Index

Abernathy, Thomas, 261
Abington Friends School, 102–3
Abington school district: Bible reading practices in, 131; Brennan on promoting moral values and discipline in, 299–300; considers appeal to Supreme Court on Schempp case, 203–4; as defendant in Schempp case, 67; dismantling of public school devotionals in, 309–10; historical account of subjects taught in, 103 Abington School District v. Schempp:
constitutional amendments on school prayer proposed after, 262, 309, 315–17; court-stripping tactics after, 317–18; debate on coercion and, 330–31; defiance against, 310–13; establishment clause shifts after, 338–43; Frankfurter on conformity pressures on children and, 332–33; free exercise issues in Chamberlin and, 333–34;
McConnell on coercion and, 333;
moments of silence tests after,
325–28; more conservative
Supreme Court and, 324–25;
Protestant acceptance of, 320–23;
resistance to, 307–9; Roman Catholic acceptance of, 319–20;
Scalia on coercion after, 328,
330–31; student-initiated prayers and, 334–38. See also Schempp case
Abington Senior High School:
alumni honors for Schempp by,
348; conformity in, 11–12; construction of, 2–3; new building for, 19; student council, 18–19;
teacher requirements on devotional exercises at, 22–23. See also Karam, Irvin A.; Stull, W.
Eugene
Abington Township: commissioner
on Schempp opinion, 202–3;
description of, 1–2; Penn’s charter from King George and, 101–2;
settlers, churches, meeting-houses, and schools in, 102–3 abstention doctrine, 230, 266
Ahlstrom, Sydney E., 82
Alabama, moment of silence case
from, 326–27, 339–41
Alito, Samuel, A., Jr., 325
American Civil Liberties Union
(ACLU): debates filing Schempp in federal or state courts, 57–58;
Ellery asks for help from, 30; on Gideon Bible distribution in public schools as sectarian, 145–46; in Miami, Chamberlin and, 190, 191; New York chapter
INDEX

considers Regents’ Prayer suit, 173; Philadelphia chapter considers Schempp, 38–40; Philadelphia chapter in 1950s, 31–32; preparation of Schempp’s case, 40–41; Schempp family and, 17, 24; on Schempp merits, 54. See also Byse, Clark; Mann, Theodore R.; Sawyer, Henry W., III

American Jewish Committee, 44–45, 45–46, 191, 192

American Jewish Congress (AJ Congress): (T. R.) Mann and, 41, 65; in Miami, Chamberlin case and, 190; in Miami, Resnick case and, 191–92; Pfeffer and, 42, 44–45, 46; Polier and, 44–45

American nationhood, teaching American values of, 125

Americans for Democratic Action, 194

Andrews, George W., 262

Anglican Church: in colonial America, 6–7, 77, 80, 258–59; competition from evangelicals and, 91–92; early twentieth-century levels in U.S., 95; immigrants and decline in, 94–95; religious diversity and, 81; religious revival of Great Awakening and, 82; requirements of, in England, 74–75

Anti-Defamation League of B’nai B’rith, 44–46, 191, 192

Anti-Federalists, on Constitution ratification, 88

atheism: O’Hair and, 193–94.

See also O’Hair, Madalyn Murray

Atheist Epic, An (O’Hair), 195–96, 225, 238–39

Baker, George W., Jr., 273

Baltimore Superior Court, 223

Bapst, John, 118, 119

Baptists: in colonial America, 76, 79, 81, 84; early twentieth-century levels, 95; Great Awakening and, 81; on Henry’s bill on taxation for religion teachers in Virginia, 85; in Massachusetts, 109; religious diversity in America and, 5; Second Great Awakening and, 92

Becker, Frank, 262, 315–16

Beecher, Henry Ward, 124

Bell, Clarence E., 207–8

Bible: different versions of, as basis of persecution and violence, 344–45; distribution to common man, Catholic Church and, 73–74; as early American textbook, 104; Illinois Supreme Court on sectarian nature of, 153–55; Kentucky court on non-sectarian nature of, 155; Pfeffer’s final arguments in Miami case on versions of, 218. See also Douay Bible; King James Bible

Bible reading in public schools:

Abington school district ends practice of, 309–10; Brennan reviews historical record on conflicts over, 299–300; Cincinnati ends practice of, 121–23; conservative justices on, 6–7; defenders of, on coercion in, 329–30; excusal provision in Pennsylvania, 207–8, 209; Illinois Supreme Court on, 153–55; (H.) Mann on, 111, 114; in Miami Beach public schools, 189, 190; New Jersey laws on, 49–51; nineteenth- and twentieth-century practices, 126; Pennsylvania laws on, 6, 54–55, 113, 128–29, 144; Philadelphia

Bible Readings for Schools (Schaef-fer), 144

Biggs, John, Jr.: appoints judicial panel for Schempp case, 134; Clark’s quotation of, for Schempp opinion, 288; concerns about intrusions of religion into public life, 180–81; on devotional exercises in Delaware schools, 306; Ellery on kindness of and respect for, 147; opens Schempp trial, 132; opinion in Schempp on Bible reading, 197–98; opinion in Schempp on excusal provision, 239–40; opinion in Schempp on First Amendment violations, 198–200; questioning Killian on devotional exercises in schools, 237; questioning Rhoads on Bible reading in schools, 186–87; resumes Schempp trial, 176; Rhoads’s argument on PA excusal law and Schempp case to, 230; on Rhoads’s objection to Donna Schempp testimony, 150; social, educational, and career history, 134–36

Bill of Rights, 88, 343–44. See also Constitution; First Amendment

Birkby, Robert H., 313

Black, Hugo: church–state separation cases and, 284–85; Engel v. Vitale decision and, 258–60; on establishment clause and Everson case, 254; joins Clark on Schempp and Murray cases, 295; as liberal vote on Supreme Court, 244; response to opinion in Engel v. Vitale, 263; vote on Murray case, 282; on wall of separation between Church and State, 140–41, 245

Blaine, James G., 113

B’nia B’rith, Anti-Defamation League of, 44–46, 191, 192

Boardman, Edward F., 214

Boehm, Charles H., 310

Book of Common Prayer, 74, 75, 259

Boone, George, 103

Brain, George, 220–21

Brehm, Evelyn W., 29–30, 61

Brennan, William J., Jr.: on Abing-ton school district’s promotion of moral values and discipline, 299–300; early processing of Schempp and Murray cases and, 266; Eisenhower’s appointment of, 11; Engel v. Vitale hearing and, 248–49; Gideon Bible case and, 146; as liberal vote on Supreme Court, 245; on moments of silence, 326, 328; scholarly opinion on Schempp and Murray by, 284, 294–96; on school prayer decisions, 281–82

Brown, Robert H., 241

Brown, Royal, 21–22, 25
INDEX

Buckson, David, 305–6
Buddhists, 127, 345
Burch, Francis B., 272–73
Butler, William J.: appeals Engel to NY Court of Appeals, 210–20; Engel decision and, 193; NY Court of Appeals on Engel and, 234; Roth's grievance against Regents' Prayer and, 174; Supreme Court hearing Engel and, 247–49, 251
Byse, Clark, 32, 39–40, 55
Caldwell, Millard Fillmore, 253–54, 308–9
Calvin, John, 74
Calvinism, New England Primer and, 105 capitalism, teaching American values of self-governance and, 125
Carden, John W., 51–52
Carden, Phillip M., 52
Carroll, Daniel, 139
Carroll, Elmer, 3–4, 28–29, 61
Cartwright, Judge, 154–55
Catholic church. See Roman Catholics Cellar, Emanuel, 315, 316 ceremonial observances, invocations and references to God in: Black on, 260; framers and, 342–43; Netcong schools and, 314–15; Sawyer on, 180–81. See also religion in public life Chamberlin, Harlow, 189–90, 215
Chamberlin v. Dade County: Florida Supreme Court decision on, 253–55; Gordon's decision in, 228; Murray v. Curlett and Schempp decisions and, 304; other cases testing religious exercises and, 243; Pfeffer on free exercise elements in, 333–34
Christian Century, 321
Christian Coalition, 318–19
Christian conservatives, 4, 318–19, 334–35
Christianity: joined with the state under Theodosian Code, 72–73; persecution of early followers of, 71–72. See also common religion for common schools; Protestantism; Protestants; Roman Catholics Christmas. See holiday celebrations Church, State, and Freedom (Pfeffer), 43, 46, 53, 192 church–state separation: Brennan's test on, 295–96; Clark's two-part test on, 293–94; Jefferson on wall of, 340; Madison, the framers and, 345–46; National Council of Churches on, 321–23; Pilgrims and, 75; Protestants on, 320–21; Supreme Court consideration of meaning of, 138–39; Supreme court justices on wall of, 141–42, 245, 246, 339; Wolfman's research on cases about, 32–33, 37–38. See also establishment clause; First Amendment; free exercise clause; religion in public life; religion in schools church–state union: Adam Smith on commercial monopolies and, 90–91; in colonial America, 75–76; in Europe and colonial America, 89; under Theodosian Code, 72–73. See also religion in public life; religion in schools Cincinnati, Ohio: protests against Protestant practices in schools in, 120; Roman Catholic immigrants to, 93
Cincinnati Superior Court, on Bible reading in schools, 122–23 civil disobedience, in 1950s, 8
“Civil Disobedience” (Thoreau), 21, 22 civil rights movement, 9–10, 238
Clark, Tom C.: announces decision in Schempp and Murray, 304; draft versions of majority opinion for Schempp and Murray, 285–87; Lemon test and, 326; on naming of Brown v. Board of Education, 290; on prayer and Bible reading in public schools, 6, 245–46; on religion and the United States in Schempp opinion, 291; on response to decision in Engel, 263; two-part test regarding establishment clause by, 293–94; vote on Murray case, 282; Ward’s expectations of Schempp case vote by, 270; Warren assigns to write Schempp and Murray opinions, 284, 285 coercion: Frankfurter on conformity pressures on children, 332–33; Kennedy on peer pressure and, 331–32; McConnell on establishment clause and, 333; peer pressure and, 329–30; Pfeffer on Chamberlin case and, 304; Protestant religious agenda in U.S. and, 328–29; Scalia on, 328, 330–31; Stewart on Schempp and Murray and, 303–4; as violation of free exercise clause, 139; votes by seniors on use of prayer at graduation and, 337. See also voluntary participation Cold War, school prayer and, 172–73 college applications: concerns about protests and, 2, 26, 215, 332; Ellery and process of, 20; Stull’s recommendations for Ellery and, 146, 348 colonial America: church and state relations in, 76–79. See also specific states
Columbia Journalism Review, 263
Commentaries on the Constitution (Story), 87 common religion for common schools: backlash in Maine against, 116, 118–19; backlash in Massachusetts against, 116, 119–20; backlash in Philadelphia against, 5, 115–18; Bible reading, Lord’s prayer recitations and, 5–6; immigration, increasing religious diversity and, 124–25; (H.) Mann and, 109, 111–12, 114
Confucianism, 345
Congregationalist Church: in colonial America, 6–7, 75–77, 78, 80; competition from evangelicals and, 91–92; immigrants and decline in, 94–95; nineteenth-century splits in, 109; religious diversity and, 81; religious revival of Great Awakening and, 82
Congress: chaplains for, 342, 343; First Amendment language approved by, 342; funding for religious education of Native American Indians by, 341, 342–43; school prayer amendment proposals in, 262, 309, 315–17
Connecticut: church and state relations in, 77; rules for teaching religion in, 101
Constantine, 72
Constitution: absence of religion in, 87–88; on establishing a religion and religious freedom, 24; framers of, Enlightenment philosophers and, 83–84; framers of, establishment clause and, 258–59, 341–42; framers of, free exercise clause and, 70, 75–76; framers of, Rehnquist on establishment clause and, 340–41; framers of, religious diversity in colonies and, 80–81; proposed amendments to, 262, 309, 315–17; ratification of, church membership and, 89–90. See also First Amendment; Fourteenth Amendment; Jefferson, Thomas; Madison, James

Constitutional Convention, U.S., religions of delegates to, 87

Continental Congress, Pfef-fer on prayers in, 183

Cooke, McLaurin F., 119, 120

Cooley, Thomas M., 255

Coolidge, Calvin, 134

Corson, Fred Pierce, 201

court-stripping, 317–18

Cox, Joseph, 115

Coxe, Spencer: as ACLU’s Philadelphia chapter head, 31–32; on filing Schempp in Pennsylvania first, 58; finding right lawyer for Schempp’s case, 41; meets Schempp family, 34; response to Ellery’s inquiry for help, 32–33; on Sawyer’s litigation abilities, 63

Cremin, Lawrence A., 104

Crocker, Donald, 211

crucifixion plays, in Miami public schools, 211–12

Curlett, John N., 223, 226

Dade County Board of Public Instruction (FL): adopts excusal provision, 214; Chamberlin’s free speech suit against, 189–90; on New Testaments distributed by Gideon International, 216; Pfef-fer on devotional exercises in, 210–11. See also Chamberlin v. Dade County; Miami, FL

Daiker, Bertram B., 249–51

Davis, John F., 304

Day, Sherman, 112

deist statesmen, as framers of Constitution, 83–84

Delaware, cooperation with Schempp and Murray decisions in, 305–6 democracy, teaching American values of, 125

Desmond, Charles S., 233

Deutch, Bernhard, 64

Deutch v. United States (1961), 64
devotional exercises: Abington school district ends practice of, 309–10; American schools and, 5–6; Christian conservatives on free speech and, 334–35; framers of Constitution and, 97–98; at Huntingdon Junior High School, 23; legal challenges to, 193; in Miami public schools, 212–13; Ohio Supreme Court on, 123; proposed Constitutional amendments to allow, 309; Protestant–Catholic in Philadelphia over, 116–18; public school compliance with Supreme Court decision on, 310–12; Schempp opinion on, 200; as sectarian religious ceremony, Sawyer on, 145; teacher requirements at Abing- ton High on, 22–23. See also Bible reading in public schools; Lord’s Prayer recitations Dierenfield, Richard B., 130, 311
district schools, in rural early America, 98–99
Dolbeare, Kenneth M., 311–13
Donahoe, Bridget, 118–19, 328–29
Doremus, Donald R., 50–51
Douay Bible: Bible reading in Pennsylvania schools and, 23; Bible reading in public schools and, 116; Clark’s opinion in Schempp on reading from, 294; Donahoe’s protest in Maine and, 118–19; Ellery’s protest and, 24; Frankfurter on use of King James Bible vs., 248; Grayzel on, 158; Illinois Supreme Court on religious practices in the classroom and, 153–55; Pennsylvania courts on King James Bible vs., 156; Rhoads on, 164; Sawyer on exclusion from Bible readings in schools of, 179; Sawyer’s argument in Schempp on reading from, 279; Sheen on reading in public schools from, 320; Wall’s protest in Massachusetts and, 119–20. See also Roman Catholics Douglas, William O.: early processing of Schempp and Murray cases and, 266; Engel v. Vitale decision and, 260–61; joins Clark’s opinion in Schempp and Murray, 294; as liberal vote on Supreme Court, 244; notes on Murray case, 282, 283; on released time for teaching religion off school property, 143
ducktail haircuts, 11
Duhe, John M., Jr., 315
Dunn, William, 124, 126
Dye, Marvin R., 233
Dyer, Mary, 75–76
Dyk, Timothy B., 265, 266
Eck, Diana L., 127–28
Edwards, Jonathan, 82, 105
Eisenhower, Dwight D., 10, 11, 134, 244–45, 262
Elsbree, Wayland, 65, 66–67
Elson, Ruth Miller, 107
Engel, Steven I., 175
Engel v. Vitale: Butler appeals to NY Court of Appeals, 219–20; demographics of plaintiffs in, 175; Meyer’s decision in, 192–93; opinion by NY Court of Appeals, 233–34; other cases testing religious exercises and, 243; response to Supreme Court opinion in, 261–63; Supreme Court decision on, 258–61; Supreme Court hearing on, 246–51. See also Abington School District v. Schempp
Engels (O’Hair’s dog), 253
English, O. H., 67, 203
English School Master, The, 107
Enlightenment, deist statesmen and, 83–84
Episcopalians/Episcopal Church, 68, 84, 95, 201. See also Anglican Church Equal Access Act, 335, 338 establishment clause: Black on Engel v. Vitale and, 258; Brennan on devotional exercises in schools and, 297, 298–99; Brennan on framer’s purpose for, 297–98; Clark’s two-part test for cases involving, 293–94; coercion and, 329; Congress’s consideration of language in, 341–42; conservative establishment clause (continued) justices on, 338–43; Ellery’s understanding of, 24; Florida Supreme Court decision on Chamberlin case and, 254–56; high school Christian clubs and, 335–36; legal history of, Sawyer and, 144–45; Madison’s Remonstrance and, 85–86, 344; McConnell on coercion and, 333; Pfeffer searching for case focusing on, 48–49; Pfeffer’s final arguments in Miami case on, 217–18; Prendergast’s opinion on Murray v. Curlett and, 226, 227; Rehnquist’s interpretation of, 340–41, 342, 344; Rhoads’s argument on, 185–87; Sawyer’s argument on, 178–80; Schempp opinion on, 198–200, 208; Supreme Court consideration of meaning of, 138–40. See also First Amendment

Europe: Reformation and, 74–75; religious conformity in, 71–72

Eusebius, 71–72

Everson v. Board of Education of Ewing Township (1947): Biggs’s opinion in Schempp case and, 199; Black and, 245, 258; Caldwell’s opinion in Chamberlin case and, 254–55; Clark’s opinion in Murray and Schempp cases and, 292; dissenting opinion in, 141–42; as early establishment clause test, 140; NY Court of Appeals on Engel v. Vitale and, 233; Pfeffer on AJ Congress and, 45

excusal provisions: added to Murray case, 329; added to Schempp case, 232–33, 329; Black on establishment clause and, 259–60; Brennan on establishment clause and, 300; in Florida, 213–14; in Maryland, 221–22; Pennsylvania bill on, 207–8, 209, 229–30; Stewart on, 334

Falwell, Jerry, 318

federal courts, school prayer advocates’ attacks on, 317

federal funding, Helms on school prayer and, 317

Federalist Party, 343

Feldberg, Michael, 116

Feminine Mystique, The (Friedan), 10

Finan, Thomas B., 273–75

Fiorillo, Michael, 194

First Amendment: Black on development of, 258–59; Brennan’s opinion on Schempp and Murray and, 295, 297; Congress’s consideration of language in, 341–42; Madison’s Remonstrance and, 85–86; passage of, 88–89; Pfeffer’s final arguments in Miami case on, 217–18; reach expanded from federal level to include states, 137–38; on religious freedom, 3; religious liberty in Virginia and, 84, 86; Schempp family on, 17; Sedition Act of 1798 and, 343; student-initiated prayers or religious exercises and, 338. See also Bill of Rights; establishment clause; free exercise clause

Fitzgerald, F. Scott, 134, 135, 136

Fitzgerald, Zelda, 136

Florida: Declaration of Rights in, 217; statutes on devotional exercises without comment, 213. See also Dade County Board of Public Instruction; Miami, FL

Florida Supreme Court: Chamberlin decision by, 253–55; Chamberlin remanded to, 305, 308–9; denies rehearing of Chamberlin, 258; Simon petitions for rehearing Chamberlin by, 256–57
Flynn, Martin J., 287, 291, 293, 295
Ford, Henry, 59–60
Forer, Lois, 176, 181–82, 188
Fourteenth Amendment, 67, 137–38, 291–92
Fowler, Mary, 297
Frankfurter, Felix: Biggs and, 135; on conformity pressures on children, 332–33; as conservative vote on Supreme Court, 244; on devotional exercises and religious differences, 6; Engel hearing and, 248; on establishment clause and McGowan case, 297; Harlan and, 7; on McCollum case and local conflict, 275; Pfeffer’s references to opinion on excusal policies of, 218–19; on released time for teaching religion, 143; on wall of separation between Church and State, 141, 142, 246, 339 free exercise clause: coercion and, 328–29; Ellery’s understanding of, 24; Florida Supreme Court decision on Chamberlin case and, 255–56; framers of the Constitution on, 70; Madison’s Remonstrance and, 85–86; O’Hair’s suit on, 223–24; Penn and, 78–79; Pfeffer on Chamberlin and, 333–34; Pfeffer searching for case focusing on, 48–49; Pfeffer’s final arguments in Miami case on, 217, 218–19; Prendergast’s opinion on Murray and, 226, 227; religious diversity in America and, 345–46; Rhoads’s argument on, 187; Sawyer’s argument of devotional exercises as violation of, 145; Sawyer’s argument on, 176–78; Sawyer’s rebuttal to Rhoads’s argument on, 187–88; Schempp opinion on, 200; Stewart on Schempp and Murray and, 302–3; Supreme Court consideration of meaning of, 138–39; Williams and, 78. See also First Amendment
Friedan, Betty, 10
Gaffney, Matthew W., 310
General Principles of Constitutional Law in the United States of America (Cooley), 255
Gideons International, 145–46, 216
Ginsberg, Allen, 10
Glatthorn, Allan, 20–21, 27
Goldberg, Arthur: concurring opinion in Schempp and Murray by Harlan and, 302; as liberal vote on Supreme Court, 245; joins Clark on Schempp and Murray cases, 295; on prayer and Bible reading in public schools, 6–7; vote on Murray case, 283; vote on Schempp case, 283 Gordan, J. Fritz, 211, 217, 228 graduation ceremonies: benedictions at, 328, 332; McConnell on coercion and prayers at, 332; Scalia on school prayer vs. benedictions at, 330–31; student-initiated prayers at, 337, 338
Graham, Billy, 263
Grant, Ulysses S., 113
Grayzel, Solomon: Clark’s quotation of, for Schempp opinion, 288; as expert witness on differences in Bibles, 156–59, 344; as expert witness on reading the Bible without comment, 160–61; on moral effect of the Good Samaritan story, 161–63; Schempp case and, 197
Great Awakening, 82, 91–92
INDEX

Greater Philadelphia Council of Churches, 202
Greensboro, NC, sit-ins at F. W. Woolworth store, 238
Gregory IX, Pope, 73

Hachten, William A., 263
Halberstam, David, 12
Hall, Joe, 192
Hallett, Josephine, 270, 304–5
Hammond, Phillip E., 311–13
Hand, Judge, 154–55
Hanukkah. See holiday celebrations

Harlan, John Marshall: concurring opinion in Schempp and Murray, 301–2; conservative views of, 339; Eisenhower’s appointment of, 244; on free exercise clause in Schempp and Murray, 303; joins Clark on Schempp and Murray cases, 295; on prayer and Bible reading in public schools, 6–7; on remanding Schempp back to Pennsylvania, 266–67; tentative vote on Murray case, 282; Ward’s expectations of Schempp case vote by, 270

Hart, Oliver J., 201
Hawthorne, NJ, school board, First Amendment case against, 49–50

Heiken, Herbert L., 190
Helms, Jesse, 317
Henley, Richard, 214
Henry, Patrick, 84–85
Hiegle, Richard J., 267
Hill, Philip, 102
Hindus in U.S., 127
Hines, C. Vernon, 52–53

holiday celebrations: Abington school district on, 310; American schools and, 5; crucifixion plays in Miami public schools, 211–12; Madison on separation of church and state and, 344; in Miami Beach public schools, 190
Hoover, Herbert, 262
hornbooks, 104
Horney, William R., 251–52
House Un-American Activities Committee, 64
Hughes, John, 120–21
Hull, W. R. Raleigh, Jr., 262
Huntingdon Junior High School, Abington Township, PA, 203–4, 240–41

Idaho, cooperation with Schempp and Murray decisions in, 313
idioms of teenagers in 1950s, 11–12

Illinois Supreme Court, on religious practices in the classroom, 153–55 immigrants: framers of the Constitution on religious freedom and, 80–81; German Lutherans, Catholics, and Jews, 93–94; Irish Catholic, 92–93, 116; Italian Catholic, 93; Jewish, political activism among, 44; nineteenth-century, 92; other nationalities and sects, 94; Pennsylvania as haven for religious liberty and, 78–79; religious diversity of, 94, 124–25, 329; twentieth-century, religious diversity and, 127–28

“In God We Trust” motto: Brennan on First Amendment and, 301; Clark on Engel decision and, 263; court-strippers on federal court jurisdiction over, 317; display in House of Representatives of, 262; Ellery on devotional exercises in school and, 280; Munro on Schempp decision in federal court and, 201–2; Spellman on use as prayer in schools, 320 independent schools, in early American cities, 99
Innocent IV, Pope, 73
Inquisition, persecution of heretics and schismatics under, 73
International Council of Christian Churches, 167

Jackson, Robert: as conservative vote on Supreme Court, 244; Harlan and, 7; on released time for teaching religion, 143; on wall of separation between Church and State, 141, 142, 339
Jackson Public School District, Miss., on student-initiated prayers at graduation, 337–38
Jefferson, Thomas: Bill for Establishing Religious Freedom, 86; Brennan's interpretation of establishment clause and, 298–99; as deist statesman, 83, 84; Ellery's distribution of thoughts on tyranny of, 19; objections to prayer at start of legislative sessions by, 184; par- dons as president, 343; Statute for Religious Freedom, 340

Jewish Holy Scriptures: Bible reading in Pennsylvania schools and, 23; Clark's opinion in Schempp on, 288; Grayzel on differences between King James Bible and, 158–59, 344; Rhoads on, 164; Sawyer on exclusion from Bible readings in schools of, 179; Weigle on readings in schools from, 165

Jews: American schools and, 5; Bible used by, 63; Ellery on devotional exercises in school and, 24–25; as immigrants to U.S., 94, 127; (H.) Mann's common Protestantism and, 114; on Supreme Court opinion in Engel v. Vitale, 263; Theodosian Code and, 73. See also American Jewish Committee; American Jewish Congress; Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith

Johnson, Clifton, 100, 105
Jones v. Clear Creek Independent School District (1992), 337, 338
Kaehler, James F., 204
Kaestle, Carl F., 124
Karam, Irvin A., 17–18, 19, 29, 62
Kaufman, Irving R., 294
Kennedy, Anthony, 330, 331–32
Kennedy, John F., 206, 245, 246, 262
Kenrick, Francis Patrick, 116–17
Kentucky court of appeals, on non-sectarian nature of the Bible, 155
Kerouac, Jack, 10
Kerpelman, Leonard J., 223, 252, 271–72
Killian, John D., III, 236–37, 242
King James Bible: Catholics' concerns about readings in public schools of, 116–17; Clark's opinion in Schempp on reading from, 294; Ellery's Unitarianism and, 24, 345; Grayzel on differences between Jewish Holy Scriptures and, 158–59, 344; Illinois Supreme Court on religious practices in the classroom and, 153–55; Maine Supreme Judicial Court on required reading in schools of, 118–19; (H.) Mann's common Protestantism and, 111; Ohio Supreme Court on use of in public schools, 153; Pennsylvania courts on nonsectarian nature of, 156; Pfeffer on Schempp case and, 184; Philadelphia riots by Protestants and Catholics over, 5, 115–18; Sawyer asks Weigle about composition of committee translating, 169; Sawyer’s argument in Schempp on reading from, 179–80, 278–79; Sawyer’s questions of Ellery on use of, 148; use for devotional exercises in public schools, 6, 130, 213; use in Abington Senior HS, 3, 23; use in Cincinnati schools, 121–23; Weigle on development of, 164; Weigle on nonsectarian nature for Protestants of, 344–45
King James Bible (continued)
Kirkpatrick, William H.: questioning Killian on devotional exercises in schools, 237; questioning Rhoads on Bible reading in schools, 185–86, 187; questioning Weigle about sectarian nature of various versions of the Bible, 165; Rhoads’s argument on excusal law and Schempp case to, 230; Schempp case and, 134. See also Biggs, John, Jr.
Kitto, Richard C. J., 310
Kluger, Richard, 290
Koran, 1, 3–4, 28
Kraft, C. William, Jr., 134, 230. See also Biggs, John, Jr.
Kraft, Raymond S., 204

Landis, Michael M., 215–16
Lawrence, David L., 209
Laycock, Douglas, 342, 343
Lazere, Haskell L., 190, 192
Le Beau, Brian, 193

Lemon v. Kurtzman (1971), 64–65, 326
Letter concerning Toleration, A (Locke), 83–84
Levin, Benjamin B., 202
Levy, Leonard W., 76, 86
Little Rock Central High School, Ark., integration of, 10
Littlest Angel, The (film), 212
Locke, John, 83–84
Lord, Joseph S., III, 136

Lord’s Prayer recitations: in Abington school district, 6; Abington school district ends practice of, 309–10; Brennan reviews historical record on conflicts over, 299; Christian basis of, 345; (H.) Mann on, 114; in Miami Beach public schools, 189; O’Hair on, 195–96; Pennsylvania laws on, 144; Pfeffer on Schempp case and, 183–84; Pfeffer’s final arguments in Miami case on, 218; Rhoads on history in Pennsylvania for, 185; Roman Catholic acceptance of, 319–20; Sawyer’s argument in Schempp on, 180; Schempp case on, 65, 67; Schempp opinion on, 197–98, 200; as sectarian religious ceremony, Sawyer on, 145; twentieth-century practices, 128, 131. See also common religion for common schools; devotional exercises
Louisiana laws on Bible reading in public schools, 314–15
Luther, Martin, 73–74, 107
Lutherans, 84, 93–94, 95

Madison, James: Brennan’s interpretation of establishment clause and, 298–99; defeats Henry’s bill for teachers of religion in Virginia, 85–86, 140; as deist statesman, 83, 84; on democratic government and separation of church and state, 346; objections to prayer at start of legislative sessions by, 184; Rehnquist’s interpretation of establishment clause and, 340–41, 342; on security for civil and religious rights, 91; on separation of church and state, 344

Maine, backlash against common religion in common schools in, 116, 118–19

Man in the Gray Flannel Suit, The (Wilson), 8–9

Manchester, William, 9, 10

Mandler, Bernard, 191–92, 267

Mann, Horace, 109–12, 114, 160, 177, 321

Mann, Theodore R.: asks Pfeffer and Polier for AJ Congress support for Schempp, 65; on breadth of test case, 60; on Ellery’s protest and request for ACLU help, 60–65; on filing Schempp case, 58–59; meetings with Pfeffer, 55; on opinion in Schempp case, 202; Pfeffer’s advice on Schempp case to, 176; on Pfeffer’s and Polier’s worldview, 59–60; on Pfeffer’s points against Schempp case, 56; Pfeffer’s suggestion to add Catholic and Jewish plaintiffs and, 62–63; on Polier’s call about Schempp case, 54; resigns from Schempp case, 63; on Schempp case merits, 53; Schempp case papers and, 66; takes on Schempp case, 41–42

Marx (O’Hair’s dog), 253

Maryland: Act of Toleration (1649), 76; truancy in, 221

Maryland Court of Appeals, Murray v. Curlett hearing before, 243, 251–52

Maslow, Will, 50

Massachusetts: backlash against common religion in common schools, 116, 119–20; church and state relations in, 76–77; colonial, statutes on schools in, 98; growth of religious diversity and public schools in, 109–10; Irish Catholic immigrants in, 93; Puritans and religious freedom in, 75–76, 86; statute on Bible reading in public schools, 128

Mayhew, Furman, 241

McCarthy, Joseph, 38–39

McCollum, Vashti, 51

McCollum v. Board of Education (1948): Biggs’s opinion in Schempp case and, 199; Black and, 258; Butler compares Engel v. Vitale to, 247; Frankfurter on conformity pressures on children, 332–33; Frankfurter’s concurring opinion in, 6, 275; Pfeffer and AJ Congress amicus brief for, 45; on released time for teaching religion, 142–43; Rhoads on Bible reading in schools and, 186; Sawyer compares Schempp to, 178

McConnell, Michael W., 333

McCoy, Albert, 204

McGowan v. Maryland (1961), 297

McGuffey, William Holmes, 105

McGuffey readers, 105–6, 126

McIntyre, Carl, 167

Mead, Sidney, 108

media, on Supreme Court opinion in Engel v. Vitale, 263

Memorial and Remonstrance Against Religious Assessments (Madison), 85–86, 140, 142, 260, 344
Mengler, Thomas M., 287, 289–90, 293
Methodists: in colonial America, 81; in early twentieth century, 95; Great Awakening and, 81; in Massachusetts, 109; religious diversity in America and, 5; response to Schempp opinion, 201; Second Great Awakening and, 92
Meyer, Bernard S., 175, 192–93, 219
Miami, FL: Chamberlin case and, 189–91; consolidated Chamberlin and Resnick cases and, 192; fundamentalist preaching in public schools, 189; Resnick case and, 191–92; Pfeffer’s final arguments in consolidated case, 217–19; Pfeffer’s witnesses in consolidated case, 210–16. See also Chamberlin v. Dade County; Dade County Board of Public Instruction
Michaelson, Robert, 116
Milman, Lois, 213
Mizener, Arthur, 135
Mogel, Stan, 241
moments of silence: Lemon test on, 326–27; state laws or policies on, 326; state requirements for, 325; Virginia case appealed to Fourth Circuit on, 327–28
mootness rulings, Schempp case and, 230
Moral Majority, 318
Morison, Samuel Eliot, 38
Morse, Jedidiah, 107
Munro, George D., 201–2
Murray, Jon Garth, 194, 347
Murray, Madalyn. See O’Hair, Madalyn Murray
Murray, William, Jr., 194
Murray, William J., III: Clark’s drafts of Schempp and Murray opinions and, 288–89; early life, 194, 195; on enrolling in Woodbourne Junior High, 196; Murray v. Curlett and Schempp decisions and, 305; objects to devotional exercises in school, 221; renounces atheism, embraces God, 347; repercussions of court case for, 224–26, 238, 253
Murray–O’Hair, Robin, 347
Murray v. Curlett: Clark announces decision on, 304; Clark reviews prior religion cases for, 292–93; Clark’s assurance on religion in public schools in, 294; Clark’s drafts of Schempp and Murray opinions and, 288–89; Clark’s legal analysis for, 291–92; Clark’s two-part test for establishment clause cases and, 293–94; factual record of, and Supreme Court opinion on, 290–91; initial Supreme Court processing of, 264–67; justices meet to vote on, 282–83; O’Hair and Kerpelman file, 223–24; oral arguments at Supreme Court on, 270–71; other cases testing religious exercises and, 243; Prendergast’s opinion on, 226–27; references to after Clark’s opinion on Schempp and, 289–90
Muslims in U.S., 127

Nassau Literary Magazine, The, 135
National Community Relations Advisory Council (NCRAC), 45
National Conference of Christians and Jews, 330
Index

National Council of Churches, 321–23
National Reform Association, 129
Native American Indians, Congressional funding for religious education of, 341, 342–43
nativists, in Philadelphia, clashes with Catholics and, 116–18
Nelson, Ozzie and Harriet, 9
Nero, 72
Nestorius, 72–73
Netcong, NJ, school district, devotional exercises after Schempp in, 313–14
New England Primer, 104, 105
New Jersey: Gideons Bibles distributed to schools of, 145–46; laws on Bible reading in public schools of, 49–51; Netcong school district’s devotional exercises, 313–14
New Religious America, A (Eck), 127
New Republic, 17, 24
New York: colonial and early nineteenth-century laws on schools in, 99; Pfeffer’s opposition to suit against Regents’ Prayer in, 174–75; Regents’ Prayer for schools, 172–73, 192–93, 233, 321; Roth’s grievance against Regents’ Prayer, 173–74. See also Engel v. Vitale
New York City: protests against Protestant practices in schools in, 120–21; Roman Catholic immigrants to, 93
Newsletter on the Murray Case, 252–53
Niebuhr, Reinhold, 16
Nietz, John, 103
oath(s): of belief in God for teachers in Miami Beach public schools, 190; of office, Constitution on, 87
O’Connor, Sandra Day, 327, 328
O’Hair, Madalyn Murray: attacks vice principal at Woodbourne, 238–39; attempts emigration to Soviet Union, 220; Clark’s drafts of Schempp and Murray opinions and, 288–89; commitment to atheism and activism by, 193–95; disappearance and death of, 347; on enrolling Bill, III in Woodbourne Junior High, 196; letters to Schempp family, 222–23; Murray v. Curlett and Schempp decisions and, 305; repercussions of court case for, 225–26, 252–53; Ward on, 272. See also Murray v. Curlett
O’Hair, Richard, 347
Ohio Supreme Court, on Bible reading in schools, 123, 153
Old-Time Schools and School-Books (Johnson), 100
Omaha, Neb., high school Christian club meetings in, 335–36
O’Neil, Robert M.: as Brennan’s clerk for, 281, 284; on Brennan’s opinion in Schempp and Murray, 294–95; regrets not cautioning Brennan on prejudging future legal controversies, 301; research for Brennan’s opinion on Schempp and Murray, 295–97; on Stewart’s wavering on Schempp and Murray, 302 pagans, Theodosian Code and, 73
Paine, Thomas, 19
Paist, Stanley S., Jr., 240
Parks, Rosa, 10
patriotic observances. See ceremonial observances
INDEX

Peace of Augsburg (1555), 74
Peace of Westphalia (1648), 74
peer pressure: coercion and, 329–30;
    Kennedy on coercion and, 331–32
peg pants, 11, 18
Penn, William, 78–79, 101–2
Pennsylvania: cases challenging
    Bible reading in, 155–56; colonial, statutes on schools in, 99, 103;
    common (public) schools in, 112–13; excusal provision to morning religious exercises in, 207–8; laws on Bible reading in public schools, 6, 54–55, 128–29, 144; Pfeffer on Bible-reading laws of, 54–55; Pfeffer on filing Schempp case in state courts of, 56–57, 58–59; post-Schempp plan
    for silent meditation in schools, 325. See also Schempp case
People ex rel. Ring v. Board of Education (IL 1910), 153–55
Perkins, Maxwell, 135
Pfeffer, Leo: on adding Catholic and Jewish plaintiffs, 62–63; amicus curiae brief in Schempp case, 183–84; Carden case and, 52–53;
    Chamberlin case and, 189, 190,
    210–11; concerns about right case for Supreme Court, 47–49; on consolidating Chamberlin and Resnick cases, 192; Doremus case and, 50–51; on excusal policies, 214–15; on filing Schempp case in federal court, 65–66; on filing Schempp case in Pennsylvania courts, 56–57, 58–59; final arguments in Miami case, 217–19; as First Amendment religion clause scholar, 42–43; on Florida
    Supreme Court decision on Chamberlin case, 253–54, 256; on free exercise clause in Chamberlin, 333–34; on Gideon Bible and public schools, 145–46; on Gor-don’s decision in Chamberlin v.
    Dade County, 228; on Hawthorne, NJ, First Amendment case, 49–50; Jewish organizations and, 44–45; on lawsuit
    over NY Board of Regents' Prayer, 173, 174–75; (T. R.) Mann on worldview of, 59–60; (T. R.)
    Mann sends Ellery’s case to, 42;
    Murray v. Curlett and Schempp decisions and, 304; on Pennsylvania’s Bible reading laws, 54–55;
    on religious observances vs. academic study of religion in schools, 216–17; religious practices case for the Supreme Court, 267; on Schempp merits, 55–56; on Simon’s request for Chamberlin case rehearing, 256–57; Supreme Court case selection and, 43–44;
    Zorach outcome and, 46–47
Philadelphia: ACLU chapter in 1950s, 31–32; Protestant–Catholic clashes over Bible reading in schools, 5, 115–18; Roman Catholic immigrants to, 93; U.S.
    Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit in, 132–33
Philadelphia Riots of 1844, The (Feldberg), 116
Pilgrims, religious freedom and, 75
Pinckney, Charles, 87
Plato’s dialogues, 21
Pledge of Allegiance, 172, 189, 301
Polier, Shad: calls (T. R.) Mann about Schempp case, 53; Doremus case and, 50–51; on filing Schempp case in Pennsylvania courts, 58–59; as First Amendment religion clause scholar, 44; Jewish organizations and, 44–45; (T. R.)
Mann on worldview of, 59–60;
(T. R.) Mann sends Ellery's case to, 42; on Schempp case merits, 54
Pollak, Louis H., 246, 247
Posner, Richard A., 284, 297
prayer: sectarian nature of, 345. See also school prayer Prendergast, J. Gilbert, 226–27
Presbyterians: demographics in U.S., 81, 84, 95, 127; on Henry's bill on taxation for teachers of religion in Virginia, 85; religious diversity in America and, 5; response to Schempp opinion, 201–2
Presley, Elvis, 12
primers, as early American textbooks, 104–5
Protestantism, common: (H.) Mann's concept of, 111–12. See also common religion for common schools Protestants: American schools and, 5, 108; coercive pressure in religious agenda of, 328–29; diversity in 1960s in denominations of, 346; dominant sects, 94–95; Irish Catholic immigrants and, 92–93; Massachusetts schools and, 109–10; Reformation and, 74; retreat from defending devotional practices in public schools, 320–23. See also Christianity; specific denominations
Protocols of the Elders of Zion, 59
Pullen, Thomas G., Jr., 221
Purcell, John B., 121–22
Puritans, 75–76, 78, 104–5
Quakers, 78–79, 102–3
Rabbinical Association of Greater Miami, 191
Rath, Tom and Betsy, 8–9
Reed, Ralph, 318
Reformation, of Christianity, 74
Regents’ Prayer: Christian Century on, 321; development of, 172–73; Meyer’s opinion in Engel on, 192–93; NY Court of Appeals on, 233; Pfeffer’s opposition to suit against, 174–75; Roth’s grievance against, 173–74
Rehnquist, William, 324, 330, 336, 339–43, 344 released time for teaching religion, 143, 190 religion in public life: Biggs’s concerns about, 180, 181; Brennan on, 300–301; Sawyer on, 180–81. See also ceremonial observances; church–state union religion in schools: Brennan’s opinion on Schempp and Murray and, 295, 297; Clark’s opinion in Schempp and Murray and, 293–94; colonial and early nineteenth-century, 98–100; historical review of, 96–97; Rehnquist on establishment clause and, 339–43; rules for teachers on, 100–101 religious diversity: American schools and, 5, 71; Brennan reviews framers' intentions and historical changes in, 298–99; in Cincinnati, 122; Clark on importance of free exercise clause and, 291; colonial roots of, 75–79; Great Awakening, religious freedom and, 82–83. See also immigrants religious freedom. See free exercise clause religious literature distribution, in Florida public schools, 190 religious Right: on Schempp decision, 4. See also Christian conservatives
Resnick, Edward, 191–92, 210
Revised Standard Bible, 157. See also English New Testament
from . . .
Rhinedollar, John Wesley, 117
Rhoads, C. Brewster: Abington school board on, 240–41; appeals
Schempp to Supreme Court, 209,
242; argues to dismiss Schempp, 232; arguing Schempp in federal court, 184–88; as attorney in Schempp case, 136–37; cross examinations by, 148, 149–51, 161–63;
objections to Ellery as witness, 147; on PA excusal law and Schempp case, 220–31; preparation of arguments for Schempp’s case, 146; Sawyer’s expectations of arguments by, 145; Schempp case defense and, 68–69, 143–44, 197–98; Weigle as expert witness for, 157; withdraws from Schempp case before Supreme Court, 268
Rieder, Percival R., 67–68, 204, 240–41, 268
Rivers, Mendel, 261, 316
Robbins, Royal, 107
Roberts, John G., Jr., 325
Robertson, Pat, 318
Robinson, Marcia, 211–12, 215
Robinson, R. R., 104, 107, 125–26
Rogers, John, 105
Roman Catholics: American schools and, 5; backlash against common religion in common schools, 115–16; Bible used by, 63; Brennan’s role as justice and role as, 281–82; Constitutional Convention and, 87; in early twenti-third century U.S., 95; Ellery on devotional exercises in school and, 24; on Engel opinion by Supreme Court, 262–63; as immigrants to U.S., 92–93; (H.)
Mann’s common Protestantism and, 114; in Maryland, 81; in Massachusetts, 109–10; McCollum case and, 48, 50; in New York City, 120–21; nineteenth-century textbook attacks on, 107; opposition to Engel and Schempp by, 319–20; Reformation and, 74. See also Christianity
Roosevelt, Franklin, 135
Rosenberger v. Rector of the University of Virginia (1995), 336
Roth, Lawrence, 173–74
Roths, John Henry, 194
rule of four, 265
Rutledge, Wiley B., 142
Santa Fe Independent School District
v. Doe (2000), 336, 337
Sawyer, Henry W., III: arguing
Schempp case in federal court,
176–80; asks Weigle about Protestant disagreements over
King James Bible, 166–68; asks Weigle about sectarian nature of Bibles, 168–69; asks Weigle about sectarian nature of King James Bible, 169–71; as attorney in Schempp case, 136–37; evaluating votes on Supreme Court,
245–46; filing Schempp complaint,
66–67, 133–34; Grayzel as expert witness for, 156–61; on intrusion of religion into public life, 180–81; Lemon test and, 326; oral arguments at Supreme Court, 271, 277, 278–79; Pfeffer’s advice on Schempp case to, 176; preparation of arguments for Schempp’s case, 144–46; pro bono work for ACLU, 64–65; questioning Ellery at federal trial, 147–48; on Rhoads’s delaying tactics after excusal law passed, 231; as Schempp case litigator, 63–64, 65, 143–44; at Supreme Court, Ellery’s observations of, 277–78; on Supreme Court’s language in remanding Schempp to Biggs, 232; Ward and, 269, 280
Scalia, Antonin, 324–25, 328, 330, 336
Schaeffer, Nathan C., 144
Schempp, Donna: concerns about lawsuit ramifications, 37; early life, 14, 17; importance to Schempp case, 66–67; oral arguments at Supreme Court and, 270; repercussions of court case for, 205; as witness in federal trial, 145, 150–51; Wolfman meets with, 35
Schempp, Edward: on asking for excusal from devotional exercises, 234–35; assessment of federal trial on Ellery’s protest, 188, 235; changing political views of, 206–7; cultural upbringing, 13; on Ellery’s protest, 28; excusal provision in PA and, 208–9, 332; hostility toward family after court case and, 204–6, 241–42; O’Hair’s letters to, 222–23; opinion in Schempp case on rights of, 200–201; oral arguments at Supreme Court and, 270; as plaintiff of record, 66–67; professional life, 14–15; Unitarian Universalist Church and, 15–16; Western trip during Depression, 14; as witness in federal trial, 148–49; Wolfman meets with, 34–36
Schempp, Ellery F.: advises parents about his protest plans, 27–28; civil disobedience by, 8; on day of protest, 1, 2–4, 28–30; on devotional exercises in school, 24–25, 345; early life, 14–15; family discussions about religion and, 16–17; as first witness in federal trial, 146–48; on Glatthorn and intellectual questioning, 21–22; as junior at Abington High, 20–21; Karam’s chastisement of, 18; (T. R.) Mann meets with, 42; Murray v. Curlett and Schempp decisions and, 304–5; oral arguments at Supreme Court and, 270; as plaintiff for religious freedom, 7; planning the protest, 25–27; professional career of, 348; repercussions of court case for, 205; on Sawyer at Supreme Court, 277–78; as senior at Abington High, 61–62; on Supreme Court’s action in his case, 280; at Tufts University, 206, 237–38; Unitarian Universalist Church and, 15–16; as witness to morning devotionals at school, 145; Wolfman meets with, 34–36
Schempp, Roger: on asking for excusal from devotional exercises, 235; concerns about lawsuit ramifications, 37; early life, 14, 17; importance to Schempp case, 66–67; repercussions of court case for, 205; as witness in federal trial, 145, 149–50; Wolfman meets with, 35

Schempp, Sidney: concerns about lawsuit ramifications, 36–37; cultural upbringing, 13–14; O’Hair’s letters to, 222–23; opinion in Schempp case on rights of, 200–201; oral arguments at Supreme Court and, 270; as plaintiff of record, 66–67; politics and, 17; Unitarian Universalist Church and, 15–16; Wolfman meets with, 34–36

Schempp case: ACLU and (T. R.) Mann decide to file in federal court, 59; appeal to Supreme Court, 203–4, 241, 242; Baker’s arguments at Supreme Court on, 273; Burch’s arguments at Supreme Court on, 272–73; Byse and, 39–40, 55; Clark announces decision on, 304; Clark reviews historical context for, 291; Clark reviews prior religion cases for, 292–93; Clark’s assurance on religion in public schools in, 294; Clark’s drafts of opinion for, 285–89; Clark’s legal analysis for, 291–92; Clark’s presentation of facts in, 288; Clark’s two-part test for establishment clause cases and, 293–94; effect on American life, 4; expert witness testimony in federal trial, 152–53, 156; factual record of, and Supreme Court opinion on, 290–91; family testimony in federal trial, 146–51; Finan’s arguments at Supreme Court on, 273–75; Forer on prayer recitation, 182; Grayzel on differences in Bibles, 156–59; Grayzel on reading the Bible without comment, 160–61; Harlan on remanding back to Pennsylvania, 266–67; initial Supreme Court processing of, 264–67; justices meet to vote on, 282–83; Kerpelman’s arguments at Supreme Court, 271–72; (T. R.) Mann resigns from, 63; (T. R.) Mann takes on, 41–42; Murray case listed as second after, 286–90; O’Neil’s research on Brennan’s opinion for, 295–97; opinion on Bible reading in, 197–98; opinion on excusal provision, 239–40; opinion on First Amendment violations, 198–200; oral arguments at Supreme Court, 270–75; other cases testing religious exercises and, 243; Pfeffer on filing in Pennsylvania first, 56–57, 58–59; Pfeffer’s amicus brief and, 176, 183–84; Philadelphia ACLU chapter considers, 38–40; plaintiffs in, 66–67; public response to opinion in, 201–3; Rhoads on adding excusal provision to, 236; Rhoads’s cross-examination of Grayzel, 161–63; Rhoads’s delaying tactics after excusal law passed, 229–31; Rhoads’s response to, 69; Sawyer cross-examination of Weigle, 166–71; Sawyer on establishment in Schempp, 178–80; Sawyer on excusal provision and, 232–33, 235–36; Sawyer on free exercise in Schempp, 176–78; Sawyer on intrusion of religion in public life, 180–81; Sawyer on Schempp’s asking for excusal, 234–35; Sawyer’s argument at Supreme Court, 271, 277, 278–79; Third Circuit opinion in, 197–98; U.S. Supreme Court remands to Biggs, 231; Ward prepares for Supreme Court hearing, 268–70; Ward’s arguments at Supreme Court on, 275–77; Weigle on moral value of Bible reading to children, 166; Weigle on sectarian nature of various versions of the Bible, 164–65; Weigle on various versions of the Bible, 163–64; Wolfman resigns from, 41

Schiffler, George, 115

school prayer: Brennan on difficulties with decisions on, 281–82; conservative justices on, 6–7; defenders of, on coercion in, 329–30; in Florida public schools, 190, 213; as free speech, litigation on, 337–38; at high school football games, 336. See also devotional exercises; Lord’s Prayer recitations; religion in schools; Schempp case school superintendents, interpretation of Schempp by, 312 schools: in American colonies, 4–5; Brennan reviews historical changes in, 208; colonial, rules on teaching religion in, 100–101; colonial and early nineteenth-century, 98–100; conservative justices on prayer in, 6–7; evolution from private to public in U.S., 71; financial assistance for religious publications by, 336; history of religion in, periods of, 96–97; Hughes pushes for Catholic parochial system in New York, 121; Pan-Protestantism in, 108; public, development of, 108–13; teaching American values of self-governance in, 125. See also common religion for common schools; religion in schools; textbooks

Scott, John M., 117–18

Second Great Awakening, 91–92

Sedition Act of 1798, 343

Senate Judiciary Committee, 262

sermons, fundamentalist, in Miami Beach public schools, 189

Shannon, Charles Kenneth, 103, 107–8

Sheen, Fulton J., 320

silent generation, 8–9

Simon, Tobias, 256

Simple Justice (Kluger), 290

Sissel, H. B., 202–3

Smith, Adam, 90

Smith, Charles, 204

Society of Friends, 78–79. See also Quakers

South Carolina: church and state relations in, 76; colonial, religious diversity in, 81; colonial, statutes on schools in, 99

Speer, David, 129

spellers, as early American textbooks, 104

Spellman, Francis Cardinal, 263, 319–20

Squibb, Alva M., 23

Stein, A. C., 129

Stern, Philip, 215

Stewart, Potter: dissent in Schempp and Murray cases, 295, 302–4, 339; early processing of Schempp and Murray cases and, 267; Engel v. Vitale decision and, 261; on free exercise clause in Murray, 302–4; on free exercise clause in Schempp, 302–4, 334; opinion on
INDEX

Murray case, 282–83; on prayer and Bible reading in public schools, 245–46; Ward’s expectations of Schempp vote by, 270

Stokes, Anson Phelps, 87

Stone, William, 121

Story, Joseph, 87

student-initiated prayers or religious exercises, 325, 334–35, 337–38

Stull, W. Eugene: college recommendations for Ellery by, 146, 348; as defendant in Schempp case, 67; Ellery’s protest and, 62; ends devotional exercises, 240; on good and bad people, 11; Karam’s attack on Ellery about conformity and, 18; promotions for, 19; receptiveness to protest, students on, 25. See also Abington Senior High School

Suggestions for Bible Readings in the Florida Public Schools, 213

Supreme Court, U.S.: changing decisions by, 315; clerk roles and duties, 285–86; court stripping tactics against, 317–18; Doremus case and, 50–51; early processing of Schempp and Murray cases, 264–67; Eisenhower’s appointments to, 11, 244; Ellery’s case before, 4; Engel v. Vitale decision of, 258–61; Engel v. Vitale hearing before, 246–51; federal vs. state cases and docket of, 57, 133–34; Florida Supreme Court decision on Chamberlin case and, 253–54; Murrays and Schempps pose for photos at, 279–80; religious faith of justices, 281–82; remands Schempp case back to Biggs, 231; vote on Murray case, 282–83; vote on Schempp case, 283; as Warren Court, 244–45. See also specific cases and justices

Sybert, C. Ferdinand, 221–22

Taft, Alphonso, 122–23, 153

Tappert, George, 28

teachers: Abington requirements on devotional exercises for, 22–23; in colonial America, rules for, 100–101; in Dade County, oath of belief in God for, 190, 216; effects of Schempp case on, 312–13; of religion in Virginia, Henry’s bill on taxation for, 85–86, 140

Teasley, Thomas A., 214

tenagers of 1950s, 11–12

Tennessee laws on Bible reading in public schools, 51–52, 313

textbooks: hornbooks, 104; McGuffey readers, 105–6; nineteenth-century, religion and, 103–4, 107–8; primers, 104–5; spellers, 104; teaching American values and changes in, 125–26

Thanksgiving proclamations invoking prayer, 342

Theodosian Code, 72

Theodosius II, Emperor of Eastern Roman Empire, 73

Thirty Years War (1618–1648), 74

Thomas, Clarence, 324, 330, 336

Thomas, Norman, 16

Thoreau, Henry David, 21, 22

Tiger, The, 135

Tillich, Paul, 16

Toll, Seymour I., 136

Tom Clark Papers at University of Texas School of Law in Austin, 286

Tuller, Edwin H., 322–23

Unitarianism: Donna Schempp’s explanation for Wolfman of, 35; Ellery’s protest and, 24, 345; in Massachusetts, 109; Schempp family and, 15–16
United Steel Workers, 47
University of Missouri at Kansas City ban on using university buildings for religious purposes, 335
U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit, 337
U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit, 327
U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, 132–33, 308. See also Biggs, John, Jr.
U.S. Office of Education, 130
Varallo, Mary, 207
Vavrina, Vernon, 220–21
Vincent, Sidney, 47
Virginia: colonial, statutes on schools in, 99; Henry’s bill on taxation for teachers of religion in, 84–86; Jefferson’s Bill for Establishing Religious Freedom in, 86; moment of silence case appealed to Fourth Circuit by, 327–28; religious freedom in, 84; Statute for Religious Freedom, 340. See also Jefferson, Thomas; Madison, James Vitale, William J., Jr., 175 voluntary participation: in Abington schools, Donna Schempp on, 150–51; Becker’s proposed constitutional amendment on, 316; court-strippers on federal court funding and, 317; Florida’s unwritten policy on, 213–14, 216; free exercise clause and, 139; in Netcong, NJ, schools, 313–14; Pfeffer on Florida’s policy, 218–19; in Tennessee, 313; Tuller on, 322–23. See also coercion Wall, Thomas, 119–20, 328–29
Ward, Philip H., III: on O’Hair, 272; oral arguments at Supreme Court, 275–77; on Rhoads’s withdrawal from Schempp case, 268; Sawyer and, 269, 280; Schempp case defense and, 68–69, 176; telegram on Schempp decision to, 304–5
Warren, Earl: assigns Clark to write Schempp and Murray opinion, 284–85; as chief justice, 245; early processing of Schempp and Murray cases and, 265–66; Eisenhower’s appointment of, 11, 244; on hearing Murray and Schempp cases, 270–71; joins Clark’s opinion in Schempp and Murray, 295; notes on Murray case, 283; vote on Murray case, 282
Washington, George, 342
Waters, David, 347
Watts, Rowland, 58
Way, H. Frank, 310
Wealth of Nations, The (Smith), 90
Webster, Noah, 104
Weigle, Luther Allan: Clark’s quotation of, for Schempp opinion, 288; as expert witness in Schempp case, 157, 163–66, 197, 278; on King James Bible as nonsectarian for Protestants, 344–45
Weisgal, Fred, 221
Wertenbaker, Thomas J., 101
West Monroe school district, La., Bible reading in public schools of, 314–15
Westside Community Board of Education v. Mergens (1990), 335–36
White, Byron R.: on ban on using university buildings for religious purposes, 335; on coercion and religious practices in schools, 330; joins Clark on Schempp and Murray cases, 295, 302; on prayer
White, Byron R. (continued)
and Bible reading in public schools, 6, 245–46; vote on Murray case, 283; Ward’s expectations of Schempp vote by, 270
White, Mrs. Frank, 241
Wickersham, James, 128–29
Widmar v. Vincent (1981), 335
Williams, Roger, 78
Wilson, Edmund, 135
Wilson, Sloan, 8
Winstead, Arthur, 261–62
Wise, Stephen, 44
Wolf, George, 112
Wolfman, Bernard: Byse and, 39–40; meets Schempp family, 34–36; research on church–state separation cases, 32–33, 37–38; resigns from Schempp case, 41 women in America of 1950s, feminist movement and, 10
Woodbourne Junior High, Baltimore, Md., O’Hair’s confrontations with, 196, 220–21
Worster, Clayton, 204
Young, William, 23
Youth’s Instructor in the English Tongue, The: or The Art of Spelling Improved, 104