

Contents

Why This Book	vii
Chapter 1 An Introduction to the Integrated Nature of Teaching and Curriculum Design in TESOL	1
Part I: Language Acquisition Theories and Their Influence on Teaching Practices	9
Chapter 2 Behaviorism and the Audiolingual Method	10
Chapter 3 Input Theories and Communicative Language Teaching	18
Chapter 4 Sociocultural Theory and Task-Based Learning	28
Part II: From Needs Analysis to Goal Setting, to Syllabus Design and Lesson Planning	38
Chapter 5 Needs Analysis as a Basis for Goal Setting	39
Chapter 6 Designing Goal-Based Syllabi and Lesson Plans	63
Part III: Instructional Activities and Assessment Techniques	85
Chapter 7 Listening Activities and Assessment Techniques	86
Chapter 8 Speaking Activities and Assessment Techniques	122
Chapter 9 Reading Activities and Assessment Techniques	161
Chapter 10 Writing Activities and Assessment Techniques	199
Chapter 11 Grammar Activities and Assessment Techniques	231
Chapter 12 Culture Activities and Assessment Techniques	254

VI CONTENTS

Part IV: Contemporary Trends in TESOL Course Design	278
Chapter 13 Curriculum Trends in English Language Teaching in Europe and North America	279
Chapter 14 Teaching Practices in Asia: A Focus on China and South Korea	290
Chapter 15 Technology-Transformed Language Learning	300
Final Notes on Integrating Curriculum Design with Teaching Activities	318
Appendix: The International Phonetic Alphabet (IPA)	323
Index	325