INDEX

AAMC. See Association of American Medical Colleges (AAMC)
Acceptance rates, minority, 123, 124, 144
“Intern Selection Patterns in Midwestern Hospitals,” 134–35 table
“Intern Selection Patterns in Northeastern Hospitals,” 128–29 table
“Intern Selection Patterns in Southern Hospitals,” 142–43 table
“Intern Selection Patterns in Western Hospitals,” 138–39 table
medical school (1996), 192

Admissions, academic affirmative action scenarios, 14–16
applicants, selection of, 190–91
Boston University, 188–89 committees, medical school, 26, 27 community groups, pressure by, 127 consequences, social, 190
Cornell University, 191 criteria, 192–93
gender restrictions, 191–92
graduating students (1970–80), 127
Harvard University, 188–89
1970–80 student admission, 127 quotas, 191
race-neutral, 174
religious restrictions, 191
University of California at Davis, 174–75
University of Michigan, 191
Wayne State University Medical School, 124

Affirmative action. See also Legal cases applicants, minority, 162–63 assessments, 14
definition in medicine, 1, 13, 171 plan for professional schools, 13–14
Alabama, graduate medical education (GME), 144
“Intern Selection Patterns in Southern Hospitals,” 142–43 table
AMA. See American Medical Association (AMA)
AMCAS. See American Medical College Application Service (AMCAS)
American Medical Association (AMA), 22, 68
graduate medical education (GME), 122
American Medical College Application Service (AMCAS), 184
Arizona, graduate medical education (GME)
“Intern Selection Patterns in Western Hospitals,” 138–39 table
Arkansas, graduate medical education (GME), 144
“Intern Selection Patterns in Southern Hospitals,” 142–43 table
Association of American Medical Colleges (AAMC), 1, 21–22, 25, 84 affirmative action, 1996 policy statement, 188 affirmative action programs, 179
Association of American Medical Colleges (AAMC) (continued) graduate student residency survey, 118 program goals, 184–85

Bernard, Viola, 124–25
Board certification, specialty examination, number failing, 164
licensure, 164
multiple, 165–66
“Percentage of Various Specialties among Minority and Nonminority Physicians,” 167 table physicians, board-certified, 170 residency training programs, 164 specializations, 164–67
“Specialties of Minority and Nonminority Physicians,” 166 table “Specialties of Minority and Nonminority Physicians, by Gender,” 167 table underserved areas, minority physicians practicing in, 169

Bok, Derek, 194–96
Bowen, William, 194–96

Calculations, Bowen-Bok, 194–96
California, graduate medical education (GME)
“Intern Selection Patterns in Western Hospitals,” 138–39 table
Martin Luther King Medical Center, 141 and New York, 140–42
Census 2000, results of, 3, 175–76
City University of New York Medical School and AAMC survey, 187
enrollment, 186
faculty and staff, 187
Gateway to Higher Education, 186
SAT scores, 186–87
students, 187
Civil Rights Act (1964), 71
Civil rights movement affirmative action, 201
health care, 201–3
hospitals, desegregation of, 201
Medicare and Medicaid, 201
Colorado, graduate medical education (GME)
“Intern Selection Patterns in Western Hospitals,” 138–39 table
Commission on Public General Hospitals, 146
Connecticut, graduate medical education (GME)
acceptance rates, minority, 132
Dartmouth University, 132
“Intern Selection Patterns in Northeastern Hospitals,” 128–29 table
Cook County Hospital, estimate of medically indigent, 136
Cornell University Medical College (CUMC)
“Comparison of Minority Students Admitted to Cornell with and without Summer Program Experience,” 48 table
“Cornell Summer Research Fellowship Applicants and Participants, 1970–76,” 44 table “Cornell University Medical College Minority Applicants and Admissions, 1969–77,” 39 table minority faculty, 56–57, 216 minority recruitment, 39–41
INDEX

minority retention, 41–43
minority students, summer program for, 35–39, 43–53
“Science MCAT and GPA of Subgroups of Cornell Summer Program Students,” 45 table
“Top Five Specialties at Cornell and All U.S. Medical Schools, 1988–91,” 54 table
CUMC. See Cornell University Medical College (CUMC)

Delaware, graduate medical education (GME), 141, 144
“Intern Selection Patterns in Southern Hospitals,” 142–43 table
Demographics, ethnic (U.S.), 2
Department of Health, Education, and Welfare (DHEW), 35, 70–72, 96
Desegregation hospitals, 70–75, 145
medical facilities and physicians (1950), 145–46 nursing associations, 80
social and public health costs, 121
White flight (1950), 145
DHEW. See Department of Health, Education, and Welfare (DHEW)
District of Columbia, graduate medical education (GME), 141
Howard University, 141
“Intern Selection Patterns in Southern Hospitals,” 142–43 table

Economic differences, Blacks vs. Whites, 8 Education, affirmative action in future of, 209–11 socioeconomic disadvantages, 196

Education, medical graduation trends, minority medical schools, 96–98 international comparison, 197–98

military, 19–20
opportunities for Blacks, 179
physicians, projected number of Blacks, 180 postgraduate training, geographic distribution, 31–32 procedures and Black medical students, 119 quality of, 197–98

Employment opportunities, minorities, 199–200
Enrollment, medical schools, 180
Cornell University Medical College (CUMC), 35–36
“Cornell University Medical College Minority Enrollment and Retention, 1969–78,” 42 table
“Enrollment at Cornell and Other Medical Colleges, by Race and/or Ethnicity, 1991,” 53 table “Enrollment of Blacks in U.S. Medical Schools, 1938–97,” 18 table minorities, 198–99
1968–97 increase, 179
“Percentage of Minority Applicants and Enrollees at Cornell and All U.S. Medical Schools, 1987–91,” 54 table and physician surplus (1980s), 30 post–civil rights movement, 20–21 statistics (1956–80), 80

Florida, graduate medical education (GME)
“Intern Selection Patterns in Southern Hospitals,” 142–43 table
FMGs. See Foreign medical graduates (FMGs)
Fordham Institute for Innovation in Social Policy, 203–5
Foreign medical graduates (FMGs), 32, 80–81
Freedman’s Bureau Act (1866), 17, 62–63
Gellhorn, Alfred, 186
Georgia, graduate medical education (GME), 141, 144
Emory University, 141
Grady Hospital, segregation of, 141
“Intern Selection Patterns in Southern Hospitals,” 142–43 table
number of Black physicians (1958), 141, 144
GI Bill of Rights, 79
GME. See Graduate Medical Education (GME)
GMENAC. See Graduate Medical Education National Advisory Committee (GMENAC)
Graduate Medical Education (GME).
See also individual state names
Dartmouth University, 132
“GME-I Placements by Minority Subgroup, Top Ten States,” 94 table medical students, equity of access, 119 nurses, equity of access, 119 patients, equity of access, 119 physician workforce, determination of national, 118 “Placement of Minority Interns, by Economic Subgroup,” 95 table placements, physician, 93–94, 102 residents, equity of access, 119 staff physicians, equity of access, 119 state retention rates, 90–93
St. Louis University Hospitals, 122 training programs, 82–83, 87, 88, 89, 101
University of Utah Hospital, 122
Graduate Medical Education National Advisory Committee (GMENAC), 30
Harlem Hospital Center, 177–78, 214–15. See also Wright, Louis T.
minority students, 140–41
Harvard University, 131, 188–89
HCFA. See Health Care Financing Administration (HCFA)
Health care
age, differences in, 205 economic inequities, 204, 206–9
equality, 202–3
ethnic differences, 205
Fordham Institute in Social Policy indicators, 203–5 gender, differences in, 205 national awareness, 203
race, differences in, 205
Health Care Financing Administration (HCFA), 72
Health statistics, Black Americans, 2, 3–4, 7–8, 61
Healthy People 2000, 3
HHS. See U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS)
Homer G. Phillips Hospital, 136–37 acceptance of minorities as residents, 120
Howard University Medical School, 16, 62–63, 69, 85, 88, 103, 116, 141, 214
Illinois, graduate medical education (GME)
acceptance rates, minority, 132–33 136 desegregation, history of, 132–33
“Intern Selection Patterns in Midwestern Hospitals,” 134–35 table
Indiana, graduate medical education (GME), 137

“Intern Selection Patterns in Midwestern Hospitals,” 134–35 table

Institute of Medicine Committee on Quality of Health Care in America 2001, 4–5 funding increase, 202

Iowa, graduate medical education (GME), 137

“Intern Selection Patterns in Midwestern Hospitals,” 134–35 table

JAMA. See Journal of the American Medical Association (JAMA)
Jersey City Medical Center, acceptance of minorities as residents, 120

Journal of the American Medical Association (JAMA), 70–71

Kansas, graduate medical education (GME), 137

“Intern Selection Patterns in Midwestern Hospitals,” 134–35 table
Kentucky, graduate medical education (GME)

“Intern Selection Patterns in Southern Hospitals,” 142–43 table

Legal cases, affirmative action admissions, 19, 181–83, 193, 195
Boston Latin School, 181, 185
Brown v. Board of Education, 20, 122, 183, 196
discrimination, against Whites, 182
Eaton v. Walker Memorial Hospital, 71
Frazier v. the Board of Trustees of the University of North Carolina, 20

Grantz et al. v. Bollinger, 181
Grutter v. Bollinger, 181
Hopwood v. Texas, 181, 185
Initiative 200 (Washington), 181
Plessy v. Ferguson, 17, 196
Proposition 209 (California), 181
Regents of the University of California v. Bakke (1978), 16–17, 21–22, 23, 24, 182
Simpkins v. Cone Memorial Hospital, 70
University of California, admission criterion, 181
University of Michigan admissions policy, 181–82
University of Texas, 181–82
University of Washington law school, 182
Wessman v. Gittens, 181
Louisiana, graduate medical education (GME), 144

“Intern Selection Patterns in Southern Hospitals,” 142–43 table

Managed care organizations (MCOs), 6
Martin Luther King Medical Center, minority students, 140–41
Maryland, graduate medical education (GME), 141, 144

“Intern Selection Patterns in Southern Hospitals,” 142–43 table
Massachusetts, graduate medical education (GME)
acceptance rates, minority, 131–32
discrimination, against Whites, 182
“Intern Selection Patterns in Northeastern Hospitals,” 128–29 table
McLean, Franklin C., 132
MCOs. See Managed care organizations (MCOs)
Medical career study (1969–77)
etnicity, practice locations, 151–52, 155–56, 160
Medical career study (continued)

“Ethnicity of Physicians Who Established Practice in Cities with High Hispanic Population,” 156 table

“Ethnicity of Physicians Who Established Practice in States in Highest Tercile of Black Population,” 154 table

“Ethnicity of Physicians Who Established Practice in States in Highest Tercile of Hispanic Population,” 154 table family income, practice locations, 162–63

“Frequency of Practice in Metropolitan Area with More Than 500,000 Blacks,” 163 table

“Frequency of Practice in Metropolitan Area with More Than 500,000 Hispanics,” 163 table

“Income in Area of Practice of Minority and Nonminority Physicians,” 158 table

“Income of Practice Neighborhood, Minority and Nonminority Physicians, by Region,” 159 table

methodology, 149–50

“Physicians Who Established Practice in Cities with High Black Population, by Ethnicity and Gender,” 155 table

“Physicians Who Practice in Neighborhoods with More Than 50 Percent Black Population, by Ethnicity and Gender,” 157 table

“Physicians Who Practice in Neighborhoods with More Than 20 Percent Hispanic Population, by Ethnicity and Gender,” 157 table

“Practice Location of Black and Nonminority Physicians, by Proportion of Black Population in State,” 153 table

“Practice Location of Hispanic and Nonminority Physicians, by Proportion of Hispanic Population in State,” 153 table

“Region of Practice, 1994, by Ethnicity,” 152 table

scales of, 150

statistical methods, 150

Medical facilities, 120–21

Medical school graduates, minority vs. nonminority study (1973–77)

“Medical Schools Preferred by Minority and Nonminority Samples,” 91 table

“Net Gain or Loss of Interns in Selected States, 1973–77,” 92 table

overview, 81–88

“Production of Interns in Ten States with Highest Proportion of Black Population,” 90 table

results, 88–90

“Serial Composition of the Sample,” 87 table

“Top Ten States in Production of Interns,” 89 table

Medical schools. See Acceptance rates; Education, medical; Enrollment; Qualifications; Student body composition; and names of individual schools

Meharry Medical College, 16, 17, 62–63, 85, 88, 103, 116, 212, 214

Michigan, graduate medical education (GME)

acceptance rates, minority, 132–33, 136

“Intern Selection Patterns in Midwestern Hospitals,” 134–35 table

Wayne State University hospitals, leadership roles, 136
Minnesota, graduate medical education (GME), 137
“Intern Selection Patterns in Midwestern Hospitals,” 134–35 table

Minority Medical Education Program (MMED)
and AAMC, 184
and Medical College Admission Test (MCAT), 184

Mississippi, graduate medical education (GME), 141, 144
“Intern Selection Patterns in Southern Hospitals,” 142–43 table

Missouri, graduate medical education (GME)
“Intern Selection Patterns in Midwestern Hospitals,” 134–35 table
1960 decline in, 136

MMED. See Minority Medical Education Program (MMED)

Montefiore Hospital, acceptance of minorities as residents, 120

Morehouse School of Medicine, enrollment at, 180

Mortality rate, Black Americans. See Health statistics, Black Americans

National Center on Minority Health and Health Disparities, 3, 201–2
National Institutes of Health (NIH), 3, 202

National Internship and Residency Matching Plan (NIRMP), 82, 83, 84–86, 87, 101
National Medical Association (NMA), 22

National Medical Fellowships (NMF), 82–83, 84, 86, 95, 162–63

Nebraska, graduate medical education (GME), 137

“Intern Selection Patterns in Midwestern Hospitals,” 134–35 table

New Hampshire, graduate medical education (GME)
acceptance rates, minority, 131–32
“Intern Selection Patterns in Northeastern Hospitals,” 128–29 table

New Jersey, graduate medical education (GME) ambulatory health care programs, 130
College of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey at Newark, 127, 130
“Intern Selection Patterns in Northeastern Hospitals,” 128–29 table mortality rates, 130

New Mexico, graduate medical education (GME)
“Intern Selection Patterns in Western Hospitals,” 138–39 table

New York, graduate medical education (GME), 140–41 acceptance, high rate of minority, 126
Albany Medical College, 127 hospitals, low minority rate, 126
“Intern Selection Patterns in Northeastern Hospitals,” 128–29 table
USPHS Hospital (Staten Island), 126

New York City hospitals, 178
NIH. See National Institutes of Health (NIH)
NIRMP. See National Internship and Residency Matching Plan (NIRMP)
NMA. See National Medical Association (NMA)
NMF. See National Medical Fellowships (NMF)
North Carolina, graduate medical education (GME), 144
“Intern Selection Patterns in Southern Hospitals,” 142–43 table

Office of Minority Health. See Office of Research on Minority Health
Ohio, graduate medical education (GME), 137
Cleveland City Hospital, 120
“Intern Selection Patterns in Northeastern Hospitals,” 128–29 table
Oklahoma, graduate medical education (GME)
“Intern Selection Patterns in Western Hospitals,” 138–39 table
Oregon, graduate medical education (GME)
“Intern Selection Patterns in Western Hospitals,” 138–39 table
Pennsylvania, graduate medical education (GME), 131
acceptance rates, minority, 131
ambulatory health care clinics, 131
“Intern Selection Patterns in Northeastern Hospitals,” 128–29 table
Physicians
Black, 169
population ratios, minority and nonminority, 98–100 practicing, geographic distribution, 32–34 resident competencies, 118 residents, shift in minorities, 124 shortages, 100–101
Provident Hospital, 119–20
Psychiatry and psychoanalysis, 124–25

Columbia University, 125
Long Island College of Medicine’s residency training, 125 in military service, 124–25

Qualifications, medical school, 24–28
“Mean MCAT Scores and GPAs for Accepted Medical Students, 1967–75,” 24 table

Racial riots, Newark, N.J. (1967), medical demands, 127
Reparations for slavery, 205–6
Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, 183–84

Segregation
in education, 16–17, 18, 196
impact of, 169
in medicine, 212
Morrill Act (1862), 61–62
in neighborhoods, 171
in schools, 183
Slavery, health care, 58–61. See also Freedman’s Bureau Act (1866)
South Carolina, graduate medical education (GME), 144
“Intern Selection Patterns in Southern Hospitals,” 142–43 table
Specialization, medical “Minority and Nonminority Internships, by Sex and Specialty,” 106 table
“Self-Designated Specialty, Alumni of Historically Black Schools versus Others,” 113 table
“Specialty Choice, by Minority Subgroup,” 110 table “Specialty Choice Differences among Minorities, by Economic Status,” 108 table specialty choices, Blacks and nonminorities, 104–5, 107–8
“Specialty Choices of Blacks and Nonminority Interns, 1973–77,” 105
“Specialty Choice within Black Subgroup, Historically Black Schools versus Others,” 111 training, quality of, 118–19 training statistics, Blacks, 103
Student body composition, medical schools, 28–29 Surveys, national AAMC surveys of medical school graduates, 174–75 problems of physicians relating to black patients (2001), 5–6
U.S. Office of Education, higher educational opportunity for Blacks (1942), 19
Wellington and Montero, affirmative action programs (1978), 21

Tennessee, graduate medical education (GME), 144
“Intern Selection Patterns in Southern Hospitals,” 142–43
Texas, graduate medical education (GME)
acceptance rates, minority, 137, 140
“Intern Selection Patterns in Western Hospitals,” 138–39
Title IX of the Higher Education Amendments (1972), 192
Tuskegee Veteran’s Administration Hospital, 64–66

Underrepresented minorities (URM), 125, 185–86
and AAMC, 184
University of Michigan Medical Hospital, rotations, 119–20
URM. See Underrepresented minorities (URM)
U.S. Commission on Civil Rights, 14
Statement on Affirmative Action (1977), 22
U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), 3
Utah, graduate medical education (GME)
“Intern Selection Patterns in Western Hospitals,” 138–39

Vermont, graduate medical education (GME)
acceptance rates, minority, 131–32
“Intern Selection Patterns in Northeastern Hospitals,” 128–29

Virginia, graduate medical education (GME)
“Intern Selection Patterns in Southern Hospitals,” 142–43

Washington, graduate medical education (GME)
“Intern Selection Patterns in Western Hospitals,” 138–39
Wayne County General Hospital, 212
Weill Medical College of Cornell University. See Cornell University Medical College (CUMC)
Welfare, 200–201
Welfare Reform Act (1996), 200
Wisconsin, graduate medical education (GME), 137
“Intern Selection Patterns in Midwestern Hospitals,” 134–35
Wright, Louis T., 67–68
Xavier University, 187
Yale University, 131