
Reading for Details

Indicate if each statement is True (T) or False (F).

1. ____ Tuna is the only fish served in this restaurant.
2. ____ You can have a pizza and salad for lunch.
3. ____ You can arrange to have your food ready for you when you arrive.
4. ____ This restaurant serves hot soups in a bowl made of bread.
5. ____ Half a Frontega Chicken sandwich and a bowl of Low-Fat Vegetarian soup costs $7.19.
6. ____ If you have $7.00, you can afford a Three-Cheese Pizza.
7. ____ If you order a Caesar Salad, bread comes with it at no extra cost.
8. ____ It's Tuesday; you can order Boston Clam Chowder with your salad.
9. ____ After 4:00, you can order a dinner salad with your Frontega Chicken sandwich.
10. ____ None of the food in this restaurant contains any trans fat.
11. ____ If you were hosting a party, you could have Panera bring the food.

Critical Reading

The following questions require drawing inferences and giving your own opinion.

1. Would you take your family to this restaurant for a birthday dinner? Why or why not? _____

2. You have $10.00 to spend. What would you order? (Make sure to save enough for tax and perhaps a tip.) _____

3. If you were on a diet, which dishes might you order? Would you order the Lower-Carb Bread? Why or why not? _____

4. Many restaurants make up their own names for menu items. Panera calls its pizza Crispani. Why do you think the company invented that name? _____
5. Look at the back of the menu, at the section called Operation Dough-Nation.
 - a. This is a pun, a type of word play. What are two different meanings of the word dough? What is a donation? What is the pun? _____

 - b. T / F Panera gives a portion of each sale to the local community.
 - c. Panera says, "With your help, we can make a difference." What does the company mean by that? Do you think that companies like Panera can make a difference? Why or why not?

