

■ Contents

Introduction: Diane Belcher and Alan Hirvela ..... 1

□ Part 1: Theory and Research on Speaking-Writing Interactions

1. The Speaking-Writing Connection in Second Language and Academic Literacy Development by Jessica Williams ..... 10
2. Critiquing the Vygotskian Approach to L2 Literacy by Robert Weissberg ..... 26
3. Toward a Bakhtin-Inspired View of Oral and Written Discourse by Ludmila A. Marchenkova ..... 46
4. Intertextual Connections between Spoken and Written Text: A Microanalysis of Doctoral Students' Textual Constructions by Lisy Seloni ..... 63
5. Getting in Line: The Challenge (and Importance) of Speaking and Writing about Difficult Ideas by Christine Pearson Casanave and Miguel Sosa ..... 87
6. An Investigation of Relationships between Spoken and Written Academic English: Lexical Bundles in the AWL and in MICASE by Lucy Pickering and Patricia Byrd ..... 110

□ Part 2: How Speaking Scaffolds Writing

7. Speaking of Absence: When the Connection Is Not There by Linda Lonon Blanton ..... 134
8. From Group Talk to Group Writing by Luxin Yang ..... 139
9. Scaffolding during the Writing Process: The Role of Informal Peer Interaction in Writing Workshops by Fiona Hyland ..... 168
10. Multimodality and the Teaching of Advanced Academic Writing: A Genre Systems Perspective on Speaking-Writing Connections by Christine M. Tardy ..... 191

□ Part 3: How Writing Scaffolds Speaking

11. Writing to Speak: What Goes On across the Two-Way Street
by Donald L. Rubin and Okim Kang ..... 210
12. Negotiating Online and In-Class Academic Conversations:
Writing to Speak by Gayle L. Nelson and Yanbin Lu ..... 226
13. Does Writing Influence Learner Attention to Form?
by Rebecca Adams and Lauren Ross-Feldman ..... 243

□ Part 4: How Technology Bridges Speaking and Writing

14. Corpus Linguistics for Academic Literacies Mediated through Discussion Activities by Lynne Flowerdew ..... 268
15. Blogging as a Bridge between Multiple Forms of Literacy:
The Use of Blogs in an Academic Writing Class by Joel Bloch ..... 288

Afterword by Paul Kei Matsuda ..... 310

Contributors ..... 313

Index ..... 319