

CONTENTS

Preface	ix
Paul F. Diehl
I. PATTERNS IN THE EVOLUTION OF WAR AND CONFLICT
Power Laws, Scaling, and Fractals in the Most Lethal International and Civil Wars	3
Claudio Cioffi-Revilla and Manus I. Midlarsky
A Neural Network Analysis of Militarized Disputes, 1885–1992: Temporal Stability and Causal Complexity	28
Monica Lagazio and Bruce Russett
II. NATIONAL AND SUBNATIONAL FACTORS
Statesmen, Popular Wisdom, and Empirical Realities in the Study of Conflict and War: Extending the “Predictors of War in History and in the State of the World Message”	63
Zeev Maoz
The National Interest versus Individual Political Ambition: Democracy, Autocracy, and the Reciprocation of Force and Violence in Militarized Interstate Disputes	94
Bruce Bueno de Mesquita and James Lee Ray
Arms, Alliances, and Success in Militarized Disputes and Wars, 1816–1992	120
Volker Krause

Contents

III. DYADIC FACTORS AND INTERACTIVE EFFECTS

Interventions as Influence Douglas Lemke and Patrick M. Regan	145
The Slow Roasting of Sacred Cows: J. David Singer and the Democratic Peace Errol A. Henderson	169
Alliances, Territorial Disputes, and the Probability of War: Testing for Interactions Paul D. Senese and John A. Vasquez	189
Toward a Scientific Theory of War Daniel S. Geller	222
References	237
Contributors	261
Index	263