Contents

Preface and Acknowledgments ix

CHAPTER 1. Majoritarian Cities 1

CHAPTER 2. Patterns of Inequality, Public Attitudes, and the Cases 40

CHAPTER 3. When Political Support Is Not Enough to Reform Urban Schools 69

CHAPTER 4. Focusing Events and the Limits of Law Enforcement Reform 101

CHAPTER 5. “The Number One Issue”? The Struggle for Affordable Housing 131

CHAPTER 6. The Popularity of Gambling Meets the Need for Economic Development 162

CHAPTER 7. Democratic Control in an Impoverished, Segregated Urban School District 188

CHAPTER 8. Politics, Policy, and Inequality in Urban and Metropolitan America 212

Notes 237
References 241
Index 263