
Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Acknowledgments	xi
List of Acronyms	xv
1 • Public Services after Democratization and Decentralization	1
2 • Accounting for Reform in the Mexican Urban Water Sector	32
3 • Water and Particularistic Politics in Urban Mexico: A Historical Overview	61
4 • Reform Adoption in León and Irapuato: Policy Insulation through Broad Elite Incorporation	84
5 • Reform Adoption in Naucalpan and Celaya: Policy Insulation through Narrow Elite Incorporation	123
6 • Reform Failure in Toluca and Xalapa: Ad Hoc Solutions and Gradual Services Decay	149
7 • Reform Failure in Neza and Veracruz: Repurposed Clientelism and Acute Services Decay	173
8 • Politics, Time Horizons, and the Global Water Crisis	199
Appendix A: Measurement Discussion and Additional Data	217
Appendix B: List of Interviews	223
References	227
Index	245