

Contents

- 1. The Ten Commandments for College Success and Happiness 1
  1. Believe in Your (Jewish) Self 1
  2. Learn to be a College Student: You're Not in High School Anymore 3
  3. Get to Know Faculty 6
  - Daniel Wiseman—"Tutoring Is for A Students."* 9
  4. Get Involved and Be Engaged 11
  5. Expand Your Comfort Zone and Change the World 14
  6. Develop Good Study Habits 16
  7. Ask for Help 18
  - Sara Fishman—"Help! I Can't Take Another Four Years of High School!"* 20
  8. Discover the Value of Challenging Ideas (Including Your Own) 23
  9. Live a Balanced Life 25
  10. Remember That Tomorrow Will Be Even Better Than Today 26
- 2. Who am I: Discovering Yourself, Your Jewish Identity, and Other Social Identities 27
  11. Decide Who You Are—It's Your Life Now 27
  12. Discover Your Values—Jewish and Secular 29
  13. Determine What You Like (and Dislike) in Life 30

Amanda Landers—“Taming the Party Animal” 32

14. Examine Your Social Identity 34
15. Take Ownership of Your Jewish Identity 36
16. Manage Conflicts with Jewish Holidays 39
17. Make Quality Friendships 42

Ben Martin—“Relationships Are More Complicated Than I Thought.” 43

18. Explore Judaism, Spirituality, and a Life of Meaning 46
19. Get Comfortable Being Alone 48
20. Fall in Love 49

3. Milk and Honey: Getting the Most out of College 51

21. Make Yourself a Part of the Scholarly Community 51
22. Think Critically 53
23. Ask Questions 55

Jason Castro—“Is That Really True?” 57

24. Find Yourself a Mentor 59
25. Pursue Your Intellectual Passions 61
26. Sign Up and Get Involved in a Residential and Curricular Learning Community 63
27. Engage in Intergroup Dialogue 65

Ilana Stein—“I’m an Engaged Learner because I’m an Engaged Citizen.” 66

28. Take Small Classes and Seminars 69
29. Immerse Yourself in Community Service 71
30. Participate in Undergraduate Research Programs 73
31. Study Abroad in Israel and Other Countries 74
32. Learn a Second or Third Language, Including Hebrew 77

4. Limud: Faculty, Classes, and Advising 79

33. Choose Good Teachers over Good Class Topics 79
34. Go to Office Hours and Get to Know Your Instructors 81
35. Become Skilled at Different Ways of Knowing 82
Shira Eisen—“You Mean I Can Take a Class That I’m Interested In?” 84
36. Make Intellectual Connections among Courses 86
37. Pay Attention at Orientation 88
38. Visit your Academic Advisor Often 89
39. Manage Your Time Effectively and Use a Planner 91
40. Go to Class on Time (and Other Rules of the High-Tech Classroom) 92
41. Read the Reading Assignments 94
42. Don’t Fall Behind: Learn to Be Both the Tortoise and the Hare 96
Sam Bergman—“I’ve Got So Much Free Time!” 97
43. Think Sensibly and Strategically about Grades 100
44. Don’t Freak Out over Finals 103
45. Be Intellectually Honest: Don’t Cheat 104
46. Take Full Advantage of Learning Opportunities as a Commuter Student 106
47. Return to the Three Rs—Reading, ’Riting, and ’Rithmetic 107

5. Tikkun Olam: Make a Difference in the World 109

48. Live a Life of Commitment: Take Responsibility for the World around You 109
49. Think about Social Justice 111
50. Take Democracy Seriously: Participate Actively in Civic Life 112
Alex Brooks—“Stepping Outside My World” 114

51. Be Both an Activist and a Thinker 117
52. Withhold Assumptions about People 118
53. Be a Boundary-Crosser: Dialogue and Engage with Others 120
54. Find Your Voice and Take a Stand 122
- Adam Kaplan—“I’ve Got an Opinion about That!”* 124
55. Model a Sustainable Lifestyle 126
56. Develop Leadership Skills 128
57. Participate in Alternative Weekends and Alternative Spring Break 130
58. Learn to Collaborate with Your Peers 131

6. Life on Campus for Jewish Students 134

59. Get Along with Your Roommate 134
60. Enjoy Life in the Residence Hall 136
61. Join Campus Organizations and Participate in Campus Activities 138
- Joel Cohen—“Vote for Me! Your Next President of the United States!”* 139
62. Go to Lectures, Museums, Workshops, Talks, and Concerts 142
63. Stay Connected and Involved in Campus Life as a Commuter Student 143
64. Find your Jewish Community 145
65. Navigate and Learn from Your Experience as a Religious Minority on Campus 148
- Michael Weingarten—“I’m Older but Newer: After the Gap Year in Israel.”* 152
66. Learn Outside the Classroom 155
67. Consider Whether Fraternities and Sororities Are for You 156

7. Chicken Soup: Health and Safety for the Body and Mind 160

68. Learn to Enjoy Yourself, Learning, and the College Experience 160

69. Live a Well-Rounded Life 162

70. Take Care of Your Soul 163

71. Take (Safe) Risks 164

Rebecca Frankel—“No, Thanks. I’ll Pass on That.” 166

72. Go to Sleep if You’re Tired 169

73. Exercise and Play Sports 171

74. Limit Your All-Nighters 172

75. Be Safe in Sex 173

76. Control Your Alcohol Use and Don’t Use Drugs 175

77. Lock Your Door and Don’t Walk Home Alone at Night 177

Alexandra Kraft—“I Need to Take a Deep Breath.” 179

78. Know How to Get Out of Dangerous Situations 181

79. Get Help in Case of Emergencies 183

80. Visit the Counseling and Health Centers 185

8. Mishpacha (Family), Finances, and Details of Daily Life 187

81. Call Home, Ask for Care Packages, and Don’t Forget Your Bubbe and Zayde 187

82. Make Your First Visit Home a Good Experience 189

83. Keep Your High School Friends, but Invest in College
Friendships 191

Lauren Goldstein—“Turn the Page on Today’s Disaster.” 192

- 84. Make Friends with Staff in the Financial Aid Office 194
- 85. Be Careful Using Credit/Debit Cards and Balance Your Checkbook 196
- 86. Rediscover Your Place in Your Family 198
- 87. Get a Job 199
- 88. Pick Up after Yourself: Do Your Own Laundry 201
- Deanna Newman*—“Should I Go Home for Rosh Hashanah?” 202
- 89. Show Up to Class 205
- 90. Enjoy Your Personal Technology and Social Networks Responsibly 206
- 91. Get Around Town without a Car 208

9. Mazel Tov! Looking beyond the First Year 210

- 92. Identify Faculty Who Will Write Recommendation Letters for You 210
- 93. Explore Possible Majors 212
- 94. Turn the Sophomore Slump into a Great Opportunity 214
- Joseph Schneider*—“I’m the Jewish Insider/Outsider.” 216
- 95. Spend Your Summers Productively 218
- 96. Investigate Internships 220
- 97. Graduate in Four Years or as Quickly Thereafter as Possible 222
- 98. If Necessary, Look into Transferring to Another College 224
- Allison Strauss*—“What Should I Be When I Grow Up?” 226
- 99. Take a Summer Vacation 228
- 100. Investigate Possible Career Choices 229
- 101. Remember Your College Accomplishments 231