

Contents

SHELLEY TREMAIN

*Foucault, Governmentality, and Critical Disability
Theory Today: A Genealogy of the Archive* 9

I

Epistemologies and Ontologies

MARTIN SULLIVAN

Subjected Bodies: Paraplegia, Rehabilitation, and the Politics of Movement 27

NIRMALA EREVELLES

Signs of Reason: Rivière, Facilitated Communication, and the Crisis of the Subject 45

SCOTT YATES

Truth, Power, and Ethics in Care Services for People with Learning Difficulties 65

BILL HUGHES

What Can a Foucauldian Analysis Contribute to Disability Theory? 78

BARRY ALLEN

Foucault's Nominalism 93

FIONA KUMARI CAMPBELL

Legislating Disability: Negative Ontologies and the Government of Legal Identities 108

II

Histories

LICIA CARLSON

Docile Bodies, Docile Minds: Foucauldian Reflections on Mental Retardation 133

JANE BERGER

Uncommon Schools: Institutionalizing Deafness in Early-Nineteenth-Century America 153

DIANA SNIGUROWICZ

The Phénomène's Dilemma: Teratology and the Policing of Human Anomalies in Nineteenth- and Early-Twentieth-Century Paris 172

III

Governmentalities

ANNE WALDSCHMIDT

*Who is Normal? Who is Deviant? "Normality" and
"Risk" in Genetic Diagnostics and Counseling* 191

MAARTEN SIMONS AND JAN MASSCHELEIN

Inclusive Education for Exclusive Pupils: A Critical Analysis of the Government of the Exceptional 208

CHRIS DRINKWATER

Supported Living and the Production of Individuals 229

CAROLYN ANNE ANDERSON

Real and Ideal Spaces of Disability in American Stadiums and Arenas 245

GERARD GOGGIN AND CHRISTOPHER NEWELL

Foucault on the Phone: Disability and the Mobility of Government 261

IV

Ethics and Politics

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| JULIE ALLAN                            |     |
| Inclusion as an Ethical Project | 281 |
| KATHRYN PAULY MORGAN                   |     |
| Gender Police                   | 298 |

V

Disability and Governmentality in the Present

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| DANIELLE PEERS  |     |
| From Inhalation to Inspiration: A GenealogicalAuto-ethnography of a Supercrip   | 331 |
| ANNE MCGUIRE  |     |
| “Life Worth Defending”: Biopolitical Frames ofTerror in the War on Autism   | 350 |
| ASHLEY TAYLOR   |     |
| Expressions of “Lives Worth Living” and Their Foreclosurethrough Philosophical Theorizing on Moral Status andIntellectual Disability | 372 |
| KATEŘINA KOLÁŘOVÁ   |     |
| Death by Choice, Life by Privilege: BiopoliticalCircuits of Vitality and Debility in the Times of Empire                                  | 396 |
| Contributors   | 425 |
| Index  | 431 |