Contents

General Introduction to the Volumes ix
Introduction to the Supporting Genres Volume xiii

An Opening Orientation

- The Structure of Supporting Genres 3
- Academic Correspondence Styles 5
- On a Lighter Note 6

Getting into Graduate School

- Statements of Purpose 10
- Personal Statements 18

Finding Your Voice in the Academic Community

- Communicating with Advisors and Committee Members 21
- Communicating with Co-Authors 23
- Requests and Reminders 26
- Language Focus: The “Attitudinal” or Polite Past 28
- Language Focus: to + VERB+ing Patterns 34
- Writing Apologies 37
- Language Focus: Run as a Phrasal Verb 38

Establishing Yourself in Graduate School

- Small Grant Applications 39
- Letters for Teaching/Research Assistant/Student Assistant Positions 43
- Fellowship Applications 46
- Letters of Recommendation 51
- Language Focus: Positive and Less Positive Language in Letters of Recommendation 53
- Language Focus: Double Meanings in Recommendations 57

Supporting the Publication Process

- Manuscript Submissions 62
- Responding to Reviewers and Editors 65
- Language Focus: Politely Standing Your Ground 70
- Journal Biostatements 74
Writing Acknowledgments 77
  Language Focus: Expressions of Gratitude 79

Moving On to an Academic or Research Career 85
  Curricula Vitae 85
  Language Focus: Gapping in CVs 89
  External Job Applications 92
  Statements of Teaching Philosophy 97

Postscript 101

References 103