

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	1
Juhn Y. Ahn
1. Transgression as Heaven's Mandate: Buddhist Iconography and Political Resistance in No Yōng's Painting of 1307	21
Karen S. Hwang
2. The Trickster as Transgressor in Traditional Korean Society	53
Charles La Shure
3. Flesh Eaters and Organ Thieves: Locating Transgression in Korean Cannibalism	85
Se-Woong Koo
4. Suicide, "New Women," and Media Sensation in Colonial Korea	105
Jennifer Yum
5. The Cat's Cradle: Middle-Class Optics of Desire in Kim Ki-young's The Housemaid	123
Se-Mi Oh
6. The Political Turn as an Act of Transgression: The Case of Left- Turned-Right Christian Activists	139
Myung-Sahm Suh
7. Transgressive Academic All-Stars and Conventional Teen Idols: School-Age South Koreans and Hakpumo (School Parents) Navigating the System	165
Bonnie Tilland

8. Stories of Cruel Youth: The South Korean Anti-Teenager Movie Peter Y. Paik	195
9. Unfinished Business? Transgression and Moral Agency in Park Chan-wook's Vengeance Trilogy Juhn Y. Ahn	215
Epilogue Juhn Y. Ahn	235
List of Contributors	239
Index	243