

Contents

Abbreviations	vii
Hebrew Journal Titles Translated	ix
Benny Morris
Introduction	I
Benny Morris
The New Historiography
Israel Confronts Its Past	II
Mordechai Bar-On
Remembering 1948
Personal Recollections, Collective Memory, and the Search for “What Really Happened”	29
Yoav Gelber
The History of Zionist Historiography
From Apologetics to Denial	47
Anita Shapira
Hirbet Hizah
Between Remembering and Forgetting	81
Avi Shlaim
The Debate about 1948	124
Yossi Ben-Artzi
The Contribution of Historical Geography to the Historiography of the Establishment of Israel	147

Moshe Lissak

“Critical” and “Establishment” Sociology in Israel’s Academic Community

Ideological Clashes or Academic Discourse? 178

Uri Ram

The Future of the Past in Israel

A Sociology of Knowledge Approach 202

Yaron Tsur

Israeli Historiography and the Ethnic Problem

231

Yechiam Weitz

Dialectical versus Unequivocal

Israeli Historiography’s Treatment of the Yishuv and Zionist Movement Attitudes toward the Holocaust

278

Mustafa Kabha

A Palestinian Look at the New Historians and Post-Zionism in Israel

299

Bibliography

319

Contributors

355

Index

357