

Contents

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction	I
KAZIM ALI
Little Light on the Road: An Informal Primer on Reading Jean Valentine, in Six Brief Sections	II
CATHERINE BARNETT
Dream Barker : Preoedipal Fusion and Radiant Boundaries in Jean Valentine	18
LEE UPTON
Pilgrims	39
LEE BRICCETTI
Orpheus and Eurydice and Gestures of Turning: Palimpsest in the Poetry of Jean Valentine	43
KATHLEEN FAGLEY
On Jean Valentine's The Messenger	60
PHILIP BOOTH
"Through Such Hard Wind and Light": Jean Valentine's Elegy for Elizabeth Bishop	70
MICHAEL WATERS
Jean Valentine's Spontaneous Mythologies	75
JONATHAN BLUNK
Lost and Found: Jean Valentine's Poems of Childhood and Motherhood	81
DOROTHY BARRESI
Lit from Inside: Jean Valentine's River at Wolf	92
MARTHA COLLINS
Ghost Sonnets	104
MARK DOTY
Incarnational	111
FANNY HOWE
Remnants and Recognition	116
JAMES HARMS

Be Still and Know: Silence in the Poetry of Jean Valentine SUZANNE CLEARY	121
“This Close to God this Close to You”: Incarnation in Jean Valentine AMY NEWMAN	126
Globe on Fire: Jean Valentine as a Political Poet MAGGIE ANDERSON	134
Everyone Was Drunk: Reading Jean Valentine through a Shot Glass Lens JEFFREY SKINNER	144
The Gift of the Double Swerve (Jean Valentine’s Endings) BRENDA HILLMAN	152
For Jean Valentine, Out of Thirty-five Years ALAN WILLIAMSON	159
“The History of the World Without Words”: Mysticism and Social Conscience in the Poetry of Jean Valentine BRIAN TEARE	164
“Awake too you are everyone”: Gestures of Empathy in Jean Valentine’s New Poems RACHEL MORITZ AND JULIET PATTERSON	189
Where Do You Look for Me: The Afterlife in the Poems of Jean Valentine EVE GRUBIN	194
Artifact as Metaphor: Reading Nearness in Jean Valentine’s Little Boat MIGUEL MURPHY	199
Secret Book Written in the Dirt: Jean Valentine’s Lucy: A Poem CELIA BLAND	214
On Saying No: Valentine and Dickinson Break the Glass JULIE CARR	223
The Umwelt of the Question: Notes on Territory and Desire BHANU KAPIL	233
Contributors	239