

Contents

How to Use This Book	v
1: An Introduction to Intercultural Communication	1
1.1 The Scope of Intercultural Communication	1
1.2 How Can We Understand Each Other?	5
1.3 Characteristics of Effective Listeners	7
1.4 Characteristics of Effective Speakers	11
1.5 Taking Effective Notes to Record Important Information	13
2: Perceiving, Understanding, and Adjusting to Culture	19
2.1 In-Groups and Out-Groups	19
2.2 Ethnocentrism	24
2.3 Stereotypes, Prejudices, and Discrimination	28
2.4 Can Language and Culture Be Separated?	36
2.5 The Cultural Adjustment Cycle	40
2.6 Culture Clash	41
2.7 Descriptive versus Prescriptive Judgments	44
3: Understanding Spoken Language	47
3.1 Spoken versus Written Language	47
3.2 Achieving Shared Meaning	51
3.3 Linguistics and the Role of Language	52
4: Understanding Silent Language	67
4.1 Silent Language	67
4.2 Communicating without Words	69

---

5: Taking Action with Words	85
5.1 Communicating through Words and Actions	85
5.2 Speech Acts	85
5.3 Power	89
5.4 Face and Politeness	92
5.5 Pragmatic Failure	93
5.6 Implicatures	93
5.7 Selected Speech Acts	98
6: Analyzing Culture and Overcoming Obstacles	111
6.1 Categories for Analyzing Culture	111
6.2 Overcoming Obstacles	114
Appendixes	125
A Guidelines for Small Group Discussions, Large Group Discussions, Speeches, and Debates	127
B Student Experiences with Other Cultures	131
C Film Review Questionnaire	143
References	145