

Contents

Introduction	1
I. Black Arts 101
Dunbar Lives!	9
Sterling Brown: Where Academic Meets Vernacular	20
Nerudiana	25
Ode to Miss Gwendolyn Brooks (Ten Small Serenades)	28
The Genius of Romare Bearden	33
Lucille	45
Living in Americas: Poems by Victor Hernández Cruz	47
The Yellow House on the Corner and Beyond: Rita Dove on the Edge of Domesticity	52
The One Who Went Before and Showed the Way: Remembering August Wilson	62
Bill T. Jones Still/Here	68
II. Black Feminist Thinking
My Grandmother's Hair	73
"Imitations of Life"? A Very Short History of Black Women and Food in Popular Iconography from Jemima to Oprah, or, When Is a Pancake Not Just a Pancake?	81
Toni Cade's The Black Woman: An Anthology	90

“Coming Out Blackened and Whole”: Fragmentation and Reintegration in Audre Lorde’s Zami and The Cancer Journals	95
Black Alive and Looking Straight at You: The Legacy of June Jordan	116
Memory, Community, Voice	121
Kitchen Table Blues	134
III. Talking
A Conversation with Deborah Keenan and Diane LeBlanc	139
Who Is the Self in Language? / Rooted in Language: An Interview with Meta DuEwa Jones	154
Black Graduates’ Celebration	172
Africa and the World	178
Notes	183
Acknowledgments	187