

Middle East Tribune, December 23, 2011

Quartet members are formulating a draft resolution to enforce a nuclear free zone in the Persian Gulf. They will convene on February 6, 2012 to vote on the resolution.

US secretary of state invited Israeli and Palestinian delegations to Washington on February 6, 2012 to continue talks on the Palestinian quest for statehood, that are currently taking place in Jordan.

The UN secretary general is finalizing a plan for an economic cooperation forum in the Middle East. He requested all parties to propose topics for the meeting in Washington.

The media welcomes updated press releases from all parties for a breaking news publication on February 6, 2012.

Fig. 5.3. Scenario format: Middle East Tribune, Dec. 2011