, 216 civic associations in, 80–81 community boards in, 80–81, 85
   community organizations and, 81, 202 compared to Los Angeles, 83–86 county structure of, 78

- detention centers in, 130 garment workers in, 97, 100–101, 128, 202
 as global city, 83
 immigration history of, 83, 168 local party organizations and transnationalism in, 196
 local politics in, 77–81, 83–86 maintenance of status quo and coalitions in, 85–86 mayoral elections in, 78 mobilization by local party organizations in, 84 opportunities for political involvement, 84–85 political context in, 78–81 political machine in, 53, 78, 84, 168 urban reform movement in, 84
 New York Immigration Coalition (NYIC), 127–28, 130, 206
 Nguyen, Quyen, 132
 Nobles, Melissa, 229n1, 257
 No Child Left Behind, 69, 75
 nonprofit organizations, 89–90
 nonvoting forms of political participation, 6, 13, 94–95, 112, 117 and conclusions from survey data, 150–52 length of residence and, 162–66, 163–65 measurement of, 235n4, 236–37n6 and survey data for Asian Americans, 148, 149–50, 165, 184, 224 and survey data for Latinos, 146–49, 147, 162–65, 164, 184, 188–89, 222
 NOW, 128
 Nuñez, Fabian, 46
 NYIC. See New York Immigration Coalition
 Oaxaca, immigrants from, 108, 109, 110
 O, Cao K., 76
 One-Stop Immigration, 98, 106, 202, 216
 Ong, Paul M., 5, 160–61, 180, 228n9, 250, 253, 257, 261
 Open Housing Act (1968), 40
 Orci, Hector, 73
 Order of Caucasians for the Extermination of the Chinaman, 21 organizational activists, interviews of, 216
 Ozawa, Takao, 22
 Padilla, Alex, 46 participation. See political participation particularized mobilization, 8–9
 Pataki, George, 232n8 patronage system, 53, 56
 Pearl Harbor, 22
 Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act (1996), 20 Pilot National Asian American Political Survey (PNAAPS), 15, 71, 141 languages used in, 214
 methodology of, 214
 nonvoting political participation and, 148, 149–50, 184, 224
 questions asked in, 146, 147, 161, 185, 224 sample descriptive statistics of, 218
 sample selection in, 214
 sample size in, 214, 218
 transnationalism and political involvement and, 181–85, 182, 184
 voting participation and, 148, 149–50, 152, 184, 223
 Pilot Program on Immigrant-Led Hometown Associations, 132
 PNAAPS. See Pilot National Asian American Political Survey Polish immigrants, 180
 political acculturation, 13–14
 political machines, 53–54, 55–56. See also political parties

- political machines (continued)
 antimachine attitudes in Los Angeles, 81 Chicago Democratic machine, 168 contemporary, 58
 electoral reforms and, 56–57, 211 as hostile to immigrant mobilization, 59–60 in New York, 53, 78, 84, 168 origin of, 230n2 role in mobilizing immigrants, 53–54, 55–56
 Tammany machine, 53, 78, 168 versus political parties, 230n1
- political mobilization. See mobilization; political participation
- political participation. See also nonvoting forms of political participation; surveys; transnationalism; voting; specific immigrant groups age and, 154, 156, 221–25
 barriers to, 8–9 challenges for improving, 7–9 and conclusions from survey data, 150–52, 175–76
 defined, 13
 and democracy, 6–7
 demographic features of, 153–58, 154 determinants of, 146–50, 146–52, 153–58, 160–67 education and, 164–65, 221–25 of first-generation immigrants, 13–14, 160–61, 194, 229n12 homeland politics involvement and, 14–15, 177–96, 180–83 length of residence and, 160–67, 161, 169–70, 175, 207, 222–24, 235–36n8 long-term strategies for, 153–76
 measurement of, 235n4, 236–37n6
 overview, 1–16
 party activism in Latino communities, 142–46 passage of time and, 159–67, 168–69, 175 and political contact, causality relationship, 149, 235n6 process of inclusion in, 54–56, 167–69
 role of institutions in, 6–7 socioeconomic status and, 166–67, 221–24 socioeconomic theories of, 97, 198, 232n14
 transnationalism and, 177–96
- political parties, 5–6, 51–88, 197–212.
See also Democratic Party; political machines; Republican Party; Waxman-Berman political organization and assumptions about immigrant political attitudes, 60–63, 77, 199 and assumptions about white swing voters, 61–63, 77 and candidate-centered campaigns, 56–57, 199 changing campaign tactics of, 55–59, 73–74 coalition maintenance by, 59–60, 77, 79–80
 contemporary, 55–63, 199–200, 206–12
 direct mail techniques of, 57, 58, 73, 77 distancing from racial minorities of, 62–63, 87 focus on battleground states by, 156–57, 200, 209 focus on voter mobilization by, 141–46, 150–52, 199–200, 210
 Green Party, 171
 and immigrant communities, 199–200
 Labor Party, 171
 local party organizations, revitalization of, 206–12

- local party organizations, transnational concerns and, 195–96
- local party strength, decline in, 55–59, 86, 199
- long-term strategies of, 170–73, 175, 195–96
- mass media marketing and, 57–58, 73–74, 77
- mass registration drives and, 172
- mobilization, historical role in, 53–55
- mobilization of immigrants by, 3, 5–6, 51–88, 150–51, 157–58
- nomination rules of, 57
- noncompetitive elections and, 57
- and nonvoting participation of Asian Americans, 148, 149–50, 224
- and nonvoting participation of Latinos, 146–49, 147, 151–52, 222
- outreach to Asian Americans by, 70–72, 76–77, 148, 196, 204
- outreach to Latinos by, 64–70, 72–76, 151–52, 199–200, 204
- patronage system of, 53, 56, 58
- personal contact and, 57–58, 211
- and relationship with community organizations, 89–90
- and relationship with labor organizations, 104–5, 232n8
- revitalization of, 57–58, 206–12
- role in democratic process of, 199–200
- selective mobilization strategies of, 59–60, 63, 70, 159, 199–200, 207
- selective voter activation of, 57–58
- shift in mobilizing tactics of, 73–74, 77
- short-term strategy of, 158–59, 170–71, 175, 200
- swing voters and, 61–63, 75, 77, 80
- third parties, 171
- transnationalism and, 195–96
- versus political machines, 230n1
- and voter registration of Latinos, 145–46, 145
- and voting participation of Asian Americans, 148, 149–50, 152, 223
- and voting participation of Latinos, 146–49, 147, 151–52, 221
- Polk, James, 19
- population growth. See demographics
- presidential elections: 1960/1964, Latinos and, 64–65
- presidential elections: 1988, Latinos and, 64–65, 162, 221
- presidential elections: 1992, Latinos and, 64
- presidential elections: 2000, 68–69
- Asian Americans and, 70, 114, 154, 165
- battleground states in, 73, 154
- evangelical Christian churches and, 114
- and immigrant groups as percent of electorate, 155
- Latinos and, 52, 72–73, 154, 208–9
- presidential elections: 2004, 72–77, 157, 209–10
- Asian Americans and, 76, 157, 209, 223
- battleground states in, 72–74, 209, 231n10
- Bush-Cheney campaign, 74
- and immigrant groups as percent of electorate, 155
- Kerry campaign, 74
- Latinos and, 52, 72–76, 157, 199–200, 208–9
- voter turnout in, 223, 230n4
- primary elections, direct, 56
- professionally trained immigration category, 34, 35
- Progressive Era reforms, 56, 211
- Proposition 187, 20–21, 122, 124, 230n8, 231n4

- Proposition 187 (continued) as motivation for political participation, 125, 168–69 protests of, 93, 101
 Proposition 209, 101, 124, 231n4
 Protestant churches, 113, 114–15
 Puebla, immigrants from, 108
 Puerto Rican immigrants defined, 234n1
 in elected office, 45
 in New York City, 41, 135
 nonvoting political participation of, 188–89, 222
 racialization of, 18
 and representation perceived for various organizations, 143–44
 survey data on, 142–46
 and survey methodology, 215 and survey samples, descriptive statistics, 219–20
 transnationalism and, 182, 186–90, 188–89, 195
 voter registration data for, 145–46, 145, 184
 voting participation of, 184, 221
 Puerto Rico
 Puerto Rican defined, 234n1
 U.S. citizenship and, 19, 233–34n1
 Putnam, Robert, 7, 13, 197, 259
- Queens Women’s Network, 129
 quotas. See immigration quotas
- race racial discrimination, 221–24, 234–35n5 racial division and exclusion, 61–63 racial formation, 18, 229n1 racial lumping, 24 racial minorities, political parties’ distancing from, 62–63, 87 racial minority status of Asian/Latino immigrants, 18, 62 racial profiling, 20, 23 racial stereotypes, 62, 122, 204
 segregation, 19, 40, 103 “white races,” 18, 23 racial balkanization. See ethnic balkanization racialization
 Asian Americans and, 18, 21–23
 Europeans and, 23–24
 Latinos and, 18–21
 Reagan, Ronald, 40
 redistricting, 57, 61, 211
Reforging of America (Stoddard), 18 reforms, Progressive Era, 56, 211 religious institutions, 43, 112–16
 Asian American evangelical churches, 114–15
 Asociación de Tepeyac, 113–14, 124, 133, 136–37, 138, 202
 Catholic Church, 112, 113–14, 136–37, 138
 Clergy and Laity for Economic Justice (CLUE), 114, 115 constraints to mobilization by, 115 hostility toward immigrants in, 112–13
 Latinos in Protestant Pentecostal movement, 232n13
 and nonvoting political participation, 146–50, 147, 148, 222, 224
 Protestant churches, 113, 114–15
 and representation perceived by Latinos, 143–44
 voting and, 114, 125
 and voting participation of Asian Americans, 148, 149–50, 223
 and voting participation of Latinos, 146–49, 147, 221
 repatriation, of Mexican immigrants in the 1930s, 20, 39
 Republican National Committee, 57
 Republican Party, 210. See also political parties; presidential elections
 Asian Americans and, 76, 209

- Contract with America and, 62, 66, 67
- labor organizations and, 104, 232n8
- Latinos and, 66–67, 199–200, 208–9
- 1992 platform, 65
- 1996 platform, 66
- platform in 1992, 65
- short-term strategy of, 158–59
- Riordan, Richard, 37
- Rosenstone, Steven, 8, 9, 59, 87, 94, 149, 167, 177, 232n14, 260, 266
- Roybal, Edward, 66
- Sanchez, Loretta, 52
- San Gabriel Valley
- Chinese Americans United for Self Empowerment (CAUSE), 126–27, 132, 135
- Chinese immigrants in, 33–35, 37, 135
- immigrant organizations in, 126–27
- Taiwanese American Citizens League, 135
- segregation, racial, 19
- in community organizations, 103
- in housing, 40
- selective mobilization, 9, 59–60, 159, 199–200
- and patterns of voter participation, 63, 70, 207
- and status quo/coalition maintenance, 79–80
- selective voter activation, 57–58
- senators, direct election of, 56–57
- Service Employees International Union, 102
- settlement houses, 105
- Seventeenth Amendment, 56–57
- Sierra Club, 210
- Skocpol, Theda, 12, 56, 58, 89, 116, 249, 261, 262
- slavery, U.S. historical, 61
- smuggling rings for humans, 29
- social capital, 7
- socialization, long-term, 14
- social networks, 7
- social service organizations, 105–12
- Sociedad Moctezuma, 44
- socioeconomic status, and political participation, 221–24
- Socioeconomic theories, 97, 198, 232n14
- South Asians, 130
- Southwest Voter Registration Education Project, 98
- Spanish-language media use, 65–67, 68, 74
- split-ticket voting, 56
- stereotypes, 122
- of European immigrants, 23
- intraminority racial stereotypes, 230n6
- of minority immigrants as apolitical, 60
- racial stereotypes, 62, 122, 204
- Stern, Andy, 232n8
- Stoddard, Lothrop, 18
- suburbanization
- of Chinese immigrants, 30–32, 33–34, 36, 134–35
- of Mexican immigrants, 40–41
- Sunset Park, Brooklyn
- Chinese immigrants in, 30, 31–32, 101, 159–60
- Mexican immigrants in, 42, 43
- Support Committee for Maquiladora Workers, 93–94
- surveys, 15, 141–52. See also Latino National Political Survey (LNPS); Pilot National Asian American Political Survey (PNAAPS); Washington Post/Henry J. Kaiser Family Foundation/Harvard University National Survey on Latinos in America (LAT)
- immigrant defined in, 141
- languages used in, 214–17

- surveys (continued) limitations of, 213 methodology and data sources in, 15, 213–17
 qualitative data in, 215–17
 quantitative data in, 141–52, 163–66, 181–90, 214–15, 218–25
 sweatshops, 132, 205
 swing voters, 61–63, 68, 75, 77, 80
- Taishan, immigrants from, 30, 32, 177
- Taiwanese American Citizens League, 135
- Taiwan, immigrants from, 27, 33, 34, 35
- Tammany machine, 53, 78, 168
- targeting, 9, 171–72, 207. See also
 selective mobilization
 selective voter activation, 57–58
 Waxman-Berman political organization and, 82
- Teamsters Union, 232n8
- temporary agricultural workers, 39–40
- temporary guest worker program, 69
- Tepeyac. See Asociación de Tepeyac
- Thompson, Waddy, 19
- time
 length of residence and political participation, 160–67, 222–24 passage of, and increasing political participation, 159–60
- town hall meetings, 172–73, 207
- transnationalism, 177–96 and American civic institutions, 194–96
 and Asian Americans, 181–85, 182, 184, 224
 defined, 178
 dual citizenship and, 192–94
 history and literature on, 178–81
 Latinos and, 181, 182, 183, 184, 185–90
 and political involvement, 181–83, 208 and political participation, qualitative data, 190–91
 and political participation, quantitative data, 181–90, 182, 184, 188–89
- transnational organizations, 14–15, 93–94
- Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo, 19
- Truman, David, 56
- Tweed, “Boss,” 168
- Uhlener, Carole J., 160, 199, 229n9, 232n14, 242, 264
- undocumented immigrants amnesty for, 40, 63, 100, 138
 Bush’s no-citizenship program for, 75 community organizations and, 11, 97 detainment of, 129 drivers’ licenses for, 106, 195 mobilization of, 97 number of, 227n3
 Proposition 187 and, 20, 93, 230n8, 231n4
 religious institutions and, 115
- unions. See labor organizations
- United Farm Workers, 130
- United Food and Commercial Workers, 132
- U.S.-Mexican War, 18–19
- Van Buren, Martin, 61
- Verba, Sidney, 6, 7, 8, 13, 87, 88, 94, 95, 111, 149, 167, 197, 201,
 228n9, 232n14, 240, 261, 265
- Villaraigosa, Antonio, 45–46, 86, 137
- voter education, 91, 135, 137–38, 172–73
- voter registration of Asian Americans, 154, 155–56, 162, 163, 165, 184
 as key to voting participation, 156

- of Latinos, 145–46, 145, 151, 154, 155–56, 164, 184
  - and mass registration drives, 172
  - voting. See also citizenship; political participation; specific immigrant groups
  - age and, 156
  - Australian ballot, 56
  - barriers to, 8
  - as cornerstone of political participation, 94
  - dual citizenship and, 192–94
  - exit polls and, 155, 157, 235n1
  - increase among immigrant groups of, 154, 156
  - noncitizen voting rights, 230n5
  - religious institutions and, 114, 125
  - split-ticket voting, 56
  - voter turnout, 57, 58, 151, 156, 200, 221
- Washington Post*/Henry J. Kaiser Family Foundation/Harvard University National Survey on Latinos in America (LAT), 162–65, 214–15
- age and political participation in, 163–65, 164
  - languages used in, 215
  - and length of residence and voting participation, 161, 164
  - methodology of, 214–15
  - questions asked in, 186
  - sample descriptive statistics in, 219
  - sample selection in, 215
  - sample size in, 215, 219
  - and transnationalism and political involvement, 181–90, 182, 184
  - and voter registration, 184
  - and voting participation, 184
- Waxman-Berman political organization, 82–83
- white swing voters, 61–63, 68, 75, 77, 80
  - Wilson, Pete, 20, 21
  - Wolfinger, Raymond, 266
  - women. See also gender
    - Asian Immigrant Women Advocates, 129
    - and changes in status following migration, 132–33
    - and gender as a mobilizing identity, 129–33
    - and gender discrimination, 131–32
    - in labor organizations, 100, 132
    - Mothers of East Los Angeles, 130–31
    - and number of recent immigrants, 132
    - political participation of immigrant women, 129–33, 233n4
    - Queens Women’s Network, 129
    - sexual harassment of, 130
  - Women’s Empowerment Project and Occupational Health Committee (of CSWA), 131–32
  - Wong, Janelle S., 8, 70, 87, 100, 117, 157, 161, 167, 170, 214, 228–29n9, 232n14, 253, 266–67
  - Woo, Michael, 37
  - Workers’ Awaaz, 130
  - Workers’ centers, 102–5, 127, 206
  - World War II
    - internment camps, 22
    - racial stereotypes and, 22
  - Yee, Garrett, 71
  - Zacatecas, 93, 110, 193. See also Federation of Zacatecan Clubs of Southern California