

Index

- Abortion, 20, 37, 43, 44, 46, 47–48, 57, 58, 61, 62, 148, 177, 251
- Abrahams, R. G., 9, 76–77, 233, 246–47
- Abu-Lughod, L., 5–6
- Access to care, 11, 15, 19, 22, 45, 54, 63, 98, 148, 160, 186, 233
- during British colonial rule in Tanganyika, 22, 25, 31, 32
- references to, in the Safe Motherhood literature, 11, 45, 229, 233–34
- and social distance, 11
- African Inland Mission, 25–29, 238
- Age, 44, 99–100, 242
- Alloo, F., 57, 58, 59
- Alma Ata Conference, 109
- Ancestors, 10, 65, 69, 91, 104, 121, 131, 138–39, 164, 255
- ethnicity of, 138
- gender of, 138
- and healing in the African context, 234
- and influence on fertility, 125–27, 138
- Maasai, 138
- Taturu, 138
- Anemia, 20, 46, 49, 54, 64, 118, 158, 222, 224, 252
- Anna's story, 170–72, 226
- Appadurai, A., 12–13, 65, 75
- Arabs, in nineteenth-century Tanzania, 9, 76–78, 243, 247
- Arab women in Bulangwa, 10, 91, 249
- and discussions on sexual matters, 260–61
- and farming, 249
- and interactions with health-care providers, 185, 196–97
- and menstrual taboos, 129, 257
- and postpartum rituals, 212–13, 252
- and public codes of modesty, 164–65, 249, 261
- social control of, 88, 165, 260
- See also* Bulangwa
- Austen, R., 9, 69, 70, 71, 79, 236, 243, 244, 247
- Bakinikana, I., 82, 248
- Bariba (Benin), 254
- Bassett, M., 197
- Bates, M., 81
- Beck, A., 24, 236, 238, 247
- Beidelman, T. O., 245, 246
- Berger, I., 74, 252
- Biomedicine, approaches to healing, xvi, 12, 120, 227–28
- and colonial discourse, 13–14
- comparison to nonbiomedical approaches to health, xvi, 12, 227–28
- and maternal health care in Bulangwa, 91–96
- “performance” of, 16
- Birth control. See Contraceptives; Family planning
- Blacklock, M., 19–25, 33, 234, 235
- Bledsoe, C., 132, 257
- Blood
- bad blood, 258

Blood (continued)

- beliefs regarding quantity in the body, 223, 268
- blood compatibility and human relations, 258
- donations, 222–23
- and effects on eyesight, 218–19, 267
- heavy blood, 258
- hospital supply of, 54, 62, 222, 267
- postpartum blood, 139, 217–19
- selling of, 223, 224
- and transfusions, 49, 54, 222–25, 267–68
- See also* Postpartum period
- Blood pressure, 46, 47, 168, 189
- Boku-boku*, 89
 - and sexual uncleanness, 261
- Boserup, E., 238
- Brandström, P., 66, 67, 68, 71, 120, 121–22, 123–24, 243, 250, 253–54, 265
- Breech births, 195, 254
- Brideprice, 61, 63, 103
 - compared to “bridewealth,” 241–42
- Bridewealth, 103, 241–42, 250
- British colonial rule, 13–14, 15, 19, 22–24, 66, 80–82, 234–37, 242, 247
 - and labor policies, 24
 - and maternal health policies, 13–14, 21, 233
 - and perspectives on “good” mothers and wives, 24–26
 - and perspectives on “native” women, 13–14, 22–25
 - See also* Tanganyika
- Browner, C., 120
- Bulangwa, 8, 9, 12, 17, 65, 68, 83–106, 150, 212, 233
 - agriculture, 88, 89
 - and Arab subcommunity, 77, 84, 85, 86–87, 88
 - beliefs regarding sorcery and witchcraft, 90–91, 98, 249
 - ethnic identity, 85–86, 100, 249
 - and female education, 89, 104–6
 - and gender, 88–89
 - and the government clinic, 160–62
 - and the maternity care, 92–96
 - and Muslim and non-Muslim distinctions, 86–87, 212–13
 - and nonbiomedical sources of care, 97
 - and religious affiliation, 87, 98, 103–4, 254
 - subcommunities in, 85–90
 - See also* Arab women in Bulangwa
- Bumanga* (spirit possession cult), 126
- Buzwezi* (spirit possession cult), 255–56
- Caravan trade (nineteenth-century Tanganyika), 67, 76, 243
- Cattle, 69, 83, 88
 - cattle raiding, 78–80, 138
 - and female herders, 105–6
- Cesarean section, 95–96, 190, 195, 211, 240
- Chiefs (Sukuma), 26, 70–71, 78, 80, 81, 82, 246, 255
 - and articles of chieftaincy, 74, 246
 - decline in power of, 80, 255
 - gender of, 71–74, 244–45
 - succession of, 71, 72, 216
 - transformations in authority of, 71, 75, 80
- Childbirth, 7–8, 35, 36, 51, 57, 63, 187–211, 227
 - anthropological studies of, 251
 - and birth position, 199
 - and births before arrival (BBA), 94–95
 - and care of the newborn, 191, 192, 197, 198, 200
 - colonial descriptions of, 28
 - giving birth the “European” way, 16, 199
 - and herbal medicines, 201–3, 204
 - in the hospital setting, xvi, 26, 189–97, 237, 263–64
 - men’s participation in, 189, 263, 264
 - unattended births, 37, 45
 - in the village setting, xvi, 197–207

- women's stoicism during, 187–89
See also Labor (childbirth)
- Childlessness, 149. See also Infertility
- Children, naming of, 256
- Christians, 86, 87, 98, 103 and invoking of Christianity, 16, 104, 126–27, 215, 248, 254
- Church Missionary Society, 237
- Collier, J., 16
- Colonialism
 and biomedical discourse, 13, 231 and education of native women, 14
See also British colonial rule
- Community participation, 230
- Conception (knowledge of), 132–33.
See also Ovulation (knowledge of)
- Contraceptives, 1, 10–11, 120, 133 modern methods, 146–48
 nonmodern methods, 144–45
- Conus shell (ndeji), 246
- Cory, H., 69, 246, 251–52, 254, 259, 267
- Critical medical anthropology, 234
- Cultural prohibitions (taboos), 48–49, 97, 252 during menstruation, 129–30 during the postpartum period, 107, 212–13, 252 during pregnancy, 116–18
- Cushnie-Mnyanga, J., 264
- Davis-Floyd, R., 12, 240, 251, 264
- de Certeau, M., 38
- Demographic and Health Survey (Tanzanian), 133
- “Developing” country, use of term, 233
 as applied to women, 2, 6
- Development, 13–16, 35, 107, 109, 234
 and colonial discourse, 21, 22–25, 33–34
 and health development literature, 6, 107, 109
- Divinations, 91, 129, 256–57
- Douglas, M., 1, 11–12, 21, 33, 210
- Duden, B., 38
- East Africa, during British colonial rule, 236 and maternal mortality ratios, 39, 40, 41 and nineteenth-century population levels, 235
- Eclampsia, 43, 46, 47, 54, 189
- Economic hardship (associated with pregnancy and childbirth), 34, 93, 96, 190, 225
- Economic policies, 84, 91, 239, 249 and negative impact on health sector in Africa, 58, 197, 241
- Education, female, 45, 54, 55, 62 during British colonial rule, 19–20, 22–23, 24, 33, 235 and fertility, 20
 in Tanganyika, 23, 25
See also Survey respondents
- Ekiti Yoruba (Nigeria), 131, 251, 258
- El Paso (lay midwifery training), xiv, xv, 188, 189, 192, 259, 264, 265, 266
- Emergency obstetric care, 8, 92, 229
- Emergency transportation, xv, 84
- Escobar, A., 235, 238
- Ethiopia, 16
- Fabian, J., 265
- Family planning, 10, 20, 51, 53, 55, 57, 58, 60, 61, 63
 natural methods of, 132–33
- Fatherhood, 123, 124, 143
- Feldman-Savelsberg, P., 253
- Feminist perspectives, 16, 57, 240 and anthropology, 239 and women of color, 238–39
- Ferguson, J., 14, 15, 231
- Fertility, 17, 20, 37, 39, 40, 120, 127, 214 and eggs, 130, 133–34, 136, 140 excessive, 3, 10, 149
 female, 127–40
 male, 140–44, 259
 in Sukuma-Nyamwezi cosmology, 120–25

- Fertility (continued) unsuccessful, 10, 120, 149, 186, 228 unwanted, 144–48
 vocabulary of, 127–28
 and wombs, 134
See also Infertility; Menstrual cycle;
 Ovulation (knowledge of)
- Fieldwork methods, xvi, 97–106, 259
- Food taboos, 49, 117–18
- Fortney, J., 115
- Foucault, M., 15
- Fulani women in Burkina Faso, 266
 in Nigeria, 262–63
- German colonial rule, 66, 72, 73, 80, 236, 242–43, 247–48
- Ginsburg, F., xvi, 12
- Gottlieb, A., 130, 259
- Harrison, K., 8, 197
- Healers (“traditional”), xiv, xvi, 10, 15,
 16, 65, 71, 96, 107, 109, 112, 126, 139, 256, 262
 social power of, 216, 227 and use of conus shell (ndeji), 246
- Health beliefs, 126–27
- Health care, 51
 biomedical, 18, 227
 nonbiomedical, 18, 227
 in Tanganyika, 22, 25
 and user fees, 93, 250
See also British colonial rule; Maternal health services
- Health-care workers, 2, 15, 25, 54, 58, 94, 114, 209, 222
 economic hardships of, 58, 63, 197, 241 and harsh treatment of clients, 151, 160, 165–67, 183–86, 191–96, 197,
 228–29
- Hemorrhage, 1, 43, 46–47, 49, 54, 118, 217, 219–25, 265
- Herbal remedies, 10, 98, 109, 110, 150, 151, 201, 202, 204, 208, 214, 251, 252 during childbirth, 201–2 and “disappearing pregnancies,” 176 and fertility enhancement, 10, 134 for health of fetus/infant, 126, 127, 173–74
 and infertility treatments, 136 and male infertility, 141–42 and menstrual cycle, 129, 257 and prevention of miscarriage, 10, 136, 172–73
 and uterine rupture, 62, 109, 110, 251
- HIV/AIDS, 49, 223, 267, 268
- Holmes, C. F., 9, 69, 70, 71, 79, 236, 243, 244, 247
- Hunt, N., 25, 236
- ICD-10 (International Classification of Disease), 37, 239
- Illiffe, J., 237, 238, 248
- Illiteracy, 17, 45, 228
- Impotence, 141–43
- Indirect rule, 80, 236
- Infant mortality, 20–21, 45, 230
- Infertility, 10, 50, 178, 230, 257
 and blood incompatibility, 137–38
 female, 137–39
 and “God’s will,” 140, 141
 and herbal remedies, 10, 136
 and immoral behavior, 140 and itale, 135
 male, 140–43
 and mchango, 136 primary, 149
 secondary, 149, 228 in the Shinyanga Region, 149
 and sorcery, 139–40
 in Tanzania, 149
 and venereal disease, 140
- Inhorn, M., 10, 120, 240
- Initiation rites, 13, 62, 107, 242, 251
 absence of, among the Sukuma, 131, 157, 242, 251
- Iron deficiency, 118, 253
- Itandala, B., 70, 73–74, 245

- Joking relationships (utani), 76–77, 243, 246
- Jolly, M., 13, 21, 234, 236
- Jordan, B., 251
- Justice, M., 234
- Kabeer, N., 238
- Kaisi, M., 53–55, 56
- Kaufert, P., xiv
- Kjekshus, H., 79, 247
- Kleiner-Bossaller, A., 262–63
- Kleinman, A., 6
- Kolondoto (mission) hospital, 26, 29, 92–96, 113, 114, 128, 166, 182, 236, 237, 252
- Koponen, J., 9, 21, 235, 242, 243
- Kwantacce*, 262–63
- Labor (childbirth), xiv, 28, 31, 54 coaching, 192, 199 and heat, 201
 and herbal medicines, 201–3, 204
 management of, 201–7 obstructed, 43, 46, 54, 240 prolonged, xiii, 46, 54, 98, 204–10, 217
- Larsen, U., 149
- Lesotho, 14
- Lesthaeghe, R., 107
- Lindenbaum, S., xiv, 17, 234
- Lock, M., xiv, 6, 12, 234
- Maasai, 78–80
- Maguire, G. A., 80
- Mahler, H., 36, 51
- Maine, D., 6–7, 8, 229, 233–34
- Malaria, 20, 49–50, 158, 161, 162, 172
- Manderson, L., 234, 236
- Marriage, 58, 61, 101, 103, 242, 249, 250 and marital status of survey respondents, 101–3 and marriage payments, 103
- Martin, E., 12
- Maternal and child welfare services (Tanganyika), 26, 29–30. See also British colonial rule
- Maternal death, 20, 36, 37, 48, 55–56, 239
- Maternal health risk, 3, 7, 13, 14, 21, 22, 36, 65 “community” perspectives on, 1, 17 context of, xiv, 17–18, 227–28, 231 different languages of, xiv
- Maternal health services (in Shinyanga), 91–96
- Maternal mortality, 1, 2, 6–7, 15, 19–20, 35–52 in Britain during the 1940s, 20, 235 measurement of, 37, 239
 in Tanzania, 53–63, 230
- Maternal mortality rate, 20, 37, 58, 235, 239
- Maternal mortality ratio, 37, 40–43, 235, 239
- Mauldin, W., 38
- Maynard, Dr., 25–26, 27, 236–37
- Mchango*, 135–37, 172, 173, 180
 and blood incompatibility, 137
 and buhale, 136 compared to venereal disease, 140 and fertility problems, 136 and impotence, 135 and menstrual problems, 136 and pelvic inflammatory disease, 136–37
- Menstrual cloth, 131, 136–37, 139, 257
- Menstrual cycle, 129–33 and cultural prohibitions (taboos) during, 129–30 and divinations, 129, 256
 and fertile period, 132–33 first knowledge about, 131–32, 257
 and herbal remedies, 129, 257
 and lunar cycle, 130, 257 and Muslim women, 129 and non-Muslim women, 129–30 physical and spiritual aspects of, 129 timing of, 130–31, 257
 See also Ovulation (knowledge of)

- Menstruation
 cultural prohibitions during, 129–30
 and use of sorcery, 139
- Mesaki, S., 87, 90–91, 249
- Milembe's story, 182–86, 226, 229, 230
- Ministry of Health (Tanzania), 53, 55, 119
- Miscarriage, 10, 18, 50, 117, 121, 170–74, 181, 230
 among survey respondents, 174
- Missionaries, 13–14, 25, 82, 248. See also Maynard, Dr.
- Modernity, 15–16, 104
- Mohanty, C., 6
- Morsy, S., 234
- Motherhood, xiii, xiv, xvi, 36, 65, 123, 124, 150 and “native” women, 21, 22, 23, 25, 33 risks of, 10, 186, 228 risks to, 10, 186, 228
- Mrs. X, 1–5, 11, 17, 18, 36, 54, 226, 227, 229–30 and “road to maternal death,” 2–4, 54
- Muslim women, 10, 18, 23, 61, 98, 129, 212–13, 252
 in Bulangwa, 86–90
See also Arab women in Bulangwa
- Mwana Nyanzanga, 96–97, 112, 114, 115, 125–26, 151, 152, 175, 178–84, 187, 189, 197–204, 206–9, 214, 215, 252, 263, 266
- National Safe Motherhood Conference (Tanzania), 55, 60–62, 63, 109
- Native authorities, 26, 27, 80, 236
- Native women, 14
- Ndalu's story, 219–25, 226
- Nda ya gupinda ngongo*, 174–81, 262, 263
- Nepal, 15, 234
- Newborn infant, 266. See also Child-birth
- Njile's story, 179–80, 226
- Nkamba's birth, 202–4
- Nonbiomedical approaches to healing, xiv, 12, 120, 234, 251 and sources of maternal health care in Bulangwa, 96–97
- Nutrition, 20, 21, 24, 48–49, 51, 108
 during colonial rule in Tanganyika, 24, 236
- Nyamweziland (Unyamwezi), 67
- Nyamwezi people, 67, 243
 similarities to the Sukuma, 66, 67, 68, 233, 243
- Ong, A., 15–16
- Ovulation (knowledge of), 132–33, 257
 among American women, 257
 among Gambian women, 257
 among survey respondents, 132–33
 among Tanzanian women, 133
- Pan African News Agency, 230
- Parenthood, 120, 121, 123–25, 127, 143
- Pica, 253
- Pigg, S., 15, 35, 107, 109
- Placenta, 213–17
 disposal of, 214–15
 previa, 47
 retained, 111, 112, 213–14, 220, 223, 252, 262
 selling of, 215, 267
 supernatural power of, 215–16 use in sorcery medicines, 214–16
- Population, 235
 declining trends in late nineteenth century (East Africa), 20, 235–36 of Tanzania, 259
- Population Council, 50, 233
- Possession, by ancestral spirits, 65, 126, 255–56
 by Maasai and Taturu spirits, 79, 80, 138 by Muslim spirits, 258–59
 in nineteenth-century Tanzania, 74–75
- Postpartum period, 8, 107, 156, 157
 and hemorrhage, 46, 49

- and hot sponge baths, 217–19 and maternal deaths, 218, 220, 221 and postpartum blood, 217–18 and psychosis, 180
- Poverty, xiii, 17, 19, 24, 35, 228–29
- Pregnancy, xiv, 1, 7, 17, 35, 36, 37, 43, 44, 49, 51, 150–86, 190, 227 and beliefs in the supernatural, 164
cultural prohibitions during, 116, 118, 252–53
and dirt cravings, 118
that “disappears,” 174–76, 262, 263 and emotions, 153–58 and food cravings, 117–18 and food taboos, 117–18, 253 husband’s role during, 153–54, 156–57, 259–60 “late” pregnancies, 128–29 and promiscuity, 153, 204–7, 208 and school-aged girls in Tanzania, 58, 61, 62, 210, 242 and secrecy, 164–65
self-diagnosis of, 151–53
and sorcery, 164, 263
of survey respondents, 174 that “turns to the back,” 18, 174–81, 182, 250, 263 and unmarried women, 210, 259–60 “unwanted,” 1, 2, 20, 44, 56, 176, 177
and usangilija, 204–8 and use of herbal remedies, 10, 136, 172–74, 262
- Prenatal card, 114, 159–60, 198
- Prenatal care, 18, 45, 47, 51, 114, 120 in the biomedical setting, 158–72 and medicine, 160–61 prior to conception, 119–43
and referrals out of the village, 181–86 in the village setting, 172–81
See also Infertility
- Primary health care movement, 109, 251
- Puberty, 99, 107. See also Menstrual cycle
- Quality of care, 151, 165–67, 229
- Rapp, R., xvi, 12
- Ravindran, S., 39, 40–43
- Religious affiliation, 87, 103–4
- Renne, E., 138, 251, 258
- Reproduction, xvi, 120, 122, 132
- Reproductive tract infections, 50, 136–37
- Research methodology. See Fieldwork methods
- Riesman, P., 266
- Risk languages of, xiv official definitions of, xiv, 9 unofficial definitions of, xiv, 9
- Risk approach to maternal health, 158–60
- Risk factors, 41, 42, 43
and direct causes of maternal death, 15, 45–48 and indirect causes of maternal death, 48–50 medical, 7, 10, 45–50, 54 of motherhood, 10, 186, 228 to motherhood, 10, 186, 228 official, 17, 43–50 physical, 11, 18, 120, 127, 133–37, 141, 144, 150, 172, 217, 219 reproductive, 7, 21, 44–45 socioeconomic, 7, 45, 219 spiritual, 11, 18, 120, 127, 133, 137–40, 141, 144, 150, 217, 219 unofficial, 18, 84, 160, 186, 228
- Risk-referral system, 158–60
- Roberts, A., 70, 72, 247
- Rosenfield, A., 6–7, 8, 288
- Royston, E., xiii, 37, 42–44, 46, 47, 48, 49, 50, 213, 217
- Safe Motherhood Initiative, 1, 2, 6–8, 10, 14, 17, 19–20, 34, 35–52, 53–55, 59, 60, 62, 107, 108, 120, 228, 230, 235, 239 and Nairobi Conference, 7, 20, 51, 53

- Sargent, C., 120, 197, 251, 252, 254
 Sayi's story, 204–10, 226
 Scheper-Hughes, N., 6, 12, 234
 Schistosomiasis, 142
 Sepsis, 43, 46, 47, 54
 Sex education, traditional forms of, 62, 107. See also Initiation rites
 Shinyanga District, 25, 33, 66, 236
 Shinyanga Region, xiv, 8, 9, 17, 110–11 and Arab traders, 76–77 boundaries of, 66 cultural identity of, 66–67 health profile of, 93
 migrations into, 66
 Shinyanga Regional Hospital, 92, 95, 96, 114, 189–97
 Shorter, A., 246
 Smith, D., 6
 Sorcery, xiii, 10, 65, 98, 164, 176, 180, 215–16, 262
 in Papua New Guinea, 267 and sorcery medicines, 139, 215
 Spirit mediums, 74–75, 96, 125
 Stanley, H., 83
 Starrs, A., 8, 20, 115, 212, 235, 239
 Statistics
 language of, 37–38
 and maternal mortality, 36, 38–43
 Stoler, A., 21
 Sukumaland (Usukuma), 67, 69, 80, 83, 249
 and economic hardship, 91
 Sukuma people, 64–65, 120, 121–27, 250, 254 and absence of “traditional” midwifery, 110–11, 114, 251–52 and cattle-raiding relationship with Maasai and Taturu, 78–80 and dance competitions, 215, 267 early migrations of, 68–71 previous studies of, 64, 97–98, 116, 250 similarities to the Nyamwezi, 62, 66, 68, 233, 243
 Sukuma proverb, 119, 187
 Survey respondents, descriptive characteristics, 99–106
 age, 99
 education, 100, 104–6
 ethnicity, 100–101
 marital status, 101–3
 religious affiliation, 87, 103–4
 Swahili people (Waswahili), 78, 86
 Swantz, M., 152
 Tanganyika, 14, 17, 21, 236, 252 and the African Association, 238 and the Indian Association, 237 and maternal and child health services, 30, 237–38 and Sneath (Director of Medical Services), 29–30, 31 and training of native midwives, 25, 27–29 and unauthorized maternity and child-care clinics, 237
 See also British colonial rule
 Tanner, R. E. S., 125, 255
 Tanzania. See United Republic of Tanzania
 Tanzania Media Women's Association (TAMWA), 55–60, 61, 62–63, 240–41
 Tanzanian shilling, xxi–xxii
 Taturu, 69, 78–80
 TBAs (traditional birth attendants), 47, 51, 54, 56, 59, 62, 63, 96, 98, 108–16, 266–67
 Teknonyms, 124, 254–55
 Tesfaye, W., 16
 Tetanus, 45, 50
 Third World, 15, 231
 use of term, 233
 use of term, as applied to women, 6
 Tinker, A., 39, 239
 Trade networks, in Tanganyika, 66, 67, 75–78, 247. See also Caravan trade
 Traditional birth attendants. See TBAs
 Traditional midwives, 109, 110. See also TBAs

- Traditional practices (“harmful”), 15, 19, 28, 32, 33, 47, 49, 58, 61, 63, 107, 108, 109, 117, 230
- Transportation costs, 94
- Treichler, P., xiii
- Turshen, M., 197, 247–48
- Twin births, 123, 194–96, 254
- Ukango* ritual, 215, 254
- UNDP (United Nations Development Programme), xxi, 38, 51
- UNFPA (United Nations Population Fund), xxi, 7, 8, 35, 38, 50, 111, 115
- UNICEF (United Nations Children’s Fund), xxi, 8, 50, 60, 84, 111, 115, 241
- United Nations’ “Decade for Women,” 35, 238
- United Republic of Tanzania, 158, 159
- Usangalija* (“mixing” of men), 204–8.
See also Kwantacce
- Varkevisser, C., 97–98, 110, 150, 164, 245–46
- Vaughan, M., 13–14, 15
- Wachawi*, 262. See also Sorcery
- Wakunga wa jadi*, 111, 114. See also TBAs
- Wazungu*, use of term, 192, 265
- Westoff, C., 133, 257
- WHO (World Health Organization), xiv, xxi, 1, 3, 4, 7, 36, 38, 41–50, 108, 115, 226, 239, 240
- Witchcraft, 90–91, 216, 249. See also Sorcery
- Witch killings, 91, 249–50
- Women, reproductive power of, 122, 216 social and ritual power of, 17, 71, 74 and status in society, xiv, 3, 8, 20, 45, 54, 55, 73, 107, 216, 228–29
- Women in Development, 238
- Women’s Global Network on Reproductive Rights (WGNRR), 39, 57, 239, 241
- World Bank, 7, 35, 38, 39, 41, 50, 51, 239
- Yanagisako, S., 16
- Zanzibar, 61, 242