Acknowledgments

I am grateful to Jim Reische and Phil Pochoda for their commitment to the issues discussed in this volume. At the University of Iowa, the College of Law; the Obermann Center for Advanced Studies; and Eric Andersen, David Baldus, John Bergstrom, Amanda Bibb, Holly Carver, Corey Creekmur, Marcella David, Dana Denning, Carolyn Frisbie, Bill Hines, Linda Kerber, Chris Merrill, Lorna Olson, Jay Semel, and Karla Tonella provided support and assistance. For help or discussions on the themes discussed here, my thanks to Upala Banerjee, Barnett Baron, Warren Bass, William Flory, Richard Fries, Don Laughlin, Lawrence Liang, Mark Littlewood, Ravi Nair, Margaret Raymond, Carol Rose, Anthony Romero, Barry Steinhardt, Ben Stone, Shelton Stromquist, Jean Warburton, and Tung Yin, as well as three reviewers for the University of Michigan Press. From the Press, I am thankful for the work of Mary Bisbee-Beek, Felice Lau, Sarah Mann, Andrea Olson, Kevin Rennells, and Pete Sickman-Garner. For their tolerance while this volume was being written on a short deadline, I am particularly grateful to Margaret, Rosie, and Thea, as well as to the Palisa crew—Barnett Baron, Ifti Zaman, and Julie Wang. Several chapters took shape during a long weekend in northern Wisconsin; my thanks to Rosie, John Brogan, and the bankers of Kaukauna.
