

Contents

Preface	ix
Foreword, Mary Sue Coleman	xiii
Foreword, Njabulo S. Ndebele	xxi

Introduction: Twins Born at Different Times? David L. Featherman	1
--	---

PART I ~ Historical and Legal Context

Introduction to Part I, Marvin Krislov

Affirmative Action and the U.S. Black Freedom Struggle David J. Garrow	35
The Struggle for National Liberation and the Attainment of Human Rights in South Africa Neville Alexander	50
Affirmative Action in Higher Education over the Next Twenty-five Years: A Need for Study and Action Sandra Day O'Connor and Stewart J. Schwab	58
From Redress to Empowerment: The New South African Constitution and Its Implementation Judith February	74
Social Justice and Postapartheid Higher Education in South Africa André du Toit	87
Affirmative Action and Higher Education in the United States and South Africa Nancy Cantor and Jo Thomas	110

PART II ~ Higher Education in the World: Labor Markets and Social Mobility

Introduction to Part II, David L. Featherman

Moving on Up? The Politics, Problems, and Prospects of Universities as Gateways for Social Mobility in South Africa Jonathan D. Jansen	129
---	-----

Higher Education and the Labor Market in Postapartheid South Africa
Haroon Borat	137
Retrenching Civil Rights: Mass Imprisonment in America
Bruce Western	144

PART III  The World in Higher Education:
Admissions, Curriculum, and the Classroom
Introduction to Part III, Martin Hall

The Promise and Peril of the Texas Uniform Admission Law
Marta Tienda and Teresa A. Sullivan	155
Admissions Policies and Challenges
Nan Yeld	175
Race and Class in the South African Higher-Education Sector: A Focus on the Undergraduate Experience
Crain Soudien	187
Benefits and Barriers: Racial Dynamics of the Undergraduate Experience
Sylvia Hurtado	196
Diversity, Dialogue, and Democratic Engagement
Patricia Gurin, Biren (Ratnesh) A. Nagda, and     Akua O. Campanella	208
Institutional Culture and Diversity: Engagement and Dialogue in a South African University
Martin Hall, Dorrian Aiken, and Nazeema Mohamed	218
Who Is “Getting Through” in South Africa? Graduate Output and the Reconstruction of the Formal Curriculum
Ian Scott	229
Defining the Problem of Equity in Teaching Elementary School Mathematics
Jennifer Lewis and Deborah Loewenberg Ball	244

PART IV  The Next Twenty-five Years
Introduction to Part IV, Martin Hall

Looking Back
Stuart Saunders	259

The First Ten Years: The Role of Public Policy in Shaping Postapartheid Higher Education in South Africa Naledi Pandor and Nasima Badsha	268
The Role of Public Policy in Shaping Higher Education in the Twenty-first Century: Achieving Diversity, Excellence, and Equity in the Academy Richard W. Riley and Judith A. Winston	277
Racial Disparities and the Next Twenty-five Years: The Continued Need for Affirmative Action Michael S. McPherson and Matthew A. Smith	286
Beyond Equity Committees and Statistics Elaine Salo	297
Achieving Critical Mass: The Future of Gender and Higher Education in the United States Abigail J. Stewart and Danielle LaVaque-Manty	309
Democracy and the Choosing of Elites Glenn C. Loury	317
A Future Beyond “Race”: Reflections on Equity in South African Higher Education Zimitri Erasmus	334

Conclusions

The Challenge of the Next Twenty-five Years Marvin Krislov	343
Nothing Is Different, but Everything’s Changed Martin Hall	355
Contributors	371
Index	379