

Contents

Introduction to the Second Edition	1
Chapter 1. Academic Integrity	3
“Harvard Investigates ‘Unprecedented’ Academic Dishonesty Case” (The Harvard Crimson , www.thecrimson.com)	3
“There Is No Harvard Cheating Scandal: The Students Should Be Celebrated for Collaborating” (Slate , www.slate.com)	7
“The Take-Home Lesson from the Harvard Cheating Scandal” (AMS Blog, www.ams.org)	11
Chapter 2. World Hunger	21
OP-ED: “Are We at the Tipping Point for Ending Hunger and Malnutrition?” (Inter Press Service News Agency, www.ipsnews.net)	21
“Latin America and the Caribbean Progressing in the Fight against Hunger, Still Not Enough” (World Food Programme, www.wfp.org)	26
“Hunger and Development in Latin America” (Bread for the World Institute, www.bread.org)	29
Chapter 3. Information Revolution	35
“The Information Revolution Gets Political” (The Australian , www.theaustralian.com.au)	35
“India’s Tablet Revolution” (Foreign Policy , www.foreignpolicy.com)	40

X Contents

Chapter 4. Cybersecurity	48
“Cyber-Security: The Digital Arms Trade” (The Economist , www.economist.com)	48
“Breaking into Cybersecurity” (Barron’s , www.barrons.com)	54
Chapter 5. Income Inequality	62
“To Fix Income Inequality, the Have-Nots Must Become the Do-Somethings” (Forbes , www.forbes.com)	62
“First-Ever Study of Global Economic Inequality: Richest 8% Earn 50% of Earth’s Incomes” (Huffington Post , www.huffingtonpost.com)	67
Chapter 6. Climate Change	74
“People Don’t Fear Climate Change Enough” (Bloomberg News , www.bloombergview.com)	74
“Is Global Warming Cooler than Expected?” (Scientific American , www.scientificamerican.org)	79
“Fracking: The Monster We Greens Must Embrace” (The Guardian , www.theguardian.com)	83
Chapter 7. Global Health	92
“Ending Pandemics: How Close Are We?” (CNN, www.cnn.com)	92
“The Hunt for the World’s Most Wanted Vaccines” (New Scientist , www.newscientist.com)	96
Chapter 8. Education Reform	104
“Opinion: Too Little Access, Not Enough Learning: Africa’s Twin Deficit in Education” (Brookings Institution, www.brookings.edu)	104
“Africa: Education Key to Prosperous Lives” (allAfrica, www.allafrica.com)	115

Chapter 9. Regional Conflict	122
“The Kashmir Conundrum”	122
(The Express Tribune with the International Herald Tribune , www.tribune.com.pk)
“Zubin Mehta’s Concert Strikes a Discordant Note in Kashmir”	126
(NPR, www.npr.com)
Chapter 10. Gender Equality	135
“Q&A: The Uprising of Women in the Arab World”	135
(Tunisia Live, www.tunisia-live.net)
“South Africa: A Global Goal on Gender Equality, Women’s Rights and Women’s Empowerment”	140
(allAfrica, www.allafrica.com)
Chapter 11. Effective Leadership	148
“On Leadership and American Power: A Discussion about the Role of Leadership in U.S. Foreign Policy”	148
(Georgetown Journal of International Affairs , www.journal.georgetown.edu)
“Surprises Are the New Normal; Resilience Is the New Skill”	156
(Harvard Business Review , http://blogs.hbr.org/kanter/2013/07/ surprises-are-the-new-normal-r.html)
Chapter 12. Immigration Policy	165
“Immigration Lessons for the U.S. from Around the World”	165
(CNN World, www.cnn.com)
“A Market Solution to Immigration Reform”	173
(Wall Street Journal , www.wsj.com)

xii Contents

Chapter 13. Human Rights	182
“Memo to UN Security Council: The Human Rights Emergency in N. Korea Can No Longer Be Ignored” (Special to WorldTribune.com, www.worldtribune.com)	182
“Angry over U.N. Inquiry, North Korea Touts Its Human Rights Credentials” (CNN, www.cnn.com)	187
Chapter 14. Cultural Heritage	195
“Archaeology and Cultural Heritage in Egypt after Mubarak” (The Ancient Near East Today, www.asor.org)	195
Quicktake: “Losing World Heritage in Syria’s Civil War” (VOA: Middle East Voices, http://middleeastvoices.voanews.com)	201
Appendixes
Appendix A: How to Read Efficiently	211
Appendix B: How to Do Internet Research	213
Appendix C: How to Give an Oral Presentation	217
Appendix D: Models of Writing Assignments	219