Dialectical Imaginaries: Materialist Approaches to U.S. Latino/a Literature in the Age of Neoliberalism
Marcial González and Carlos Gallego, Editors
https://www.press.umich.edu/9892149/dialectical_imaginaries
University of Michigan Press, 2018

Contents

INTRODUCTION
Reading U.S. Latino/a Literature through Capitalism—and Vice Versa 1
Carlos Gallego and Marcial González

CHAPTER 1. Marxism, Materialism, and Latino/a Literature: What Is at Stake? 21
Rosaura Sánchez and Beatrice Pita

CHAPTER 2. "When the Union Movement Was Murdered in America": Neoliberalism and the Political Economy of Class War in Alfredo Véa's Gods Go Begging 47
Dennis López

CHAPTER 3. Quarantine Citizen: Latinx Poetry and the Matter of Capital 75
Michael Dowdy

CHAPTER 4. Historical Materialism, The Decolonial Imaginary, and Chicana Feminist Theories in the Flesh 105
Marcelle Maese

CHAPTER 5. A World Out of Whack: Criminal (In)justice and Financial Capitalism in Sergio de la Pava's A Naked Singularity 133
R. Andrés Guzmán

Dialectical Imaginaries: Materialist Approaches to U.S. Latino/a Literature in the Age of Neoliberalism
Marcial González and Carlos Gallego, Editors
https://www.press.umich.edu/9892149/dialectical_imaginaries
University of Michigan Press, 2018

CHAPTER 6. Pornocapitalism and the Translucent Borders of Social Identity in Deck of Deeds 159
Carlos Gallego

CHAPTER 7. Bodega Sold Dreams: Middle-Class Panic and the Cross-over Aesthetics of In the Heights 187
Elena Machado Sáez

CHAPTER 8. The Dialectics of Presence and Futurity in the Contemporary U.S. Latino/a Novel 217
Mathias Nilges

CHAPTER 9. Crisis and Migration in Posthegemonic Times: Primitive Accumulation and Labor in La Bestia 241
Abraham Acosta

CHAPTER 10. A Chicana Dystopian Novel and the Economic Realities of Their Dogs Came with Them 263
Edén Torres

CHAPTER 11. Mass Incarceration and the Critique of Capitalism: A Working-Class Viewpoint in Ronald Ruiz's Happy Birthday Jesús 287
Marcial González

Bibliography 313

Contributors 335

Index 339