Index

Page numbers for photographs and figures are in italics. Page numbers for tables are in bold type.

age grades: in Central Brazil, 27; Xavânte, 29–32, 30 age sets: in Central Brazil, 27; hō (bachelors’ hut), 29, 31–32, 277n.
  5; in log racing, 35; Xavânte system of, 29–32, 30, 123–24, 277n. 4–5 agriculture: in Central Brazil, 24, 27, 169–71; prehistoric, 17. See also corn; crops; farming; plant domestication in Central Brazil; rice;
  Xavânte Rice Project
Água Boa, town, 25, 196
Akrôa, 26, 55–57, 59–60, 62; Akróa-A Assu, 26; Akróa-Mirim, 26, 28, 66. See also Central Jê Akwê, 26. See also Central Jê
aldeias (mission villages for Indians), 51–52, 55–57, 56, 59–66, 61, 68–69, 93; for Xavânte, 62–66, 278–79n. 8–10. See also Carretão;
  Duro missions; São José de Mossamedes; secular missions
Alvard, M., 165
Amazon River Basin, 17, 27, 276n. 1 18–20
anthropology: historical perspective in, 11–12, 276nn. 6–7; and study of Amazonian peoples, 8–12; and study of change, 8 anthropometry, 96–99, 235–38, 288nn. 21–22; body mass index
  (BMI), 251–55, 257, 253, 255, 289nn. 4–5; stunting, 236–38, 236, 237, wasting, 236–38, 236, 237. See also morphology; nutritional status; obesity Apínaye, 26
Apôwê, Xavânte chief, 42, 75, 79–81,
  84, 128, 143–44, 149. See also leadership
Araguaia River, 13, 17, 19, 28–29, 63, 68–70, 279n. 13. See also inland waterway, Tocantins-Araguaia arbovirus infections, 230–31, 287n. 17
Associação dos Xavantes de Pimentel Barbosa, 25, 87, 89, 91
attacks on Xavânte villages, 58–59,
  73. See also raiding; warfare
Aweikoma. See Xokléng

Bananal Island, 57, 60 bandeira (frontier military or exploratory expedition), 277–78n. 6; to attack Xavânte, 57–59; March to the West as, 73–74; to pacify Xavânte, 61–63
Barbosa, Genésio Pimentel, 74
Barra do Garças, town, 25, 175, 196, 198, 200
Barreto, Mauricio L., 248–50
Baruzzi, Roberto G., 3, 7, 264–65, 275n. 5
baskets, 44; as cradles, 156, 259, 286n. 10; materials for, 156 birds, 161; used for feathers, 161; used for food, 161. See also hunting birth: ascertaining date of, 123–24; women’s age at first, 124. See also Etéñitépa Xavante demography

Black, Francis L., 3 blood groups, 100–108, 101, 103–6. See also DNA; genetic diversity; genetics of Etéñitépa Xavante; protein genetic systems blood pressure, 205, 251, 263, 271, 290n. 9–10; at São Domingos, 205, 262. See also chronic noncontagious diseases; diet; epidemiological transition body mass index (BMI). See under anthropometry Boróro, 71, 79, 250
Botocudo, 26
Brasília, 11, 25, 85–87, 200, 282n. 1
Brazil: constitution of 1988, 11, 87; 500th anniversary of discovery, 12, 92; indigenous population of, 2; interethnic relations in, 12, 92; “invisibility” of Indians in, 2–3, 273–74; military government of, 9, 82, 85–87, 175; number of indigenous societies in, 2 brothers: and household organization, 41–42; and sororal polygyny, 45–47
Callegari-Jacques, Sídia, 121–22
Campinápolis, town, 196, 198
Canarana, town, 25, 196
Canela, 26
Capiékran, 67; and smallpox epidemic, 67–68. See also Canela; Ramkókamekra Carmo, Eduardo H., 248–50
Carretão, 62–66, 69, 279n. 10; abandonment of, 66; Pohl’s visit to, 66. See also aldeias; secular missions Casas do Índio. See under health services Castelnau, Francis de, 66, 68
Castro, Eduardo Viveiros de, 11 cattle, 28, 50–51, 55; in Etéñitépa community, 88, 173; raising, 50–51, 74; ranches, 55, 65. See also under raiding census: by anthropologists, 121–22; Brazilian, 121; categories, 121. See also under Etéñitépa Xavante demography. See also demographic information Central Brazil, 13; Central Brazilian Plateau, 17, 27, 47; economic development of, 74, 175; European penetration of, 50; indigenous groups of, 17, 26–28, 49–51, 50; large villages in, 27; prehistory of, 17. See also cerrado Central Jé, 26–29; linguistic relationships, 26–27; villages of, 27, 55–56. See also Akroá; Akwê; Xakriabá; Xavante; Xerente ceremonies, 35–38, 257; curing ceremony, 142–43; ear-piercing ceremony, 31, 224; initiation of boys, 31; wai’a ceremony, 36, 37. See also log racing; warà cerrado, 17, 21–24, 28, 39–40, 282n. 1, 284n. 12; campo cerrado, 21;
campo limpo, 21; cattle raising in, 187–88; cerradão, 21; cerrado (sensu stricto), 21; conservation of, 188; degradation of, 187–89; farming in, 24, 40, 187; fauna of, 24, 158–68, 282–83nn. 2–3; fires in, 23–24; gathering in, 152–58, 154–55; Indian reservations in, 188; as “inhospitable environment,” 151; location of Etéñitépa village in, 39–41; soils, 23–24; vegetation of, 22, 23; Xavante subsistence in, 21, 24, 152. See also climate Chagas disease, 219
children: as age grade, 29; anemia in, 15, 233–35, 234; baptized at Carretão, 63; birth dates of, 123; carried in baskets, 259, 286n. 10;
deaths of, 15, 209–10, 210; enslavement of Indian, 67; high morbidity of, 15, 209–10; in household sleeping arrangement, 43; intestinal parasites in, 214–15, 214; protein-energy malnutrition, 235–38; rice in diet, 258, 260–61. See also diarrheal diseases; mortality of Eteñitépá Xavante; oral health chronic noncontagious diseases, 2, 16, 243–67. See also blood pressure; diabetes; diet; epidemiological transition; obesity clan system, 32–33, 32, 277nn. 6–7; and demographic change, 145–50, 146, 148, 149; and demographic hegemony, 150; and exogamy, 33; and male fertility, 147–50, 149 climate: rainfall, 20–21; temperature, 19–20 Coimbra, Carlos E. A., Jr., 13, 251 colonists: in colonial Goiás, 28, 49–52, 54–55, 57–65; increase in Goiás, 68; in Maranhão, 66–67; in Mato Grosso, 73–74, 83–85, 175 colonization: of the Amazon, 9; of Central Brazil, 1, 13, 73–75, 175. See also frontier expansion Conklin, Beth, 189 contact: and demographic change, 120, 136–37, 144–50; epidemiological aspects of, 4, 6–8, 136–37, 207; and genetic change, 4; resistance to, 1, 65, 69–70, 74–75, 76, 93. See also pacification corn, 169–70; domestication of, 169; Xavante varieties of, 169. See also agriculture; farming Coudreau, Henri, 69 Couto de Magalhães river, 79 crops: annatto, 170; bananas, 170–71; beans, 170; cotton, 170; introduced, 283n. 6; mangos, 170; manioc, 170–71; papayas, 170; pumpkins, 170; sweet potatoes, 170–71; watermelons, 170; yams, 170–71. See also agriculture; corn; farming; rice Culuene River, 79; Xavante territory on, 84 Cunha, Manuela Carneiro de, 12 death: afterlife, 142; estimating adult age at, 124; estimating child’s age at, 124; speaking about dead, 123 death rate. See mortality of Eteñitépá Xavante deforestation, 9; of Amazonia, 87 demographic information: estimation of birth dates, 123; lack of, for indigenous peoples in Brazil, 121–22; use of event calendar, 123. See also census demographic transition. See epidemiological transition demography. See Eteñitépá Xavante demography dental health. See oral health dermatoglyphics, 96, 99–100, 100. See also genetic diversity; morphology development programs, 9–10, 15, 283nn. 7–9; in eastern Mato Grosso, 80, 84, 175–76; and indigenous peoples, 10; and Xavante, 175–78. See also colonization diabetes, 16, 263–67, 266, 290–91nn. 11–13, 15–16. See also chronic noncontagious diseases; diet; epidemiological transition diarrheal diseases, 15, 54, 204–5, 210–13; and breastfeeding, 212, 286n. 9; and environmental factors, 208, 211; and oral rehydration therapy (ORT), 212–13; zoonotic transmission of, 211. See also sanitation diet: changes in, 178–84; cultivated foods in, 182, 183–85. See also hearts of palm in, 153; palm nuts in, 153; purchased foods in, 182, 183–85, 183; roots and tubers in, 153–54; wild foods in, 153, 182, 183–85, 183 Directorate, 59–60, 64, 278n. 8; and “assimilation of Indians,” 59–60; suppression of slavery under, 59. See also secular missions

Disease pressure, 6, 205, 207

DNA, 95–96, 108–9, 109, 110–15, 115, 116, 118. See also genetic diversity; genetics of Etéñitépa Xavante domestic animals, 171, 173; chickens, 172, 173; dogs, 173; pets, 173. See also cattle dreaming, 38, 142
dry season, 19–21, 27, 35, 48; ceremonies in, 35; temperatures in, 19–20; trekking in, 27

Duro missions, 55–57, 56; abandonment of, 56; São Francisco Xavier do Duro, 55; São José do Duro, 55. See also aldeias education, 2, 40; access to, 2; opportunities for, 92–93; of young Xavante leaders, 84, 88–89

Eiten, George, 22–23

Epidemics, 6–9, 14, 54, 56, 65, 70, 79, 82, 93, 120, 205–6; among Capiekrann, 67–68; at Carretão, 63–64; demographic effects of, 145–50, 146, 148, 149; and depopulation, 8, 14, 51, 93; and genetically based susceptibility, 7; importance of medical care in, 141; among settlers, 54, 65; sociocultural factors in, 7, 141; and sorcery accusations, 141, 144. See also Etéñitépa Xavante demography; infectious and parasitic diseases; mortality of Etéñitépa Xavante; population epidemiological polarization, 271–72, 288–89n. 1

Epidemiological transition, 3, 12, 15–16, 244–67; in Brazil, 247–50, 249; theories of, 244–47; Xavante and, 250–67, 270–73. See also blood pressure; diabetes; epidemiological polarization; obesity epidemiology: of indigenous peoples in Brazil, 2–3, 6–8; lack of data on, 202–3, 208; of Xavante, 15–16, 202–10, 270–73; sociocultural factors in, 6–7. See also infectious and parasitic diseases; epidemics

Etéñitépa community, 1–4, 13–16, 18, 20, 26, 29–48, 70, 80–82; age grades in, 29–32; age set cycle in, 29–32, 30, 123–24; books about, 91–92; cd of Xavante singing, 91; clan and lineage system of, 32–35, 32, 41–42; economy of, 92–93; factionalism in, 38–39, 84, 143–48; households in, 45–47, 45, 46; houses in, 42–45; leadership in 1990s, 84, 88–91; links with outsiders, 15, 39, 89–93; marriage in, 33–35, 34; permanence of village, 207; and Sepultura rock group, 92; struggle to regain territory, 83–86; videomaking, 92; village, 20, 39–42, 41, 47–48. See also ceremonies; Etéñitépa Xavante demography; leadership; Pimentel Barbosa reservation; Xavante: Xavante territory

Etéñitépa Xavante demography, 120–40, 280–81nn. 1–2; age composition, 125–26, 126; age-specific fertility rates, 138–39, 138; census in 1977, 128; census in 1990, 128–29, 281n. 4; change in fertility, 126; comparing Xavante with Brazilian, 129; crude birth rate, 129, 281n. 5; data from reproductive histories, 120, 129; and epidemics, 134, 145–50, 149; and infant deaths, 139–40, 282nn. 10–12; male fertility and lineage exogamy, 149–50, 149; migration, 128; parity, 130–33, 131, 132, 133, 281–82nn. 7–8; population change, 124–26, 125, 281n. 3; population decrease, 81–82, 130, 134; population growth, 125, 127–28; population pyramids, 126, 127; sex composition, 125–26, 126.
See also Eténitépa community; mortality of Eténitépa Xavanté; population exogamy. See under clan system factionalism. See under Eténitépa community. See also leadership; Xavanté farming, 40, 169–71; in the cerrado, 15, 24; in colonial settlements, 54, 60, 63–65; harvesting, 171; and time allocation, 180, 180, 181; women as garden owners, 170. See also agriculture; corn; crops; plant domestication in Central Brazil; rice; Xavanté Rice Project Fawcett, Col. Percy, 72–73 Ferreira, Manuel Rodrigues, 151 firearms, 57–59, 64, 70; used for hunting, 161 fish, 166–67, 283n. 5. See also fishing fishing, 31, 166–68, 168; by boys, 167; with fish poison, 167; increase in, 179; on Rio das Mortes, 166–68, 168; smoking fish, 167; and time allocation, 180, 180, 181. See also fish fissioning: of groups, 27–28; lineal, 5; of villages, 5, 125 Fleming, Peter, 72 Flowers, Nancy M., 13, 23, 33, 39–40, 42, 83, 122–25, 145, 162, 178–79 food consumption. See diet food sharing, 162; fish and game, 162, 164; garden food, 164 Freire, José Rodrigues de, 61 Freitas-Filho, Amary Sadock de, 203–6, 285nn. 1–3 Frenk, Julio, 246–47, 271 frontier expansion, 5, 52, 93, 176, 268. See also colonization FUNAI (Fundação Nacional do Índio—National Indian Foundation), 83–87, 89–90, 92; and collection of demographic information, 121; and epidemiological information, 208; and health services, 193–98; Indian posts, 18, 31, 39; methods of pacification, 64; replaces SPI, 82; and Xavanté leaders, 25, 38–39, 85–89, 178; and Xavanté Rice Project, 15, 176–78 Fundação Brasil Central (FBC–Central Brazil Foundation), 73, 192 gallery forest, 22–23, 156, 161, 169–70. See also cerrado game, 158–66, 160; meat from, 166; overexploitation of, 165–66, 189, 283n. 4; peccary, 163, 164; tapir, 159. See also game management plan; hunting game management plan, 89–90, 166, 189; and wara, 189 Gardener, George, 66 gardens. See farming Garfield, Seth, 83 gathered plant foods, 153–56, 154–55, 171. See also gathering; palms gathering, 14, 152–58; honey, 156; importance in Xavanté diet, 152–53; increase in, 179, 185; by men, 157; and time allocation, 180, 180, 181; turtle eggs, 161; by women, 157. See also gathered plant foods; insects as food; palms; trekking Gavião, 115–17, 116, 118 Gavião-Parakatejé, 26; and chronic diseases, 250–51, 273 Gê. See Jê linguistic group genetic diversity, 4–5, 14, 115–19; comparing Xavanté with other South American groups, 115–17, 116, 118; variation over time at Eténitépa, 117, 119. See also blood groups; dermatoglyphics; DNA; genetics of Eténitépa Xavanté; morphology; protein genetic systems genetics: and disease, 7; and pemphigus, 222 genetics of Etnéitépa Xavante, 14, 95–96, 100–108; and comparison with other groups, 107–19. See also blood groups; DNA; genetic diversity; morphology; protein genetic systems
Godoy, João de, 58
Goiânia, 25, 89, 196, 199
Goiás, 13, 51–66, 68–69; gold rush to, 51–52, 54; Indians settled in, 55–57, 60–65; Xavante in, 57–59, 61–64, 66. See also aldeias; gold miners; gold mines; secular missions
gold miners, 13, 49, 63; African slaves
as, 54, 58; and ill health, 54; privations of, 54; Xavante fighting with, 52, 63. See also gold mines gold mines, 49, 52, 54; decline of, in Goiás, 58, 60, 65; discovery of, in Goiás, 51–52, 54, 277n. 4; and Kayapó, 88; prospecting for, 58, 63.
See also Goiás; gold miners
Gomes, Méricio, 10
Goodman, Alan H., 269
Goyaz Indians, 52
Graham, Laura, 13, 31, 36, 38, 80, 89–90, 142, 165, 171, 188
Greenberg, Joseph H., 26
Guaraní Kaiwá, 97, 97
Guégue, 26
Gugelmin, Silvia, 179, 235–36, 252, 255
Hames, Raymond B., 9
Harris, David R., 23
health services, 3, 192–201; access to,
2; Casas do Índio, 193–94, 198, 208, 286nm. 7–8; deficiency of, 15;
and discrimination against Indians,
197–98; equipes volantes de saúde (EVSSs, mobile health teams), 193;
under FUNAI, 193–99; Fundação Nacional de Saúde (FUNASA, National Health Foundation), 199– 200, 208, 285n. 6; hospitals and clinics, 196–97, 208; Médecins sans Frontières (MF, Doctors without Borders), 195–96, 209; monitores indígenas de saúde (Indian health assistants), 195; provided by Salesian misionaries, 195; Serviço de Unidades Sanitárias Aéreas (SUSA, Service of Airborne Health Units), 192, 193; Sistema Único de Saúde (SUS, United Health System), 196–97, 199; Sub-sistema de Atenção à Saúde Indígena (Indigenous Health Care Subsystem), 198, 199–201, 285nn.
2, 6
health transition. See epidemiological transition
hepatitis B, 223–27, 286–87nn. 12– 14; and ear-piercing ceremony, 224;
and infant feeding, 226; and scarification, 225, 225, 287n. 15 history: of Amazonian peoples, 11; in anthropological studies, 5, 11–12 history of Xavante, 53–54, 268; in eighteenth century, 51–52, 57–65;
in nineteenth century, 66–71, 279n.
11; in twentieth century, 72–94. See also aldeias; bandeira; Carretão; Central Jé; contact; Etnéitépa community; Goiás; migration; pacification; Xavante; Xavante territory hô (bachelors’ hut). See under age sets horticulture. See farming house, Xavante, 41–44; construction of, 156; description of, 41–43; and disease transmission, 208; kitchen lean-to of, 43, 43, 208; and mosquito biting, 217–19, 218; ri uptabi (traditional house), 42–44, 43, 44, 91, 204, 218; sleeping arrangements
in, 42–43; sleeping mats in, 43, 154, 157 household, 33, 45–47; kin relationships in, 45–47, 46, 140; number of occupants in, 45, 45
human biological variation, 3–5, 95–96 hunter-gatherers, prehistoric, 4, 17 hunting, 158–64, 159, 163, 164; collective, 161–62; dabatsa (wedding hunt), 164–65; du (dry season hunt), 47–48, 162; and environmental conservation, 165; with fire, 24, 31, 35, 162; importance of, 158; increase in, 179, 185; productivity, 161–62, 166, 283n. 4; and time allocation, 180, 180, 181; use of community truck in, 165, 257, 258. See also game; game management plan hypertension. See blood pressure

Ianeli, Rubens, 197, 216
IBP (International Biological Program), 275n. 4
Indian leaders, 11, 64. See also under Etéhitépa community
Indian organizations, 11. See also Associação dos Xavantes de Pimentel Barbosa Indian rights, 10–11, 85; and Brazilian Constitution of 1988, 87 infant mortality. See under mortality of Etéhitépa Xavante infectious and parasitic diseases, 2, 6, 7, 15–16, 54, 193, 202–42, 286nn. 7–8; as cause of death, 209–10, 210; frequency of diagnosis, 209, 209; and lifestyle changes, 208, 241–42; transmission of, 208, 240; treponemal infection, 54, 204, 230, 287n. 16. See also arbovirus infections; Chagas disease; diarrheal diseases; hepatitis B; influenza; intestinal parasites; leishmaniasis; leprosy; malaria; measles; pemphigus foliaceus; pertussis; poliomyelitis; respiratory diseases; smallpox; tuberculosis influenza, 144, 204 inland waterway, Tocantins-Araguaia, 15; Xavante campaign against, 92, 187, 189–91, 284–85nn. 13–14 insects as food, 156–57. See also gathering interethnic relations, 12, 94 intestinal parasites, 208, 213–15, 214; and children, 214–15; and oral-fecal infection, 214; at Simões Lopes, 215. See also sanitation Jabiru Project, 89–91; failure of, 90. See also nongovernmental organizations (NGOs)
Jaikó, 26
Jê linguistic group, 13, 26–29; in cerrado habitat, 151; history of, 27; Macro-Jê, 26–27; Northern Jê, 26–27; social organization, 27–28; Southern Jê, 26–27. See also Central Jê; names of specific groups
Juruna, Mario, 84–85
Kaingang, 26, 97–98
Karajá, 60, 71, 89; settled at Mossâmedes, 60, 69; and Xavante fear of disease, 71; Xavante raids on, 60
Karipuna, 264
Kayapô, 4, 26, 61, 87–88, 95, 169; and commercialization of natural resources, 185; morphology, 97–98; kin networks, 25
Krahó, 26
Kreen-akarôre, 26
Krenak, Ailton, 87, 89
Kunitz, Stephen, 269–70, 272–73
language. See under Central Jê leadership, 10–11, 38–39, 83–89; and factionalism, 38–39; and social differentiation, 92–93; and young leaders, 88–93. See also under Etéhitépa community. See also Apowê; Suptô; Warodi; Xavante Rice Project
Leatherman, Thomas L., 269
Leeuwenberg, Frans, 189
legends: of brave women who raided white village, 71–72; of the river porpoises, 49, 70
leishmaniasis, 204, 221
Leitão, Ismael, 81–82, 84
Leite, Maurício, 237
leprosy, 204, 221
life cycle, 29–35 lineages, 27, 32–33, 32, 41–42; and factionalism, 32, 143–45; and households, 41–42; Wamãri lineage, 143–50, 146, 148, 149. See also clan system local systems, and interaction with larger processes, 1, 6, 8, 49–50, 93, 269–73 log racing, 27, 35, 40, 257, 260; and women, 35. See also ceremonies maize. See corn Makiritáre, 4, 95
malaria, 7, 15, 65, 203–4, 215–19; at Areões, 215; at Etéhitépa, 216; at São Domingos, 216; transmission of, 217–19; and Xavante houses, 217–19, 218
Maranhão, 66–67
March to the West, 1, 73, 80. See also frontier expansion marriage, 31–35, 41, 43, 140, 277n. 8; dabatsa (wedding hunt), 164–65; effects of demographic crisis on, 147, 149–50, 149; and group endogamy, 106. See also clan system; polygyny Martius, Carl Friedrich von, 26, 28, 65–66
Mason, J. Alden, 26
Mato Grosso, 17, 72–73; and colonization, 82–84, 175; commercial farming in, 175; economic development of, 80, 175; and land concentration, 175. See also Central Brazil; colonization; March to the West matrilocal residence, 33, 41. See also marriage Mattos, Brig. Raymundo Cunha, 54, 66 measles, 6, 54, 82, 136, 141, 204–5. See also epidemics media: and Brazilian Indians, 10; Xavante and, 84–85, 86
Meireles, Francisco, 74–75, 79
Mello, João Manuel de, governor of Goiás, 57–60
Mendes, Chico, 88
Menezes, Claudia, 175, 261
Menezes, Tristão de, governor of Goiás, 61–62
men’s council. See wará migration: of colonists, 9; intervillage, 5, 13, 27–29, 39, 128; westward, of Xavante, 68–72, 94 missionaries, 36, 49; American Protestant, 79; Capuchin, 69; influence of, 36, 79–80; Jesuit, 64; killed by precontact Xavante, 74; Salesian, 79, 195, 254 mission villages. See aldeias Moran, Emilio F., vii–viii, 283n. 9 morphology, 96–98, 97, 99; and standardized photographs, 96, 98. See also anthropometry; genetic diversity mortality of Etéhitépa Xavante: and accusations of sorcery, 143–45, 282nn. 13–14; change in, 126, 138; of children, 130–36, 131, 132, 133; crude death rate, 129, 281n. 6; deaths between 1977 and 1990, 128, 128; difficulty of collecting information on adult, 124; distribution of children’s death by age, 136; epidemics as cause, 136–37; infant, 14, 137–38; life tables for children, 135, 282n. 9. See also Etéñitêpa Xavânte demography Museu do Índio, 92; photographs of Xavânte contact in 1946, 92

Nambikwâra, 169; and commercialization of natural resources, 185
Neel, James V., 3–8, 13, 95–97, 122, 136, 203–6, 215, 222, 238–39, 251
Nimuendaju, Curt, 26, 69
nongovernmental organizations (NGOs), 10–11, 15, 25, 39, 85, 87–93, 122, 186, 189–91, 285n. 5
Noronha, Marcos de, governor of Goiás, 55
Nova Xavantina, town, 25, 89; health services in, 196–98
Nutels, Noel, 141, 192–93
nutritional status, 231–38, 291n. 14; data for Brazil, 237–38, 237; estimating children’s ages, 235; and infections, 232, 237; protein-energy malnutrition, 235–38, 236, 237, 288nn. 21–22. See also anemia; anthropometry; obesity

Obesity, 16, 205, 250–61, 256, 289nn. 2, 4; comparing Sangradouro with Etéñitêpa, 252, 254–55, 254, 255, 256, 257–61, 290n. 1; and diet change, 257, 258, 260–61; at Etéñitêpa, 251–60, 251, 253, 289nn. 5–6; among indigenous peoples, 250–51; and physical activity, 254, 255, 257, 258, 259, 260; at São Domingos, 251–52, 251, 253, 256, 289nn. 3, 7. See also anthropometry; blood pressure; diabetes; diet; epidemiological transition
O Cruzeiro, Brazilian newsmagazine, 75; aerial photographs of precontact Xavânte villages, 76, 77

Omran, Abdel, 244–46
oral health, 205, 238–40, 239, 240; at São Domingos, 238–39, 240. See also diet oratory. See under warâ pacification, 1, 28; and distribution of “gifts,” 64, 74–75, 78, 78; of Xavânte in Goiás, 61–64; of Xavânte in Mato Grosso, 74–80, 173–74, 280nn. 17–18. See also contact; FUNAI; SPI Palikûr, 264

palms, 153, 154–55; buriti palm, 23; used as food, 153; used for artifacts; 156; used for house building, 156
Pan American Health Organization (PAHO), 202
Panará. See Kreen-akarôre
Parabubu, precontact Xavânte village, 79
Parakanâ, 185
Parakatejé. See Gavião-Parakatejé
patrilineality. See clan system pemphigus foliaceus (fogo selvagem), 221–23; at Etéñitêpa, 222; genetic factors in, 222, 286n. 12; at Simões Lopes, 222 pertussis, 136, 204–5
Pimentel Barbosa reservation, 14–15, 17–19, 18, 20, 25–26, 79, 81, 92, 196; Água Branca village, 18, 82; area of, 18; BR-158, federal road, 25, 40; Caçula village, 18, 81, 88, 125; demarcation of, 81, 83–86; ecology of, 185; location of, 17; Pe’azarupré village, 18, 81, 91; “satellite villages,” 125; Tanguro village, 18, 81, 125; topography of, 19; towns near, 25; transportation on, 25. See also Etéñitêpa community plant domestication in Central Brazil, 169–70; Cissus gongyloides, 169; peanuts, 169; pineapples, 169. See also agriculture; corn; crops; farming Pohl, Johann Emmanuel, 65–66, 279n.11
poliomyelitis, 204–5 polygyny, 33–35, 34, 41, 45–47; sororal, 41, 45–47. See also marriage population: decline, 1–2, 5–6, 8–10, 14, 51, 120, 150; decline in Mato Grosso, 79, 81, 93; dynamics, 120; recovery and growth, 2, 10, 14, 120, 150. See also epidemics; Etéhitépa Xavante demography; mortality of Etéhitépa Xavante Portuguese colonial government, 1, 13, 52, 54–65, 93–94; and Xavante, 57–65 postmarital residence, 33, 41. See also marriage pottery, 39; prehistoric, 17 protein-energy malnutrition. See under nutritional status protein genetic systems, 95, 100, 101, 102–6, 103–6; of Xavante, 100–102, 106–7. See also blood groups; DNA; genetic diversity; genetics of Etéhitépa Xavante raiding: cattle, 51–52, 55, 60, 66; mining camps, 55, 57–61; settlers’ plantations, 51, 65–66; by Xavante, 278n. 7. See also warfare rainy season, 19–21, 35, 58–59; temperatures in, 20
Ramkökamekra, 26
Ramos, Alcida, 87, 91, 185
Ravagnani, Osvaldo, 75
regional economy, 94; incorporation of Xavante, 94 respiratory diseases, 227–28; as cause of death, 209–10, 210; and environmental factors, 227–28, 229; frequency of diagnosis, 209, 209. See also tuberculosis
Ribeiro, Darcy, 8
Ricardo, Carlos Alberto, 10
rice: in diet, 181–82, 183, 258, 260–61; farming, 15, 84, 87, 169–71; harvesting, 171; hulling, 172. See also Xavante Rice Project Rio das Mortes, 19, 26, 68–72, 75, 80, 91–92
Robinson, John G., 189
Roncador-Xingu Expedition, 74, 151, 192. See also Fundação Brasil Central: March to the West
Roosevelt, Anna C., 12
Sahlin, Marshall, 186
Saint-Hilaire, Auguste de, 65
Salesian missions. See under missionaries Salzano, Francisco M., 3–4, 13, 95–97, 121–22, 204, 222 sanitation: soil contamination, 207; washing, 207; water pollution, 40, 207; water supply, 40, 207, 285n. 5. See also diarrhea diseases; intestinal parasites Santos, Ricardo Ventura, 13, 251
São Domingos, SPI post, 20, 79–82, 174, 205–6, 243, 277n. 3; bioanthropological studies at, 95–107, 123, 130–34, 205–6, 238–40, 251; and malaria, 216; oral health at, 238–39, 240. See also epidemics; infectious and parasitic diseases; obesity
São Francisco River, 27, 28
São José de Mossâmedes, 60; description of, 60, 61, 278n. 9. See also aldeias; secular missions São Pedro de Alcântara, 66–67 secular missions, 52, 59–60. See also aldeias; Carretão; Directorate; São José de Mossâmedes sedentarization. See settlement Sereburá, elder at Etêhitépa, 70
Serra do Roncador, 19, 72 settlement: of Indians, in Goiás, 55–57, 60–65; of Xavante in Goiás, 60–65; of Xavante in Mato Grosso, 78–80, 173–74. See also aldeias; Eténiépa community; secular missions settlers. See colonists shamans, 141–42
Silva, Aracy Lopes da, 79
Silva, Hermano Ribeiro de, 71
Simões Lopes, SPI post, 79; research by Neel team at, 95–96, 98, 100, 103–6, 206, 215 singing, 31, 40; da-nô’re singing, 31; songs learned from the ancestors, 142 skin diseases, 220–23, 286n. 11; in children, 220; transmission of, 220. See also leishmaniasis; leprosy; pemphigus foliaceus slaves: African, in mining camps, 51, 58; Indian children as, 57, 67; Indians sold as, 67; Indian war captives as, 55, 57, 66; raiding for, 52, 66 cutaneous, 6, 54, 65, 67–68
soils. See under cerrado sorcery, accusations of, 82; and deaths in epidemics, 141; at Eténiépa, 142–45; and factionalism, 143–45
Souza, Carlos M., Jr., 11
SPI (Serviço de Proteção aos Índios–Indian Protection Service), 74–75, 277n. 3, 280n. 16; encouragement of agriculture, 173–74; and health services, 192–93; Indian posts of, 78–79; and pacification of Xavante, 74–78. See also FUNAI
Spix, Johann Baptist von, 65 splitting. See fissioning Stearman, Allyn M., 189
steel tools, 64, 71, 75–76, 170. See also contact; pacification subsistence strategy: changes in, 178–84; effects of Xavante Rice Project, 179; and links with outsiders, 186; and pensions, 186; shown by time allocation, 179, 180, 180, 181. See also agriculture; fishing; gathering; hunting; time allocation Suptó, chief of Eténiépa village, 88, 92
Suruí: and chronic diseases, 250–51, 273; and commercialization of natural resources, 185; genetic diversity, 115–17, 116; and population relationships, 117, 118
Suyá, 26
Taggia, Friar Sigismundo de, 69–70; visit to Xavante, 69–70
Tenetehára, 97–98
Tikúna, 98
Timbira, 26, 169; Eastern Timbira, 26; Western Timbira, 26. See also names of specific groups time allocation, 15, 178–82, 180, 180, 181, 254, 255, 284n. 10. See also subsistence strategy tocantins River, 17, 19, 27, 29, 52, 55, 66, 68. See also inland waterway, Tocantins-Araguaia trade goods, 39, 64, 75–76, 82, 143–44. See also pacification trekking, 27, 68, 158, 173–74. See also gathering Tsôrepré, ancestral Xavante village, 49, 70, 72, 75 tuberculosis, 15, 192–94, 203, 228–30; BCG vaccination, 195, 230; at Eténiépa, 229. See also epidemics Upper Xingu region, 7, 72; indigenous population in, 7, 264–65. See also Xingu Park; Xingu River
Urban, Greg, 11, 27
Vargas, Getúlio, 73, 75, 280n. 15
Vasconcellos, Dom José d’Almeida, baron of Mossâmedes, governor of Goiás, 59, 60–61 vegetation. See cerrado
Vickers, William T., 9
Vieira-Filho, João Paulo, 260–61, 264–65
Vila Boa, capital of Goiás captaincy, 54, 62

Waiwái, 115–17, 116, 118
warā (men’s council), 35, 36, 38–40, 47–48; before contact, 49; oratory in, 38. See also leadership warfare, 1, 28, 51, 57–59, 62, 66; “offensive war,” 55, 57, 93, 277n. 5. See also attacks on Xavante villages; raiding Warodi, chief of Etéñitepá, 36–38, 42, 45–47, 84, 87, 128, 142; Warodi’s dream, 38, 87. See also leadership
Whitehead, Neil, 64
women, 31–35; age at first birth, 124; and age set system, 31–32; anemia in, 15, 233–34, 234; and factionalism, 32; as garden owners, 171; and gathering, 157; health of, compared to men, 206; and Jaborir Project, 90; and legend of raid on white village, 71–72; and polygynous marriage, 33–35; reproductive years of, 123; walking and carrying, 259
Wood, Charles, 139–40
Wright, Robin, 9

Xakriabá, 26, 28, 55–57, 59, 276–77n. 2, 278n. 7
Xavante, 1–4, 8, 11–16, 49, 51, 57; and factionalism, 38–39; genetic studies of, 4, 13–14, 100–119; geographical location, 17–21, 18, 276n. 1; in Goiás, 57–66; and “indigenous image,” 11, 39; as a Jê group, 26–29; links with outsiders, 25–26, 88–94; migration westward, 68–71, 279n. 13; population numbers, 17; precontact villages, 76, 77; social organization of, 29–35. See also Central Jê; Etéñitepá community; Pimentel Barbosa reservation; Xavante reservations; Xavante Rice Project; Xavante territory
Xavante reservations, 13, 17, 18, 19, 20, 25–26; Arevões, 17, 79, 92, 196; demarcation of, 80–82; Marãwasede, 17, 79, 82; Marechal Rondon, 17; Parabubure, 17, 196; Pimentel Barbosa (see Pimentel Barbosa reservation); rice project in, 178; Sangradouro, 17, 33, 79, 195, 237, 252, 254–61, 254, 255, 256, 265–67, 266; São Marcos, 17, 79, 81–82, 84, 95, 195, 206, 254, 265; villages in, 17. See also Xavante territory
Xavante Rice Project, 15, 84, 86–87, 94, 175–78, 183–84, 283nn. 8–9; and benefits to village leaders, 178; and development of eastern Mato Grosso, 175; and FUNAI, 175–76; political aims of, 177
Xavante territory, 17, 21; loss of, 80–83, 94, 120; in Mato Grosso, 71–73; struggle to regain, 80, 83–86, 187
Xerente, 26, 28–29, 66, 169; separation from Xavante, 68–69, 279n. 12; and Xavante fear of disease, 71
Xingu Park, 7; measles epidemic in, 141. See also Upper Xingu region Xingu River, 17, 71–72, 79, 88. See also Upper Xingu region
Xokleng, 26
Yanomami, 4, 95; morphology, 97–98
Zanoni, Col. Ivan, 177
Zoro, 115–17, 116, 118