

■ Contents

Introduction	1
1. What Is a Discussion?	8
Why Are Discussions So Important in College?	8
Characteristics of a Discussion	10
Types of Academic Discussions	13
Factors Changing the Dynamics of a Discussion	15
Roles in a Discussion	16
2. The Structure, or Moves, of a Discussion	24
Move 1: Starting the Discussion	26
Move 2: Getting All Participants Involved	30
Move 3: Managing Participants and Controlling Content	42
Move 4: Keeping the Discussion Going	55
Move 5: Clarifying and Confirming Consensus	59
Move 6: Summarizing and Closing	67
3. Other Discussion Considerations	69
Types of Non-Verbal Communication	70
Pronunciation and Other Verbal Cues	75

4. Video Analysis	86
Video Analysis 1: Mock Discussion to Choose a Group Paper Topic	88
Video Analysis 2: Mock Discussion to Practice for a Test	91
Video Analysis 3: Mock Discussion on an Assignment for a Class Talk	94
Video Analysis 4: Mock Discussion on Choosing a Topic for a Speech	97
Video Analysis 5: Mock Discussion to Think of a Business Idea	99
Video Analysis 6: Mock Discussion on an Astronomy Project	102
5. Suggested Group Activities	105
Appendixes	109
Appendix 1: NASA Ranking Chart for Task 15	109
Appendix 2: Robert's Rules of Order	110
Appendix 3: Rubrics	115
Extra Reading	121