

Contents

Introduction. Anti-Imperialist Modernism: Transnational Radical Culture from the Great Depression to the Cold War	I
1 • This Land Is My Land: Cuba and the Anti-Imperialist Critique of a National-Popular Culture in the United States	38
2 • Travels of an American Indian into the Hinterlands of Soviet Russia: Native American Modernity and the Popular Front	83
3 • The Other Revolution: Haiti and the Aesthetics of Anti-Imperialist Modernism	118
4 • The Strike and the Terror: The Transnational Critique of the New Deal in the California Popular Front	150
5 • An Inland Empire: Fascism, Farm Labor, and the Memory of 1848	182
6 • Cold War Re-Visions: Red Scare Nationalism and the Unmade Salt of the Earth	224
Notes	253
Bibliography	287
Index	301