

---

Contents

Introduction	1
Myth 1: We are all human beings, so how different can we really be?	9
Myth 2: The goal of education is to develop each individual’s potential.	35
Myth 3: Focusing on conversational skills in the classroom is overrated.	52
Myth 4: Not looking at the teacher shows disrespect.	69
Myth 5: How something is said is not as important as what is said.	88
Myth 6: Everyone knows what a good instructional environment is.	107
Myth 7: By the time students get to middle or high school, they know how to be a student.	130
References	156
Index	185