

Illustrations

MAPS

1. The future Palestinian state as suggested by route of Israel's "security fence" and the settlement grid 2
2. Future Palestinian sovereignty in the West Bank as suggested by Ariel Sharon's "unilateral disengagement" policy 4
3. Expanded Jerusalem 24
4. Israeli Settlements and Outposts in the West Bank, 1999 26
5. The Ariel Settlement Bloc with the "Separation Barrier" 27
6. Palestinian land left coherent by the Oslo II Accord of 1995 28
7. The Gaza Strip 31
8. The Rehan Settlement Bloc 38
9. Actual and Projected Route of Israel's "Security" Wall in the West Bank 66
10. West Bank Aquifers 67
11. UN Partition Plan for Palestine, 1947 78
12. Palestinian Sovereign Areas according to the Barak/Sharon Proposals, 2001 82
13. Projection of Final Status Agreement proposed by Israel, Camp David, May 2000 82

14. Israeli Proposal for Final Status Map, December 2000	83
15. Taba Agreement, January 2001	83
16. Territories occupied by Israel after the 1967 War	95

Illustrations

x

FIGURE

1. Advertisement promoting industry in the West Bank, appearing in Homecoming (1983), a promotional magazine for Jewish settlement and development in “Judea and Samaria”	44
--	----