

Contents

Conventions	xiii
INTRODUCTION: Environments, Environmental Ambiguities, and Literatures	I
Changing Environments	7
Environmental Ambiguity	9
Environments of Literature	13
Changing Environments of Literature	16
Ecoambiguity	26
ONE / Environmental Degradation and Literature in East Asia	32
Environmental Degradation in China	35
Chinese Literature and Environmental Degradation	41
Environmental Degradation in Preindustrial Korea and Japan	54
Environmental Degradation in Modern Japan	55
Japanese Literature and Environmental Degradation	61
Environmental Degradation in Modern Korea	74
Korean Literature and Environmental Degradation	77
Environmental Degradation in Taiwan	84
Taiwanese Literature and Environmental Degradation	88
PART I
TWO / Accentuating Ambivalence	99
Ambivalence	102
Reconceptualizing Use	107
Suffering Worlds	108
Threatened Worlds	119
Disappearing Worlds	125
Protesting Protection	132
Navigating Disparate Attitudes	146
THREE / Underlining Uncertainty	156
Informational Ambiguity	160
The Unknown and Unknowable	164

xii CONTENTS

Making Sense of Symptoms	169
Assessing Damage	175
Assessing Collateral Nonhuman Damage	184
Questioning Nonhuman Resilience	191
Ambiguous Futures	204
FOUR / Capitalizing on Contradiction		214
Determining Cause, Assessing Accountability	216
Among People	216
Necessity and Accountability	225
Human, Nonhuman, or Both	231
Contradictions: Trading Off	237
Decreasing Human Numbers, Helping Environments	238
Increasing Human Numbers, Harming People and Environments	240
Helping Environments, Harming Environments	245
Assessing Assessments of Behaviors	258
Standards	259
Physical Standards	261
Social and Temporal Standards	274
PART II
FIVE / Acquiescing		281
Myopia and Myopic Hyperopia	282
Accepting Environmental Degradation	291
Necessity, Compulsion, and Actively Damaging Environments	310
Denying Disavowals	318
Arresting Behaviors	323
SIX / Illusions and Delusions		328
Physically and Conceptually Manipulating Environments	335
Gaping Chasms	341
Signifying Indifference	347
Culture, Civilization, and Damaged Environments	357
SEVEN / Green Paradoxes		380
Injurious Fascination	389
Admiring Ecosystems, Longing for Control	404
Green Hypocrisy	417
Notes	437
Works Cited	569
Index	645	