

Index

- Abolitionism, 2, 24, 37
Academic classes in women's prisons, 131, 132–33, 136
Addams, Jane, 123, 146
Albion, New York. See Western House of Refuge
Alcoholism of inmates, 83, 87, 138
Alcohol offenses, 145, 146
Alcott, Louisa May, 96
American Prison Association (APA), 38–39, 49, 62
Anthony, Susan B., 41–42
Anthropometric tests. See Physiological criminal type, concept of Anti-institutional institutions, attempts to transform reformatories and penitentiaries into, 130–37
Architectural design and prison reform, 68–71
Atkinson, Eudora, 71, 72, 73
Auburn, New York, penitentiary, 15–16, 17, 58, 130
Auburn system of imprisonment, 9
Authoritarianism in prison administrators, 97
Awakening (religious revival movement), 25–28

Baker, Amos, 141
Barker-Benfield, Ben, 19
Barney, Susan, 22, 162–63
Barrett, Kate Waller, 127, 168–69
Barrows, Isabel, 101, 168–69
Barton, Clara, 74–75, 99, 162–63
Bedford Hills, New York Reformatory for Women at, 116, 117–21, 131–34, 157

Beecher, Catharine, 94
Bellevue Penitentiary, women's quarters at, 7
Benevolence, social reform and religious, 1, 7, 25, 28, 29
Big Sisters, 127, 129
Biological determinism. See Hereditarian theories
Black women prisoners, 1, 139–41, 148
Bowen, Louise de Koven, 124
British prison system, 49–50. See also England, women's prison reform in Brockway, Zebulon, 49, 50
Bureau of Social Hygiene, 118–20
Butler, Benjamin, 74, 75

Capital punishment, 8
Careers. See Occupations, women's
Carpenter, Mary, 49–50
Chace, Elizabeth Buffum: 24, 37–38, 48, 50, 59, 109, 162–63; on men's demand for fallen women, 42–43; on treating fallen women, 52–53; on training for domestic service, 91
Character retraining in women's prisons, 95–100
Chastity offenders as inmates of women's prisons, 83–85, 87, 156. See also Female purity, sexual ideology of; Prostitution
Chicago: prison reform in, 128; morals court in, 129
Chickering, Hannah, 36, 51, 59, 162–63

- Children: women compared with, 54, 56, 73, 154–55; in women's prisons, 60, 69, 96, 152
- Civil War: female crime rates and, 13, 14; influence of social service during and prison reform following, 25, 36–37, 39
- Clara deHirsch Homes for Immigrant Girls, 127
- Class: women as sexual, 2, 19, 21, 105, 126, 155; prostitution as entry into criminal, 14–15. See also Economic analysis of women's crime
- Classification of inmates: separate facilities and, 47–48, 50, 51; difficulties in women's prisons of, 153–54
- Clinton Farms, New Jersey, 137
- Coeducation as reform, 157
- Coffin, Charles, 50
- Coffin, Rhoda: on female crime, 22; as reformer, 36, 39, 50, 51, 59, 61, 109, 162–63; on sexual abuse of women in men's prisons, 60; on retraining programs, 91
- Committee on Training Camp Activities, 146
- Comstock, Elizabeth, 36, 162–63
- Congregate-system prisons, influence of design of, 68, 70
- Connecticut, women's prison reform in, 38, 136
- Contract labor in Massachusetts, 91
- Conyngton, Mary, 122
- Cooper, James Fenimore, 19
- Cott, Nancy, 24
- Cottage system, 56–57, 68–71; for federal reformatory, 146, 149
- Crime: social change and definitions of, 10, 13–14; sex ratios of, 11–13; determinist (hereditary) theories of, 40, 41, 43–44; debate over hereditary and environmental determinants of, 110–15, 116; relationship of mental ability to, 111, 116–21; etiologic factors in, 119–20. See also Women's crime
- Criminal class, prostitution as entry into, 14–15
- Criminal justice system, nineteenth-century reorganization of, 8; male's victimization of women in, 59
- Criminology (1900–1920), 109–25. See also Penology; Prison reform; Reformers
- Custodial institutions, criticism of, 49
- Dangerous criminals, as inmates of women's prisons, 85–87. See also Property and person offenders as inmates of women's prisons
- Davis, Katharine Bement, 116–18; 120–21, 126, 131–34, 138–42, 146, 153, 170–71
- Dawley, Almena, 123
- de Beaumont, Gustave, 11
- Defective delinquent, concept of, 116–20 passim. See also Mental defectives, female
- Delinquent girls, social services for, 127
- Delinquent women, psychopathic, 119, 120, 139, 141
- de Tocqueville, Alexis, 11
- Detroit, House of Shelter in, 50–51, 56
- Dietrick, Ellen Batelle, 43
- Differential treatment, 52–58, 63, 144–55. See also Separate facilities (sexual segregation); Vocational training
- Discipline: in Auburn system, 9; prison building design and, 68; emphasis on, 76–77; traditional

- methods of, 90, 98–100; criticism of traditional prison, 130; women's reformatories' reversion to traditional methods of, 155. See also Punishment
- Discriminatory treatment: campaign for separate facilities and, 48–49; of women as children, 54, 56, 154–55; in women's courts, 129–30. See also Domesticity; Vocational training
- Dix, Dorothea, 47, 162–63
- Dix, John, 11
- Domestic science movement, 94
- Domesticity: stress on, in retraining programs, 55, 89–95, 96, 105, 154; tension between discipline and, in prisons, 90; indenture program as incentive for learning skills of, 92–95; reformers' differing valuation of, 109; low remuneration of, as incentive to crime, 114, 121–24; Progressive reformers' efforts to expand training beyond, 131–37 passim, 149–50, 154; cottage system as ideal for training in, 149; in mixed and sexually segregated prisons, 152
- Domestic sphere, 2, 19; halfway house as extension of, 30; as focal point for female corrections, 55, 95, 105. See also Woman's sphere
- Doremus, Sarah Platt, 28, 29, 162–63
- Double standard: in nineteenth century, 14, 19–20; and neglect of women's prison reform, 17–18; 33–34, 42–43; applied to women criminals, 115
- Drug use: federal legislation against, 145, 146; as victimless crime, 156. See also Alcoholism of inmates
- Dual ideal of womanhood, 95
- Dual system of corrections, 148, 156–57
- Dual training, recommendation for, 149–50
- Economic analysis of women's crime, 14, 40–45, 95, 105, 111–15 passim, 121–25, 156. See also Domesticity; Vocational training
- Education: of women reformers, 24, 26; of women prisoners, 131, 132–33, 136
- Elizabeth Fry Reception House, 118
- Elmira, New York, Reformatory, 49
- England, women's prison reform in, 22. See also British prison system
- Environmental analysis of women's crime, 109, 110, 115–20 passim, 121–25, 126, 130, 141
- Eugenics movement, 111, 120
- Extradomestic institutions, creation of women's, 46–47
- Extrainstitutional reforms, 126–30, 142
- Falconer, Martha, 128, 147, 170–71
- Fallen woman: label of, 14–15; treatment of, in penal institutions (1820–70), 15–21; men's attitudes toward, 18, 42–45, 59; prison reformers' challenge to concept of, 22, 29, 30–35, 40, 52–57; moral reformers' goal of uplifting, 27–28; in fiction (1860–90), 40; social and economic origins of, 40–45, 121–25; reformers' goal of converting, into respectable women, 52–57; as inmates of women's prisons, 84–85, 105; twentieth-century

- Fallen woman (continued)
reformers' approaches to, 110, 127; theory of biological atavism applied to, 112–13; decline in sympathy for, 146–48; persistence of hostile attitudes toward, 157. See also Female purity, sexual ideology of; Prostitution
- Farnham, Eliza W., 48, 164–65
- Federal women's prison, first, 144–46, 149, 150
- Feeble-mindedness, 116, 117, 118, 120
- Female Department of the Prison Association of New York, 29–34
- Female inmates. See Women prisoners
- Female Moral Reform Society, New York, 28
- Female Prison Association of Philadelphia, 55
- Female purity, sexual ideology of, 10–11, 14, 17, 19–20, 44. See also Chastity offenders as inmates of women's prisons; Fallen woman; Moral superiority, female, principle of
- Female sphere. See Domestic sphere; Woman's sphere
- Femininity: as true womanhood, 54–55; emphasis on obedience in, 95, 97, 104; new stereotype of, in postsuffrage period, 150. See also Domestic sphere; Woman's sphere
- Feminism: women's prison reform and, 2–3, 24, 34, 39–40; focus on women's economic condition by, 41–42; in interpretation of crime, 44–45; in reformers' approach to women prisoners, 46–47; rhetoric of, to attack men's authority, 61; postsuffrage reaction to, 150; of 1960s and 1970s, 155–56. See also Women's rights movement and prison reformers
- Fernald, Mabel Ruth, 123, 170–71
- Finley, James B., 18
- Florence Crittenton Homes, 56, 127
- Foucault, Michel, 9
- Fry, Elizabeth Gurney, 7, 22–24, 31, 47, 58, 146, 157
- Fuller, Margaret, 30–31, 48, 164–65
- George, William, 130
- Gibbons, Abby Hopper, 24, 29, 35, 109, 131, 164–65
- Gilman, Charlotte Perkins, 42, 121
- Girls, practice of referring to inmates as, 73. See also Children
- Goldman, Emma, 121, 123
- Grob, Gerald, 9
- Halfway house for discharged women prisoners: reformers' campaign for, 29–33, 34, 36; domestic structure of, 55–56; indenture program as kind of, 94
- Hall, Emma, 50, 56, 164–65
- Hall, Lucy, 96, 164–65
- Harris, Mary Belle, 137, 149, 170–71
- Harrison Act, 145, 146
- Hayes, Mary, 123
- Healy, William, 119
- Hereditarian theories: of nineteenth century, 40, 41, 43–44; debate over environmental and, 110–15, 116
- Hereditary handicaps, evidence of, 119–20
- Hodder, Jessie Donaldson, 126, 131, 134–35, 143, 146, 152, 170–71
- Home as focal point for female

- corrections, 55–56. See also Domesticity
- Homes, rescue, in Progressive era, 127, 129, 130
- Homosexual relationships, inmates', 138, 139–41, 153
- Hospital for psychopathic delinquent women, 119, 139, 141
- Housekeeping. See Domesticity
- Houses of refuge/shelter. See Reformatory prisons; names of individual institutions
- Howe, Julia Ward, 50
- Hubbard, Sallie, 89
- Hudson House of Refuge, 69, 71, 89, 98, 99
- Illegitimate births within charitable and penal institutions, 60
- Immigrant prisoners, increase in, 138
- Immigrants, social services for, 127
- Indenture system: as incentive to acquire domestic skills, 92–94: maternalism and anachronism of, 94–95
- Indeterminate sentence, effect of merit systems on, 98
- Indiana: women's prison reform in, 22, 36, 46, 51, 62; forced prostitution within state prison in, 60
- Indiana Woman's Prison: architectural design of, 69, 70; female management and staff in, 71, 72, 77, 89; inmates selected for, 78–82; retraining programs at, 91, 92; merit system at, 98; punishments at, 99; observation of inmates at, 101
- Industrial schools, sexually segregated, 50
- Industrial training programs, 90, 149–51. See also Retraining programs; Vocational training
- Inmates. See Women prisoners
- Intelligence testing. See Mental ability, relation of crime to
- International Penitentiary Congress (1872), 50
- Interracial sex, inmates', 139–40
- Ireland, women's reformatory in, 49–50
- Irving, Addie, 60
- Isaac Hopper Home, 31–33
- Isolation, uses of, 98–99, 101, 102
- Jails. See Prisons
- Jewish Big Sisters, 129
- Jewish immigrants, 138
- Johnson, Ellen Cheney, 36, 39, 41, 74, 96, 164–65; on need for differential treatment, 54–55; as prison administrator, 76–77, 96, 97, 101; on outdoor labor, 91, 92; on indenture system to acquire domestic skills, 92; merit system of, 98, 99; disciplinary measures used by, 99
- Johnson, Elmina, 95
- Jones-Miller Act, 145
- Juvenile reformatories: sexual segregation of, 50; family system of, 56; women's prisons modeled on, 154–55
- Katz, Michael, 9
- Keely, Sarah, 72, 77, 91
- Kellor, Frances, 111, 127, 172–73
- Kirkland, Caroline, 29, 32, 34, 166–67
- Laboratory of Social Hygiene, 118–20, 123, 141
- Labor force: women in, after 1870, 42; relationship between criminality and entry into, 121–25.

- Labor force (continued)
 See also Economic analysis of women's crime
- Laundry work. See Domesticity
- Leonard, Clara, 51, 166–67
- Lesbianism, inmate, 138, 139–41, 153
- Lewis, O. F., 3
- Lewis, Sinclair, 150–51
- Lewis, W. David, 17
- Lieber, Francis, 17–18
- Little, Joann, 1, 152
- Livermore, Mary, 74
- Lombroso, Cesare, 111, 112–15, 116, 123
- Long, John Davis, 73
- Lord, Henry, 18
- Lowell, Josephine Shaw, 24, 35, 38, 41, 109, 117, 166–67; on need for separate women's institutions, 48–49, 55; on ideal reformatory, 56–57, 68, 131; on sexual abuse of women prisoners, 59
- Male criminals, reform of, 15, 54, 90
- Management. See Staff and management
- Martineau, Harriet, 16
- Massachusetts: women's prison reform in, 22, 35–36, 38, 46, 50, 51–52; Progressive reforms in, 128, 134–36
- Massachusetts Reformatory for Women: name change and other Progressive-era reforms at, 134–36; obstacles to reform at, 138–42; sexual reintegration of staff and management at, 156–57
- Massachusetts Reformatory Prison for Women, 52, 62, 68–69; design of buildings at, 70; female management and staff at, 71, 72–77; inmates selected for, 79–87; skills retraining programs at, 89, 91–92; indenture program at, 92–94; character retraining at, 96, 97, 99
- Maternity, emphasis on, 96. See also Domesticity
- Menken, Alice Davis, 124, 129, 172–73
- Men's attitudes: toward fallen women, 18; toward women prison reformers, 33–34, 38; as causes of fallen women, 42–45, 59; social feminist efforts to change, 44–45; as dominant in prison system, 155–57. See also Double standard; Fallen woman
- Mental ability, relationship to crime of, 111, 116–21. See also Defective delinquent, concept of
- Mental defectives, female, 140, 141. See also Defective delinquent, concept of
- Merit systems, 73, 76, 96
- Milligan, J. J., 62, 63
- Miner, Maude, 124
- Moral guardians, socialization of women as, 24, 27
- Moral language of criminologists, 113
- Moral reformers, prison reform by, 27–29
- Morals cases. See Chastity of offenders as inmates of women's prisons; Fallen woman; Prostitution; Women's courts
- Moral superiority, principle of female, 110. See also Female purity, sexual ideology of
- Moral treatment, outdoor activities as form of, 91
- Morton, Frances, 92, 97, 105
- Mosher, Eliza, 67, 72–74, 166–67
- Mount Joy Female Convict prison (Ireland), 49–50
- Muller v. Oregon*, 148

- Narcotics offenses, 145, 146
National Committee on Prisons and Prison Labor, 149
National Conference on Charities and Corrections (NCCC), 38,
39–40, 41
National Council of Jewish
Women, 127
National Prison Congress, 38
New Jersey, women's prison reform in, 136–37
New penology (1900–1920),
109–25; limits of, 126–42
New York (city): prostitution in prisons in, 28–29; separate women's court in, 129; difficult inmates from, 138, 141
New York Prison Survey, 149
New York Reformatory for Women
(Bedford Hills), 116, 117–21,
131–34, 157
New York (state): women's prison reform in, 22, 28, 35, 38, 46, 56–57; criminal conviction rates in (1830–1900), 161
New York women's prisons: cottage plan for, 69–70, 131–37 passim; female management and staff in, 71; inmates of, 78–82;
retraining programs at, 89; research on relationship of mental ability to crime at, 111, 116–21;
Progressive era anti-institutional reforms in, 131–37; sexual reintegration of staff and management at, 157

Obedience, emphasis on, 95, 97,
102, 104
Occupations, women's: list of acceptable career, 58; relationship of women's crime to, 121–25. See also Economic analysis of women's crime; Vocational training

O'Hare, Kate Richards, 124, 144,
146, 152, 153, 172–73
O'Reilly, Mary Boyle, 124, 172–73
Osborne, Thomas Mott, 130, 144
Outdoor activities: for inmates of women's prisons, 91–92, 96; Progressive reformers' emphasis on,
131–37 passim
Overcrowding, prison, 138–39,
141, 153

Palmer, Phoebe, 28, 166–67
Parole: indenture system as form of, 94; emphasized by Progressive reformers, 131, 132; changes in inmate population resulting from policy of, 138–39, 141
Paternalism of treating women as children, 54, 56, 154–55
Penitentiaries. See Prisons; Reformatory prisons; Women's prisons
Pennsylvania system (of imprisonment), 9
Penology, 1; limits of Progressive (1900–1920), 126–42. See also
Criminology (1900–1920); Prison reform; Reformers
Perijo, Rachel, 58
Philadelphia: women's prison reform in, 28; morals charges in,
129
Physiological criminal type, concept of, 111, 112–14
Pierce, Sarah, 73
Piety, traditional ideal of, 95–96
Pimps, treatment of, 128, 129, 130
Police matron movement, 61, 127
Policewomen, movement to hire,
127–28
Poor, Mary Pierce, 36, 166–67
Preventive services, 127–30
Prison Association of New York
(PANY), 18, 28–29, 61
Prison conditions: for women

- Prison conditions (continued)
(1820–70), 7, 15–17, 47; separate facilities and, 47–48; in Progressive era, 128
- Prison design, congregate- vs. family-style, 68–71. See also Cottage system
- Prison environment, 67–88. See also Retraining programs
- Prisoner rebellion: absence of, in women's prisons, 102; during 1970s, 157
- Prisoners. See Women prisoners
- Prison matrons: lack of, 17, 30; at Sing Sing, 48, 58; in House of Shelter, 50–51; first hiring of, 58. See also Staff and management
- Prison reform, 3; meaning of term, 8, 153; history of, 8–10; for male inmates, 15, 54. See also Reformers; Women's prison reform
- Prisons: history of, 1, 2–3, 8–15; male-dominated system and values of, 155–57. See also Reformatory prisons; Women's prisons; and specific topics
- Probation officers, women, 128–29, 130
- Probation policy, changes in inmate population from, 138–39, 141–42
- Professionalization: of women's prison reform, 35–40, 75; decline in 1920s of, 150
- Progressive era: reformers in, 109–25; limits of penology in, 126–42; evaluation of reform efforts during, 143–57
- Property and person offenders as inmates of women's prisons, 85–87
- Prostitution: perception of, 10; economic reasons for, 14, 42, 114, 115, 121, 123–24; as entry into criminal class, 14–15; as exploitation of female inmates, 16, 28–29, 60; male demand for, and unequal treatment of customers and women in, 43, 59, 130, 157; as victimless crime, 84, 85, 156; married women's entry into, 114; mental and psychological tests of inmates convicted of, 117–18, 119; radical critique of, 121; lack of recreation as cause of, 124; Progressives' response to, 126–30, 146–48. See also Chastity offenders as inmates of women's prisons; Fallen woman
- Psychological and mental tests, 117–21
- Psychological treatment for women prisoners, 136
- Psychopathic delinquent women, hospital for, 119, 139, 141; intellectual status of, 120
- Public activities, women involved in, 94
- Public order, offenders against, 83
- Punishment: in Colonial period, 8; as goal of long sentences, 86; in women's prisons, 89, 98–100. See also Discipline
- Purity. See Female purity, sexual ideology
- Quaker women, prison reform by, 22, 23, 24, 25–29, 36, 37
- Quetelet, Adolphe, 11
- Racial balance in prisons after World War I, 148
- Racial tensions, 139–41
- Racism, need to eliminate societal, 156, 157
- Reason, Bernice, 1
- Recreation: lack of, as cause of prostitution, 124; emphasis on, by Progressive reformers, 131–37 passim

- Reformatory prisons: for men, 15, 54, 90; British system innovations in, 49–50; America's first women's, 50–51; ideal design of, 56–57, 68–71, 146, 149; ultimate failure of, 141–42; evaluation of, 143, 146–57. See also Prison reform; retraining programs; separate facilities (sexual segregation); names of individual institutions
- Reformatory treatment: of chastity offenders, 84–85; of inmates of women's prisons, 87, 88; inculcating prisoners with values of, 101–4
- Reformers: attitudes of, 1, 7; personal backgrounds of, 24–27, 109–10, 111–12, 116–17, 118, 162–75; attacks on double standard by, 33–34, 42–43; professionalization of (1860–1900), 35–40, 75; principal aims of, 46; socialization of, 54; compromise and narrowing of vision of, 67; twentieth-century generation of, 109–25; opposition to, after 1920s, 150–51; sources of, 176–78. See also Women's prison reform; names of individual reformers
- Reform schools, sexual segregation at, 50
- Regimentation in women's reformatories, 101
- Rehabilitation: sexual segregation to facilitate, 47, 49; belief in, 48; prison organization for, 76; Progressive attempts at, 130–37
- Religious benevolence, social reform and, 1, 7, 25, 28, 29
- Rescue homes, 127, 129
- Retraining programs: domestic content of, 89–95, 96; for self-control, 95, 97–98, 100; traditional feminine ideals in character, 95–100; effect on prisoners of, 100–104; mixed record of, 105–6. See also Academic classes in women's prisons; Domesticity; Industrial training programs; Vocational training
- Rhode Island, women's prison reform in, 37–38
- Rhodes, Emily, 78
- Rockefeller, John D., Jr., 118, 141
- Rothman, David, 9
- Rowland, Eleanor, 117
- Sanborn, Franklin, 49
- Sanitary Corps, 147
- Sedgewick, Catherine, 29, 31, 33–34, 166–67
- Self-government by inmates, 130, 132, 137
- Sentencing policies, 148
- Separate facilities (sexual segregation): campaign for, 35–36, 46–52; ideology of separate-but-equal, 47, 155–56; evaluation of impact of, 151–53; reintegration of, 156–57. See also Differential treatment; Women's prisons
- Sexism, need to eliminate societal, 156
- Sexual behavior, study of women's, 117
- Sexual class, women as separate, 2, 19, 21, 105, 126, 155
- Sexual exploitation: of female inmates, 16, 28–29, 59–61, 152; as social force, 42–45, 59, 157; women's courts' attempts to protect women from, 129–30. See also Double standard; Fallen woman; Prostitution
- Sexual ideology: of Victorian era, 18–21; resistance to changes in, 143. See also Fallen woman; Sisterhood; Woman's sphere

- Sexual relationships, inmates', 47, 138, 139–41, 153
- Sexual separation. See Differential treatment; Separate facilities (sexual segregation); Women's prisons
- Sexual spheres, separation of, 2, 19, 21, 24. See also Domestic sphere; Woman's sphere
- Sexual stereotyping of vocational training, 149, 152, 154. See also Domesticity
- Sing Sing prison: women at, 30, 48, 58, 100; self-government at, 130
- Sisterhood: in relationship of prisoners and reformers, 33, 34; rhetoric of, 89, 102, 105–6; tensions in ideology of, 155
- Smith, Sarah, 36, 51, 166–67; as prison administrator, 62, 72, 77, 89; principles of corrections for, 95; on tobacco smoking, 97
- Smith-Rosenberg, Carroll, 19–20
- Social class. See Economic analysis of women's crime
- Social control, as function of women's prisons, 146–48
- Solitary confinement, uses of, 98–99, 101, 102
- Spaulding, Edith R., 119–20, 136, 174–75
- Spaulding, Warren, 72
- Staff and management: reformers goal of female, 58–64; attainment of female control of, 71–72; profiles of, 72–78; sexual reintegration of, 156–57. See also Police matron movement; Police-women; Prison matrons; Probation officers, women
- State v. Heitman*, 148
- Stone, Lucy, 37
- Stubbornness as chastity offense, 84–85
- Success stories, prisoner, in official record, 100, 104, 105. See also Indenture system
- Taft, Jessie, 140
- Talbot, Marion, 74, 117
- Tannenbaum, Frank, 116
- Temperance movement, 2
- Training programs. See Academic classes in women's prisons; Domesticity; Industrial training programs; Retraining programs; Vocational training
- True womanhood, 54–55
- Unitarians, women's prison reform by, 24, 26
- U.S. Sanitary Commission, 36, 37
- Unwed mothers, refuges for, 127
- Venereal disease, and antiprostitution activities, 147
- Vickers, Ann, 150–51
- Victimless crimes: chastity offenses as, 84, 85, 156; call for decriminalization of, 156
- Vocational training, 131–37 passim; sexual stereotyping in, 149, 152, 154, 157. See also Domesticity; Industrial training programs; Retraining programs
- Volstead Act, 145, 146
- Wardwell, Burnham, 75
- WCTU, police matron movement and, 61
- Weidensall, Jean, 118–20, 174–75
- Western House of Refuge (Albion, New York), 57, 69, 77, 89, 96, 98
- Willard, Frances, 74
- Willebrandt, Mabel Walker, 146
- Wines, Enoch C., 49
- Wines, Frederick H., 101

- Womanhood: femininity as true, 54–55; dual ideal of, 95
- Woman's sphere, 2, 19, 21, 33, 34; extended to prisons, 46–47, 62, 63; values of, 95; women criminologists' rejection of, 109–10, 125, 126; and separate sentencing policies, 148. See also Domestic sphere
- Women: history of, 1–2; defined as sexual class, 2, 19, 21, 105, 126, 155; networks of, 52; courts, 128–30
- Women criminologists. See Criminology (1900–1920); Reformers
- Women prisoners, 1–3, 7–8, 10–11; conditions of (1820–70), 7, 15–17, 47; halfway houses for discharged, 29–33, 34, 36, 55–56, 94; sexual segregation of, 35–36, 47–52, 151–53; in police stations and jails, 61, 127–28; criteria for commitment to women's prisons of, 78–79; as inmates of women's prisons, 78–88; effect of incarceration in women's prisons on, 100–106; during Progressive era, 109–57; physiology of, 112–15; social backgrounds of, 114, 117; mental and psychological tests of, 117–21; evaluation of impact of women's prisons on, 151–57
- Women's crime, 1; and ideology of female purity, 10–11, 14, 17, 19–20, 44; categories of, 11, 14; ratios of men's to, 11–13; origins of, 13–14; social/economic analysis of, 14, 40–45, 95, 105, 111–15 passim, 121–25, 156; types of offenses by inmates of separate women's prisons, 79, 81–87; environmental analysis of, 109, 110, 115–20 passim, 121–25, 126, 130, 141; concept of physiological type in, 111, 112–14; research in women's prisons on, 116–21; women's ideas about, 155–56. See also Chastity offenders as inmates of women's prisons; Fallen woman; Property and person offenders as inmates of women's prisons; Prostitution
- Women's Prison Association (WPA), 33–35, 42, 43, 53–57 passim; on police matron need, 61; on probation, 129; on separate institution for women alcoholics, 138
- Women's prison reform, 2–3, 7; sexual double standard and neglect of, 17–18, 33–34, 42–43; origins and ideas of, 22–45, 46; hard line of, 97; limits of during Progressive era, 126–42; efforts to anti-institutionalize prisons of, 130–37; failures of, 141–42; evaluation of, 143–57. See also Reformers
- Women's prisons: campaign for establishment of separate, 35–36, 46–52; separate-but-equal ideology of, 47, 155–56; design of buildings for, 56–57, 68–71, 146, 149; characteristics of inmates of, 78–88; retraining programs at, 89–106; as centers for research on female criminality, 116–21; obstacles to Progressive attempts to reform, 126, 137–42; Progressive reforms to anti-institutionalize, 130–37; overcrowding in, 138–39, 141, 153; list of (1873–1975), 144–45; social control function of, 146–48; evaluation of twentieth century, 148–57; reversing of trend of separate, 156–57. See also specific topics and names of individual institutions

- Women's rights movement and prison reformers, 34, 37, 39, 109.
See also Feminism
- Wood, James, 140
- World War I: imprisonment of women after, 145–46; treatment of prostitutes during and after,
146–48
- Young, Samuel, 12
- Young Women's Christian Association, 127