

CONTENTS

PROLOGUE • A WELL-TEMPERED MANIFESTO	1
§1. A Book with an Edge	1
§2. Cosmodernism and the Planet	5
§3. Planetarism: History, the Cultural Imaginary, and the Problem of Interpretation	8
§4. Steps toward a Geomethodology: Brief Outline	10
PART 1 • WORLD, GLOBE, PLANET	19
I
§5. Wording the World, Worlding the Word	19
§6. Post–Cold War Globalization	26
§7. “World” into “Globe”	28
§8. The Global Paradigm	31
§9. The Rise of the Netosphere	36
II
§10. Planetary Studies	39
§11. “World” Reloaded	47
§12. “Globe” into “Planet”	48
§13. The Planetary Paradigm	55
§14. Politics, Poetics, Epistemology	67
PART 2 • GEOMETHODOLOGY: THEORY AND PRACTICE	77
I
§15. The Face of the Earth	77
§16. The Infinite and the Infinitesimal, Cosmos and Cosmetics	80
§17. “A Single Embrace”: Turn of the Planet, Turn to the Planet	82
§18. The Space of Method	88
§19. Getting the Picture: Rationality, Relationality, Distance	91
§20. The Telescopic, the Microscopic, and Planetary “Quilting Points”	94

viii • CONTENTS

II

- §21. Cosmology and Cosmallogy 112
§22. “Mondializing” the City: Blueprints and Constellations 116
§23. The Origami Face 118
§24. Balzacian Reeducation 125
§25. Freudian Reeducation: Mao, Muo, and “Geopsychoanalysis” 134
§26. Taking Shelter 140
§27. “Greetings from Other Worlds” 145
§28. Snowflakes: The Imagination as Geopositioning Technology 154
§29. The Beirut Wall 158
§30. Chiasmic Spatiality, Planetarity, and the “Monumental”
 Novel 163
§31. “Where the Print Is Finest” 168

EPILOGUE • CRITICISM AS PLANETARY STEWARDSHIP 174

- §32. Strings of Life 174
§33. Mastering the Mystery 177

NOTES 183

BIBLIOGRAPHY 209

INDEX 225