

Contents

- Introduction: Contemporary Poetry and the Public Sphere 1
Jeffrey Gray and Ann Keniston
- Part One: Redefining the Political
- 1 Homeland Insecurity and the Poetry of Engagement 13
Eleanor Wilner
- 2 The Poetry of Engagement and the Politics of Reading 26
Vernon Shetley
- 3 Twenty-First-Century Ecopoetry and the Scalar
Challenges of the Anthropocene 47
Lynn Keller
- Part Two: Redefining Authorship
- 4 The Politics of Docupoetry 67
Joseph Harrington
- 5 “Hands Off”: Official Language in Contemporary Poetry 84
Jeffrey Gray
- 6 Delivering Difficult News 104
Bob Perelman
- Part Three: Redefining Identity
- 7 Frank Bidart’s Poetics of Engagement 123
Steven Gould Axelrod

x • Contents

8 Beyond Katrina: Eco-poetics, Memory, and Race 143
James McCorkle

9 Claudia Rankine and the Body Politic 168
Elisabeth A. Frost

Part Four: Redefining Poetics

10 Echo Revisions: Repetition, Politics, and the Problem of Value in Contemporary Engaged Poetry 195
Ann Keniston

11 Ambivalence and Despair 217
Kevin Pruffer

12 Getting the World into the Poem: Information, Layering, and the Composite Poem 227
Tony Hoagland

Contributors 243