

Index

- Annotated text, with questions, 240–41
- Arrival to class, timing of, 24–25
- Assessment. See Grading
- Assigning student responsibility, 224–26
- Attendance: and labs, 112; policy, 20; 28; problems, 112; taking of, 25–26. See also Students, with attendance problems
- Authority, when teaching, 10, 15, 20
- Background, providing personal, 12–16
- Balance, between teaching and school, 224–31
- Cheating, 183–84
- Class: addressing problems in, 43–44; before first session of, 7–9; dynamics of, 53, 142; establishing policies for, 20; first session of, 24–29; preparation for, 30–42, 227–28; starting time of, 8; time management during, 38–39
- Class participation, 21. See also Grading, and class participation
- Class plans: consolidating lists, 77–78; debate, 70–75; development of, 8–9; essay workshop, 93–98; exam preparation, 88–91, grammar and usage review, 91–93; guest speaker, 80–82; information exchange, 68–70; lecture, 82–88; pros and cons, 75–76; video presentation, 78–80. See also Lesson plans.
- Classroom: arrangement of, 38–40, 46; location of, 8
- Closure. See Discussion, wrapping up of; Wrapping up
- Clothes, for teaching, 10–11
- Coffee shops, meeting in, 151
- Collaboration, among students, 103–5; among teachers, 1
- Consolidating lists, 77–78
- Copying, 9
- Counseling services, mental health related, 163–65
- Coursework release form, sample of, 252–53
- Crushes, 171–73
- Culture, issues of, 14–15, 58
- Deadlines, 21
- Debate, 70–74
- Devil's advocate, acting as, 58
- Director of Undergraduate Studies, 119, 175–76
- Discussion: facilitating of, 36–37, 54–56; questions for, 51–53; vs. task-based participation, 45–46; wrapping up of, 64–67
- Discussion classes, 36–37; 45–67; sample lesson plan for, 236–37
- Drop/add policy, 9, 25
- Email, 18, 154–57; CCing and, 156; and class email group, 18; keeping records of, 156; tone of, 154
- Essays: assignment of, 115–18; format, 116–17; genre expectations, 115–16; prompt

- for, 115; revision of, 131–34;
topic selection, 116. See also Grading, of essays
- Essay workshops, 93–96; advance preparation for, 94–95; and final editing exercise, 97–98; sample guidelines for, 242–44. See also Peer Response, sample guidelines for
- Evaluation, final by students,
205–7; and teaching portfolio,
217–219
- Exams: creation of, 118–120; in-class review for, 143–45; learning objectives, 118, 119; missed, 21, 146; preparation for, 88–91;
proctoring of, 183. See also Grading, of exams
- Experimental laboratories. See
Laboratories
- Experiments, failed, 112
- Facebook, use with students, 18–19
- Facilitating. See Discussion, facilitating of
- Feedback: eliciting from students, 197–200; midterm, 203; to professor, 40–41; from professor,
41; responding to, 200–2, 204,
205; sample of midterm, 251;
from students (informal), 200–2;
from students (formal), 202–7.
See also Professor, relationship with; Evaluation, final by students
- Final grades. See Grading, and calculating final grade
- First day of the term, 7–29
- Freewriting, 47–48, 198–99
- Gender, issues of, 13–14, 57
- Goals, for teaching. See Teaching goals
- Grade books, 123–24
- Grade complaints, 184–91
- Graded material, returning of,
141–42, 148
- Grades, posting of, 148
- Grading, 122–49; and calculating final grade, 146–48; and class participation, 146–47; and electronic essays, 128–30; of essays, 127–36; of essay workshops, 96; of exams, 124–26; of final exams and essays, 124–126; and group work, 139–40; of lab reports, 138–39; and late work, 145; and missed exams, 146; of problem sets, 101, 136–37; setting policy
for, 20, 28
- Grading curve, 135
- Grammar and usage review, 91–93
- Guest speaker, 80–82
- Guidelines: for in-class collaboration on problems sets, 105; for essay workshops, 94–96; for peer response, 95–96; for student presentations of problem sets, 107;
for teaching assistant–led problem set review, 103
- Homework, late, 21. See also Grading, and late work
- Icebreakers, 26–28
- Information cards, 24, 26
- Information exchange, 68–70
- International graduate teaching assistants, 15–16
- Internet, appropriate use of, 177
- Interview, job. See Job interview
- Introduction, of self, 11–16, 28
- Job interview, 220–23
- Job market, preparing for, 208–23
- Laboratories, 107–13; common problems with, 112–13;

- equipment in, 108; and groups, 109–10; safety rules for, 108–9; weekly preparation for, 107–8
- Lab reports, 113–15; expectations for, 113–14; and groups, 114–15; purpose of, 113; teaching from, 114
- Language: and accents, 15–16; and problematic terminology, viii–ix, 168–69
- Laptop computers, student use in class, 22–23, 61
- Late work. See Grading, and late work; Homework, late
- Learning disabilities, 21, 158–59
- Lectures, 37, 39–40, 82–88; delivery, 86–87; preparing for, 83–84; sample lesson plan for, 238–39; sharing outline with students, 85; and technology, 87
- Lesson format, 36–38; for discussion classes, 36–37; for lecture classes, 37; and structured student activities, 37
- Lesson plans, 33–37; and administrative details, 35–36; and allotting time, 35; format of, 36–37; for problem sets, 101–3; samples of, 236–39
- Letters of recommendation, 193–96; samples of, 247–50; and teaching portfolio, 219
- List, making of, for discussion, 47
- Math anxiety, 100
- Mental health issues, of students, 163–68; students who display frightening or bizarre behavior, 167–68; students who mention suicide, 166
- Meta-teaching, 54, 200–2
- Missed exams. See Grading, and missed exams
- Names: of students, 7, 25, 26; of teaching assistant, 11
- Non-attendance. See Attendance
- Notes, facilitating student, 33–34
- Office hours, 19, 150–54; location of, 150–52; timing of, 152
- Organization, of classroom. See Classroom, arrangement of
- Organization, personal, 9
- Pair and share, 48, 59
- Parents, 191–93
- Peer pressure, 52
- Peer response, sample guidelines for, 245–46
- Personal problems. See Students, with personal problems
- Perspective, maintaining, 5–6
- Phone numbers, 17
- Plagiarism, 20, 21, 28; 176–82
- Problem sets, 99–105; grading of, 136–37; purpose of, 100; review of, 101–3; setting ground rules for, 102–3; and student collaboration, 103–5; and student presentations, 105–7
- Professor: and addressing cheating, 184; and addressing plagiarism, 178–79, 181; and CCing on email, 156; and handling problem students, 167, 169, 170; relationship with, 41–42, 107–8
- Pronoun use, of generic they, ix
- Proofreading: abbreviations, 131; guide for students, 98
- Pros and cons activity, 75–76
- Race, issues of, 14–15, 57
- Reading: active, 50; selected passages from text, 49
- Release form. See Coursework release form
- Revision, of student work. See Essays, revision of

- Safe space, 57
Sample precinct, 198
Scheduling, of teaching activities, 227–30
Self-preservation, 230–31
Sensitive material, 57–58
Sexual harassment, 173–76
Sexual orientation, 12, 57
Small group activities, 49
Social activities, with students, 170–71
Staff, administrative, 8
Student conferences, midterm, 203
Student participation, initiating of, 46–50
Student presentations, 105–7
Students: with attendance problems, 156–57; with diagnosed mental health problems, 163–65; establishing contact with, 16–19; fraternizing with, 170–73; and frightening or bizarre behavior, 167–68; with learning disabilities, 158–59; one-on-one interaction with, 150–96; with persistent complaints, 190–91; with personal problems, 160–67; placing in groups, 71, 109–10
Students, types of classroom behavior: antagonistic, 62, 168–70; bomb-dropper, 63; discussion hog, 62; discussion-stopping, 59–64; disruptive, 60–64; laptop user, 61; newspaper reader, 60; non-participating, 52–54, 59–60; quiet, 54, 59; silent glarer, 63–64; texter, 61; whisperer, 61
Suicide, and student mention of, 166
Syllabus, 20–22; reviewing of, 28; sample of, 234–35; and teaching portfolio, 215
Teaching: agonies of, 4–5; joys of, 3–4
Teaching assistant, as terminology, viii
Teaching bag, 9, 11
Teaching goals, 31–32; prioritizing of, 32
Teaching persona, 2–3
Teaching philosophy, 211–15
Teaching portfolio, 208–11; electronic, 219; and sample teaching materials, 215–19; and student work, 216–217; and teaching philosophy, 211–15
Technology, for lectures, 87. See also Grading, and electronic essays
Texts: required 21; sample annotation of, 240–41
Time management, 29, 35, 38, 227–28
Video presentation, 78–80
Withdrawal, from a course, 157, 166–67
Wrapping up: and consolidating lists, 78; and debate, 74; and essay workshop, 96; and exam preparation, 91; and grammar and usage review, 93; and guest speaker, 82; and information exchange, 70; and lab session, 79; and lecture, 88; and pros and cons, 76; and video presentation, 80